Billy Joel Gives His Opponent Another Solar Plexus Blow.

With a heart full of theology and a heart full of love for all men, I come before the large audience of Press readers again. I believe in a "whosoever will" salvation and the free moral agency of man—that the salvation of the world is upon this "whosoever will" plan. Now, it one thing to get salvation and quite another thing to keep it. The man who "abides in Christ" is the man who hath eternal life.—John 15: 7.

Well, I have found out at last the name of my "friend" who tried to convince the readers of the Press that the erroneous doctrine of "once in grace always in grace" was sound theology! He and Bro. John King are one and the same theologian, and Bro. John says I "assailed" him. Now, I never meant to "assail" Bro. John. The article I wrote was not to him any more than for others who believe like he does. The reason I mentioned Bro. John's name was that in mentioning the name of Judas I thought of the sermon Bro. John preached at Piney Fork, in which he labored to prove that Judas was not a good man when he was called by Jesus to be one of the 12 disciples. I merely remarked that Bro. John would have to mark Judas again—and so he will! So I hope he will keep cool and loving. Bro. John is wrong in his theology. Some one—a "Co-laborer" from over about St. Louis—is howling for help. But I shall just turn him over to Bro. Smart, who is simply able to extricate him from his theological twists, and devote myself to Bro. John. Some of my best friends are among this class of believers and I am not against them, but their creed. I love them all. It is their theology that is wrong. If you get a person to believe there is no danger of fall-

The highest medical authority on foods,

Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D.—F.R.S. of London, gives the best reasons for eating more

Quaker Oats

In an article published in the Youth's Companion of September 23rd, 1909, Dr. Browne, the great medical authority on foods, says, about brain and muscle building—

"There is one kind of food that seems to me of marked value as a food to the brain and to the whole body throughout childhood and adolescence (youth), and that is oatmeal.

"Oats are the most nutritious of all the cereals, being richer in fats, organic phosphorus and lecithins."

He says oatmeal is gaining ground with the well-to-do of Great Britain. He speaks of it as the mainstay of the Scottish laborer's diet and says it produces a big-boned, well-developed, mentally energetic race.

His experiments prove that good oatmeal such as Quaker Oats not only furnishes the best food for the human being, but eating it strengthens and enlarges the thyroid gland—this gland is intimately connected with the nourishing processes of the body.

In conclusion he says—"It seems probable therefore that the bulk and brawniness of the Northerners (meaning the Scotch) has been in some measure due to the stimulation of the thyroid gland by oatmeal porridge in childhood."

The Scotch eat Quaker Oats because it is the best of all oat-meals.

ing or losing his salvation he will not watch for the breakers, and this is the cause of so many back-sliding or falling from grace. Gal. 5: 14.

Now you remember that the first man and woman that God created were created holy and they by transgression fell. Just like Judas did and Solomon, David, Sampson, Saul and Peter. Everything we get in the way of salvation is on conditions. If we keep it is upon the condition that we are faithful. This, I think, is sound theology. But a man can put a wrong interpretation on the Word of God and prove anything he may want to prove. But the Bible is not a one-sided book. God and man must work together if man is saved. "Can the blind lead the blind? Shall they not fall in the ditch together?" Luke 6: 39 Matt. 15: 14.

Now, Bro. John, I think I have as much right to tell the truth through the paper as you have to preach such doctrine as you and others do from the pulpit. You ought, Bro. Johnny, to have put the word truth instead of the word strife. When you preachers stop preaching this erroneous doctrine I will stop correcting you. The truth, or a belief of it, is what saves people. "Thy word is truth."

Bro. John wants to know where where the Bible leaves Solomon. 1. Kings 11: 43. But read verse 40: "Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam," Malice aforethought. Not a very christian-like frame of mind to be left in!

The Scripture you refer to, Bro. John, is all right. But you leave man's part out altogether, which makes man a mere machine, or tool. Can't you see this, Bro. Johnny? You may be like some other people, pack your sins on Jesus. The devil didn't do that!

My, my! You say you C. P.'s are weighed and found wanting. Suppose you die with short weight. We are talking about salvation now. "Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall." 1 Cor. 10: 12.

Bro. John, you all run for proof and comfort to Rom. 8: 35-39. There are two points you all overlook. The first is in the 36th verse. "We are killed are killed all day long." That means dead to sin. The point is in the 39th verse: "Nor heights nor depths nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." Now, Bro. John, he never said that this love was in us, but in Christ Jesus our Lord. But his love does not save us unless we meet the conditions—continued faith and obedience. If it did all men would be saved, and that is Universalism. The Scriptures you refer to, Bro. John, are all right, but only those who meet the requirements can take shelter under them. We ought not to presume on God's love or mercies. According to one's faith so shall it be; for instance, he said, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is staid on Thee." "For ye are dead and your life is hid with Christ in God." Col. 3: 3. Ps. 121. 2 Tim. 2: 19. This man is one who has quit sin, or the sin business. John 3: 15 is all right to this class of people. John 5: 24. I do not see how he could be anything else than a new man: "Therefore if any man be in Christ he is a new creature." 2 Cor. 5: 17. So it was a new heart the Lord gave to Saul. Bro. John says my statement puts Judas in heaven. No, sir, Bro. John. Jesus said he should have a throne, or sit on one, but that did not put him in heaven any more than when God said to Jonah, "Go and say to Ninivah, 'In forty days shall Ninivah be overthrown,' and he did it not." Jonah 3: 4-10. Don't you see how these things can be? You refer to John 6: 64. Jesus was not speaking to the twelve disciples. Read verse 67 and you will see. That was decision day. Peter asked the question, "To whom shall we go?" and in the 70th verse Jesus answered, "Have I not chosen you twelve and one of you IS a devil?" Not WAS a devil. Judas was secretary and treasurer of the twelve disciples, but he was like all other men who love money more than they do God. Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. Acts 1: 25. Pray tell me, Bro. John, how can a man fall from a place he never was! How could Judas be a devil, Bro. John, six days before Satan entered into him? How can the devil, my dear Bro. Johnny, enter into a man when he was never out of him?!

The trouble with you fellows is in your creed. You try to bend and twist the Bible to make it harmonize with your creed. You can't do it without making nonsense of the Word of God. When I spoke of a good religion I called attention to what Jesus told his disciples to be and do. Read Matt. 10: 5-16 and you will see I am right.

I think Bro. John gets overbalanced on the home stretch, judging from the way he winds up on Judas and Bro. Hill. Now, all the disciples became indignant when the woman poured out the box of ointment on Jesus' head, but it seemed to hurt Judas worse, as he had charge of the money and the love of it was growing on him. Here is where Judas began to backslide, and at the supper table when the sop was given to him the devil entered into him, and then Jesus said, "What thou doest do quickly." Bro. John does not seem to know how a man can get away from God. Every man is tempered when he is drawn away of his own lust and enticed; then just when it hath come upon him, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death." Jas. 1: 14. "For if after they have escaped the pollution of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and are overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning; for it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness than after they have known it to turn from the holy commandments." 2 Pet. 2: 20-22. "Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away." John 15: 2. "I know thy works that thou art neither cold nor hot. I would thou wert cold or hot, so then because thou art lukewarm and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth." Rev. 3: 15, 16. This is not the only saying that we read of. The whale got so sick of Jonah that he flung him up. "Know ye not that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are, whether of sin unto death or obedience unto righteousness?" Rom. 6: 16. "Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee because thou hast left thy first love. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen and repent and do the first works, or else I will come to thee quickly and will remove thy candlestick out of its place, except thou repent." Rev. 2: 4-5. W. J. Hill.
