

JOHN P. BARRETT, Proprietor. WALLACE GRUELLE, Editor.

HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7, 1875.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Wednesday, March 31. The Comanches at Reno have in their possession a young American woman subjected to the most heinous outrages...

Thursday, April 1. Col. D. A. Butterfield, in a personal difficulty with one of his employees, was struck on the head with a stick and killed at Hot Springs, Ark., Saturday night.

Friday, April 2. The yellow fever has again made its appearance, and is rapidly spreading at Key West, Florida.

Saturday, April 3. A gentleman in Amherst county, Va., stealing rails from the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad...

Sunday, April 4. A special dispatch from Muncie, Ind., to the Cincinnati Gazette says that Axel Harrison, a farmer residing four miles west of that place...

Monday, April 5. A young lady living in Campbell county, Va., some six miles from Lynchburg, whose name is withheld at present...

Tuesday, April 6. A negro constable, shot and killed another negro who refused to be arrested last week six miles from Hempstead, Texas.

Wednesday, April 7. A young lady named Anna Grimes was killed at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening from being thrown from a carriage at the corner of Erie and Superior streets.

Thursday, April 8. A young girl named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Friday, April 9. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Saturday, April 10. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Sunday, April 11. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

family of six children, and some of those who have been famished equally...

Thursday, April 1. Col. D. A. Butterfield, in a personal difficulty with one of his employees, was struck on the head with a stick and killed at Hot Springs, Ark., Saturday night.

Friday, April 2. The yellow fever has again made its appearance, and is rapidly spreading at Key West, Florida.

Saturday, April 3. A gentleman in Amherst county, Va., stealing rails from the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad...

Sunday, April 4. A special dispatch from Muncie, Ind., to the Cincinnati Gazette says that Axel Harrison, a farmer residing four miles west of that place...

Monday, April 5. A young lady living in Campbell county, Va., some six miles from Lynchburg, whose name is withheld at present...

Tuesday, April 6. A negro constable, shot and killed another negro who refused to be arrested last week six miles from Hempstead, Texas.

Wednesday, April 7. A young lady named Anna Grimes was killed at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening from being thrown from a carriage at the corner of Erie and Superior streets.

Thursday, April 8. A young girl named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Friday, April 9. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Saturday, April 10. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Sunday, April 11. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

pieces for each member of the family. The robbery was completed by the guard told not to stir from the house in three hours, upon peril of his life...

Thursday, April 1. Col. D. A. Butterfield, in a personal difficulty with one of his employees, was struck on the head with a stick and killed at Hot Springs, Ark., Saturday night.

Friday, April 2. The yellow fever has again made its appearance, and is rapidly spreading at Key West, Florida.

Saturday, April 3. A gentleman in Amherst county, Va., stealing rails from the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad...

Sunday, April 4. A special dispatch from Muncie, Ind., to the Cincinnati Gazette says that Axel Harrison, a farmer residing four miles west of that place...

Monday, April 5. A young lady living in Campbell county, Va., some six miles from Lynchburg, whose name is withheld at present...

Tuesday, April 6. A negro constable, shot and killed another negro who refused to be arrested last week six miles from Hempstead, Texas.

Wednesday, April 7. A young lady named Anna Grimes was killed at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening from being thrown from a carriage at the corner of Erie and Superior streets.

Thursday, April 8. A young girl named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Friday, April 9. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Saturday, April 10. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Sunday, April 11. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Moore, L. Ripley and Augustus Newcomb, of Macon, Ga., were arrested on Friday evening of last week on a warrant issued by Judge Hill, charging them with sending and accepting a challenge to fight a duel.

Monday, April 5. Andreas Egner, and Geo. Rufer, who were convicted of the murder of Herman Schilling, at Cincinnati, on the 7th of November last, were sentenced to be hanged Tuesday, July 13 next.

Tuesday, April 6. A negro constable, shot and killed another negro who refused to be arrested last week six miles from Hempstead, Texas.

Wednesday, April 7. A young lady named Anna Grimes was killed at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening from being thrown from a carriage at the corner of Erie and Superior streets.

Thursday, April 8. A young girl named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Friday, April 9. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Saturday, April 10. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Sunday, April 11. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Monday, April 12. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

amount of another $1,000, making in all about $5,000. Some time last August lightning struck a green hickory on Wm. Harrison's farm near Thompson's Station, Tenn., and the tree has been burning constantly ever since it took fire at the top, and not more than half the tree has burned yet.

Monday, April 5. Andreas Egner, and Geo. Rufer, who were convicted of the murder of Herman Schilling, at Cincinnati, on the 7th of November last, were sentenced to be hanged Tuesday, July 13 next.

Tuesday, April 6. A negro constable, shot and killed another negro who refused to be arrested last week six miles from Hempstead, Texas.

Wednesday, April 7. A young lady named Anna Grimes was killed at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening from being thrown from a carriage at the corner of Erie and Superior streets.

Thursday, April 8. A young girl named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Friday, April 9. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Saturday, April 10. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Sunday, April 11. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Monday, April 12. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

10 years of age, the son of Mr. Henderson Parks, living in Coloway county, was playing in the yard, he stepped on the boards covering a cistern and fell through. Although the water in it was but two feet deep, and he had been in it but a few moments, he was dead when found.

Friday, April 2. The yellow fever has again made its appearance, and is rapidly spreading at Key West, Florida.

Saturday, April 3. A gentleman in Amherst county, Va., stealing rails from the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad...

Sunday, April 4. A special dispatch from Muncie, Ind., to the Cincinnati Gazette says that Axel Harrison, a farmer residing four miles west of that place...

Monday, April 5. A young lady living in Campbell county, Va., some six miles from Lynchburg, whose name is withheld at present...

Tuesday, April 6. A negro constable, shot and killed another negro who refused to be arrested last week six miles from Hempstead, Texas.

Wednesday, April 7. A young lady named Anna Grimes was killed at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening from being thrown from a carriage at the corner of Erie and Superior streets.

Thursday, April 8. A young girl named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Friday, April 9. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Saturday, April 10. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Sunday, April 11. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

We have no words to waste on the action of the convention Monday. That it was a slim gathering the vote will show. The masses did not take interest enough in it to attend.

Monday, April 5. Andreas Egner, and Geo. Rufer, who were convicted of the murder of Herman Schilling, at Cincinnati, on the 7th of November last, were sentenced to be hanged Tuesday, July 13 next.

Tuesday, April 6. A negro constable, shot and killed another negro who refused to be arrested last week six miles from Hempstead, Texas.

Wednesday, April 7. A young lady named Anna Grimes was killed at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening from being thrown from a carriage at the corner of Erie and Superior streets.

Thursday, April 8. A young girl named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Friday, April 9. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Saturday, April 10. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Sunday, April 11. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Monday, April 12. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

THE wife is the key of the house. A modest woman should often neither see nor hear. Women and winds wreck men's wisest efforts.

Monday, April 5. Andreas Egner, and Geo. Rufer, who were convicted of the murder of Herman Schilling, at Cincinnati, on the 7th of November last, were sentenced to be hanged Tuesday, July 13 next.

Tuesday, April 6. A negro constable, shot and killed another negro who refused to be arrested last week six miles from Hempstead, Texas.

Wednesday, April 7. A young lady named Anna Grimes was killed at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening from being thrown from a carriage at the corner of Erie and Superior streets.

Thursday, April 8. A young girl named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Friday, April 9. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Saturday, April 10. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Sunday, April 11. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.

Monday, April 12. A young man named Josephine Mason, was found at Entwah, Ala., with her throat cut, and dabbled in gore, yet in her senses.