WOODMAN'S DAY

TO BE A MEMORABLE EVENT OF THE STATE FAIR.

TOMORROW IS THE DAY

Several Thousand Members of the Order to Participate in Celebration Nov. 10. J. Cullen Root, Father of Woodcraft, Will Arrive Today.

Tomorrow, Monday, is Woodman's Day. From every section of the State there will come hundreds of members of this fraternity. The States of Mississippi, Texas and Arkansas will be represented. It is estimated there will be from five to six thousand members in attendance at the State Fair.

The committees in charge of this event have completed every detail of the programme. The committee consists of L. P. Butler, district manager, chairman; Joe D. Fields, T. R. Jones, Charles Stoer, J. F. Welch, J. W. Cronk, Max Goslin, T. M. Tucker, J. B. Hebert, W. M. McDohald, M. A. Kear, M. G. Leopard, O. M. Posey, J. L. Clarkson, W. C. Hanna, Joe Artele, A. F. Stevens, Joe Mustachio and Andrew Stewart.

In attendance at this gathering will be Sovereign Commander J. Cullen Root, father of Woodcraft, and Geo. F. Wooley, manager of the organization department, both from Omaha, Neb., who will arrive today at noon over the K. C. S., and who will be welcomed by a special committee. Sovereign P. B. Showalter, Head Consul, will reach Shreveport at 12 o'clock tonight. Sovereign H. F. Simrell, State organizer for Mississippi and Alabama, will arrive today over the V. S. & P. railway.

The exercises as programmed will be as follows:

9:30 a.m.—Parade will start from intersection of Texas and Sprague streets (head of Texas).

11:30 a.m.—Programme at Coliseum. The welcoming of Sovereign Commander J. Cullen Root by Hon. Lieutenant Governor T. C. Barret, in behalf of the State, City, Fair Association and Woodmen of Louisiana.

Address by Sovereign Commander J. Cullen Root, father of Woodcraft. Address by Head Consul D. B. Showalter of Alexandria.

Adjourn for dinner. Special—At 1:45 p.m. all Woodmen will assemble in front of Coliseum to allow photograph of the bunch to be taken.

2:00 p.m.—Reconvene at Coliseum in secret session.

2:30 p.m.—Introduction of class of about 900.

3:00 p.m.—Conferring of protection degree by the W. A. Frazer degree team of Farmerville, Texas, the champion degree team of the United States.

4:30 p.m.—Adjourn to take in the Fair.

8:00 p.m.—Reconvene at City Hall for initiation by Texarkana, Marshall, Natchitoches and Shreveport degree teams.

Police Jurors Indicted.

Leesville Leader Nov. 6: The grand jury now in session in this city returned bills of indictment against E. E. Lanehan on a charge of offering a bribe, and Police Juror J. H. Turner of Ward One, J. M. Marcus and T. J. Addison of Ward Two, J. A. Wilson of Ward Four and G. R. Carver of Ward six. The bills were returned yesterday.

The indictments grew out of the persistent effort on the part of certain members of the Police Jury to pass a resolution letting a contract to estimate the timber lands of Vernon Parish in order, as the matter was put to sound more feasible to the public ear, to reclassify the land.

The contract for this work was let some months ago at 3c per acre, a figure that would have cost the parish something like $30,000, had not such pressure been brought to bear upon the jury that the contract was rescinded at the same meeting at which it was let. At this time there was a strong suspicion of the existence of graft; in fact the jury was warned by District Attorney Lyles that they must keep within the bounds of the law.

District Courts.

The District Court, judges T. F. Bell and John R. Land, will hold a brief session Monday to hear motions. The court has suspended all regular business until next Thursday morning owing to the progress of the Fair.

THE STATE FAIR

Four Days of Success—The Weather Splendid and All That Could Have Been Desired—Indications Favor Four More Days of Fair Weather. Great Gathering of the People.

The fourth day of the State Fair is another record of success. The weather yesterday was ideal. The Caucasian forecasted five fair days for the Fair, but it will revise its reckoning by adding three additional days to the five, which will give eight days of splendid weather for the Fair. This is an unprecedented record, which is being appreciated by the Fair Association as well as the visitors.

The Fair in its entirety has exceeded every conservative anticipation and is a marvel to the visitors. Especially pleasing is the exposition to the officials of the State and to the gentlemen, visitors from other States who have come to see and to be informed practically with what Louisiana offers to intended investors and to homeseekers from the North and West.

The attendance at the opening day was good. The second day better, indeed splendid.

The third was a record breaker.

The fourth was equally as good, and the fifth, today, promises to be unprecedented.

Tomorrow is Woodman's Day and will draw thousands of Woodmen with their families and their friends to the Fair.

In every department of the Fair the exhibits are creditable. There is something new to be seen everywhere. In the main building some of the exhibits are gorgeous. In this building Shreveport is well represented, namely:

- Henry Enders Furniture Company.
- Hutchinson Brothers, jewelry.
- Schwartz Optical Company.
- Hearne Dry Goods Company.
- Bauman-George Piano Company.
- Trichel Drug Company.
- Peyton Drug Company.
- Ideal Laundry Company.
- Johnson Furniture Company.
- Hart & Kaufman Co.
- Elliott Electric Company.
- Shreveport Saddlery Company.
- Carter-Allen Jewelry Company.
- Doyle's Millinery Company.
- Draughon's Business College.
- Louisiana Cotton Oil Company.
- Shreveport Fertilizer Company.
- Louisiana State Life Insurance Company.
- Prohibition League Booth.
- Christian Science Booth.
- Scientific Temperance booth.
- The Shreveport Times.
- Baird Dry Goods Company.
- Excelsior Laundry.
- Other exhibits are: Imperial Self-heating Flat Iron Company.
- National Cash Register Company.
- Ewing Incorporated Photographers.
- Karo Syrup Company.
- Grand Union Booth illustrating work for children.
- Duntley Primitive Sweeper.
- Whitney Shoe Company of New Orleans.
- G. H. Schoelekoff Saddlery Company of Dallas, Texas.
- Meridian Fertilizer Company.
- Spirella Corsets Company.
- Cotterangus Cutlery Company of Little Valley, N. Y.
- The Louisiana University.
- Louisiana Experiment Station.

Besides scores of displays of merit. Every foot of available space was filled with exhibits.

The Poultry Department.

In the poultry department there are birds of every size, kind and pedigree. The poultry exhibits, in which are ducks and geese and pigeons, is splendid in its every feature. It is worth while to give this exhibit close attention. It is there that the fanciers of poultry congregate in large numbers.

In the Coliseum.

In the Coliseum are exhibits of the things good to eat. In this department is served coffee and cake hot from the pan. All these are specimens which are recommended for the home use of the visitors.

Educational Department.

In the Educational Department is exhibited products of the schools, the beautiful in art, the useful in home-making and flowers and evergreens of many varieties.

Mechanical Department.

The Mechanical Department is filled with all kinds of farm machinery, the implements needed on the farms and in the various occupations. It is in every respect creditable.

Swine, Cattle and Horses.

In the swine, cattle and horse departments are splendid specimens of

Blankets and Comforts

The east showing, we earnestly believe, anticipates every possible want in these lines. Not only did we look to price, but quality and new features entered strongly into their selection. If it is a cotton blanket want, it is here. If wool, it is also here, and all at prices which will astound you for reasonableness.

A Blanket specially to be recommended is our WOOL MIXED BLANKET, extra large size, white with pink or blue striped borders, silk bound edges; special at $3.00

NEW COMFORTS, at prices to suit the most thrifty buyers. silk, silkolene and satine covered; cotton, eiderdown and wool filled. Maish Comforts, light weight and warm, at prices from $3.50 to $5.50

Hearne's

Where Quality Reigns Supreme

pedigree records. The swine are fat and sleek, so are the cattle and the horses. In these departments is the evidence visible of the possibilities of Louisiana. In the Boys Pig Club collection there are 125 hogs representing several parishes.

The Agricultural Department.

In the Agricultural Department is the one great feature of the Fair. In this building are the exhibits of the parishes of Bossier, Claiborne, Richland, Ouachita, Webster, Morehouse, Sabine, Terrebonne, Livingston, Lincoln, besides individual exhibits.

Caddo has an exhibit but is not competitive. The Boys Corn Clubs have a splendid show of their products.

In this department the agricultural products are from seventeen agricultural schools. The Corn Clubs are from twenty-four parishes. The United States co-operative demonstration displays are from twenty-six parishes. In this building is displayed the products of the girls' canning from nine parishes, together with their exhibits in domestic science from various sections.

The State Conservation Commission has a uniform exhibit of varied attractions.

In this department are the exhibits of the State Board of Health, the State University and of the Insane Asylum. It would seem incredible that the bereft in mind may be employed to useful purposes.

In this building is in evidence the display by the negroes of Caddo Parish. This exhibit was suggested with the view of encouraging the colored people in useful and honorable progression. It is the first attempt at an exhibit by a few. The agricultural products embrace all the things that can be raised from the soil. In this exhibit is the handiwork of women and girls, the effort directed at domestic science.

The Fair up to date has proven a success. It has inspired an enthusiasm that is promising of the greatest progressive development.

Violated the Milk Ordinance.

For having violated the milk ordinance Joe Laggier, Ashby Long, S. Bates and Theo Nongues were each fined $100.

It's easier to train your boy to do right before he knows anything about doing wrong, than it is to restrain him from doing wrong when he has no desire to do right.

Constitutional Convention.

The delegates to the Constitutional Convention, limited to seventy-nine, will meet in Baton Rouge tomorrow, Monday, Nov. 10. The convention is to provide the ways and the means for refunding the State debt aggregating $11,000,000. No other measure will receive attention or consideration at this convention besides the State indebtedness; the session therefore should be brief. Gov. N. C. Blanchard is the representative from Caddo Parish.

A Lighting Plant for New Orleans.

Commissioner Lafaye has announced that he has been authorized by the City Council of New Orleans to inquire into the cost of a municipal lighting plant which is designed to supersede the plant furnishing light to the city by contract. Commissioner Lafaye is confident the plant will be in operation before the city's contract with the light company is at an end in 1915. So much for progress.

Drummers Day.

In Drummers Day and Shreveport Day there was a combination that assured one of the Fair's greatest day of success. The attendance approximated 30,000 people.
