The Freedmen's Bureau,

IMPORTANT ORDER BY THE PRESIDENT

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, Washington, June 17, 1865.

General Order No. 64.

The following order of the President of the United States in relation to transfer of abandoned lands, funds and property set apart for the use of Freedmen, to the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, is published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, D. C., June 12, 1865.

Whereas, By an act of Congress, approved March 3, 1865, there was established in the War Department a Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, and to which, in accordance with the said act of Congress, is committed the supervision and management of all abandoned lands, and the control of all subjects relating to refugees; and freedmen from rebel States, or from any district of country within the territory embraced in the operations of the army, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the head of the bureau and approved by the President; and whereas, it appears that the management of abandoned lands, and subjects relating to refugees and freedmen, as aforesaid, have been, and still are, by orders based on military exigencies, or legislation based on previous statutes, partly in the hands of military officers disconnected with said bureau, and partly in charge of officers of the Treasury Department; it is therefore Ordered, That all officers of the Treasury Department, all military officers, and all others in the service of the United States, turn over to the authorized officers of said bureau all abandoned lands and property contemplated in said act of Congress, approved March 3, 1865, establishing the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, that may now be under or within their control. They will also turn over to such offices all funds collected by tax or otherwise for the benefit of refugees or freedmen, or accruing from abandoned lands or property set apart for their use, and will transfer to them all official records connected with the administration of affairs which pertain to said bureau.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
By Order of the Secretary of War.
R. D. TOWNSEND, Asst. Adj. Gen.

Redemption of Mutilated Bank Notes.

The following important circular has been issued by the Treasury Department:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Office of the Comptroller of Currency,
Washington, D. C.

The following suggestions are offered relative to the redemption of mutilated circulating notes of national banks, and their return to this office:

First—The notes are to be redeemed by the banks by which they are respectively issued, and should not be returned to this office in sums less than five hundred dollars, or in even multiples of that amount.

Second—Mutilated notes which have been torn or defaced will be received, when presented by the bank that issued them, provided all the fragments are returned and the engraving or signatures are not so far obliterated that it cannot be determined by what bank the notes were issued.

Third—Fragments should be redeemed by banks in full when accompanied by an affidavit stating the case and number of mutilation, and that the missing part of the note is totally destroyed. The good character of the affiant should also be fully vouched for by the officer before whom the affidavit is taken.

These affidavits must be forwarded to this office, with the fragments to which they relate, in order that the banks presenting such parts of notes may obtain credit for the same.

Exceptional cases may occur in which no affidavit can be obtained, and where no reasonable doubts can exist in regard to the entire destruction or irreparable damage to missing portions of notes—as by fire, acids, etc.—where evidence of identity is ample by the signature of one or both officers, or title or locality of the bank, and the denomination of the note—where the integrity of the bill-holder is unquestionable, and where no question could arise in regard to a fraudulent or improper use of missing parts; in such instances judicious discrimination must necessarily be exercised by the officers of the banks.

It is, however, advised that such notes be received at their full face value, a perfect note given therefore, a record being preserved of the fact, to be sent to this office with the mutilated note when returned for redemption by the bank, in which case full credit will be allowed in this department.

Fourth—When no satisfaction can be obtained in regard to the missing parts, and a possibility exists that any improper use can be made of the same, it is recommended that a proportionate value only be allowed, estimating this by comparison of the proportion returned to the missing parts. A record should be kept of the amount allowed in all such instances, and a voucher of the same rendered to this office, when the mutilated note or notes shall be returned for redemption.

F. CLARKE,
Comptroller of the Currency.

CLOSING UP BUSINESS.—In accordance with the recent orders of Secretary McCulloch, Hon. B. F. Flanders, Supervising Special Agent of the Treasury Department, and O. N. Cutler, United States Purchasing Agent, are engaged making preparations to close up business, and at once make their final reports to Washington. Mr. Flanders, we learn, has turned over all the government plantations, confiscated houses, etc., to Mr. Conway, Superintendent of Refugees Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, and the remainder of his business will be transferred to Collector Kellogg. Abolishing Mr. Flander's office will throw out of position a great number of "Local Special Agents," and other officials.

Headquarters District of Baton Rouge, Baton Rouge, La., April 14, 1865.

General Order No. 25.

A tax of one thousand dollars per month will be assessed on the real and personal property of the citizens of Baton Rouge, for the purpose of paying the City Company for lighting the city, repairing and improving the streets.

All public buildings, churches and charitable institutions, unimproved real estate and all property used by the United States Government, on which no rent is paid, will be exempt from the tax.

William Markham, W. D. Phillips and S. M. Hart, are appointed Assessors and will proceed immediately to make the assessment.

Geo. A. Pike is appointed Collector, and all taxpayers, on being notified by him of the amount apportioned to them, will make immediate payment for the present month, and on the first of each succeeding month pay the same to him. Persons not complying within three days of the time specified, will be charged double.

The money collected will be paid out on the order of the Provost Marshal, approved by the District Comptroller.

By order of Major Gen. N. E. LAWLER,
ROBERT DES ANGES,
Major and Asst. Adj. General.

Proclamation by the Governor.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
New Orleans, June 10, 1865.

To the People of the Parish of St. Tammany, Washington, St. Helena, Livingston, West Baton Rouge, Pointe Coupee, St. Martin, Concordia, Madison, Carroll, Franklin, St. Mary, East Feliciana, West Feliciana, Iberville, St. Landry, St. Landry, East Feliciana, Calcasieu, Avoyelles, Natchitoches, Sabine, Cadeo, Ouachita, DeSoto, Rapides, Union, Jackson, Caldwell, Catahoula, Claiborne, Bossier, Bienville and Winnetka, extended to you, my heartfelt congratulations on your being restored to the protection of the flag of our country, the symbol of law, order and freedom, and which now waves in majestic power over an undivided nation. Our once wealthy and fertile State, now bankrupt and desolate from the ravages of intestine war resumes her natural relations; within her borders are temporarily dispersed, within the glorious Union of the States, united by the bonds of universal freedom and ties that can never be severed. It is not my purpose to rake up the ashes of the past, by inquiring who has erred and who has not erred in the fearful struggle the nation has just passed through. Whatever may have been the causes of the outbreak, and however bitter may have been the feelings engendered in the bosom of some, it is better that all such matters be buried out of sight forever. It is not the past, but the present and future we have to deal with. Great and responsible duties rest upon every citizen at this crisis, to manfully go to work and assist in the re-establishment of civil government. In that connection it is a most cheering sign to see the spirit of submission to the laws, and willingness to acquiesce in the result, manifested by those so recently engaged in hostility to the Government. Even the soldiers return to their homes wiser and better men, frankly owning to the failure of their experiment, and all expressing a desire to atone for the errors of the past by cheerful obedience to the Government, and glad again to enjoy its benighted rule. You, my friends and fellow-citizens, for I esteem it a privilege to call you so, must follow in the footsteps of so good an example. You must go to work to organize civil government in your respective Parishes. Sheriffs, Recorders, Clerks of Courts and Police Juries will have to be appointed provisionally, until elections can be held to fill these offices, as provided by law. You must confer among yourselves, and select men of integrity and capacity to fill these positions. I will act on your recommendations by appointing the persons named by you, if they are men of proper character and have taken the oath prescribed in the Executive's Proclamation of the 5th of December, 1864, or that of the 20th of May, 1864.

This will be pre-requisite in all cases, the original or certified copy of which oath must be transmitted, with the application for appointment. It is also my intention to organize the judiciary throughout the State by appointing provisionally Judges of the District Courts and District Attorneys as soon as practicable. The former class of officers are made appointive by the Executive, under the new constitution, for a term of six years, and I invite recommendations from you as to who shall fill these offices, as also District Attorneys.

I cannot urge upon you too strongly the importance of your seeing promptly and with unanimity in the matters herein brought to your notice. If you neglect to avail yourselves of the opportunity offered you I shall be compelled to make appointments to office for your section, from the best information in my possession, and you cannot blame me if they are not acceptable to you. Important elections will be held this fall. Members of Congress and a Legislature will have to be selected, and it is my duty to provide that proper officers to open the polls, an election of Governor and other State officers, according to the new constitution, will take place at the same time.

While the population of that portion of the State which has been so fortunate as to enjoy the protection of the strong arm of the General Government, sooner than other sections, (and for which they are not entitled to any merit of their own) is endeavoring to hasten the restoration of civil government in the State, have adopted a new constitution and elected a Legislature which has passed laws, yet I feel authorized to say that it was with no intention of forestalling or denying your rights to participate in the making of the fundamental, as well as all other laws.

In conclusion, I assure you that no one is more anxious to have the whole State represented in all general elections, and particularly for the office of Governor, than myself.

J. MADISON WELLS,
Governor of Louisiana.

Important Order by Gen. Herron.

Freedmen Ordered to Remain with Their Former Masters.

MAJOR GENERAL HERRON'S DEPARTMENT OF LOUISIANA, Shreveport, La., June 11th, 1865.

General Order No. 24.

Great and sudden changes in the condition of affairs have taken place in the State, and the transition of the blacks from a state of slavery to freedom can not fall as easy temporary suffering to all classes. Already this is being manifested by the negroes leaving their homes and setting out en masse, for the military posts, and with no definite purpose, except to leave the scene of their former bondage.

The result of this state of things, if allowed, would be—

1st. The loss of the crops and the entire ruin of the agricultural interests in this part of the State.

2d. Utterly suffering, starvation and misery among the blacks themselves.

Without attempting, therefore, to regulate all the various interests arising out of this question, and which pertain properly to the Freedmen Bureau, the Major General commanding deems it his duty to make such rules as in his opinion will best prevent suffering and restore quiet at the present time. It is therefore ordered that all persons heretofore held as slaves, for the military labor secure the crops of the present season. The only place where they can obtain a living for themselves and their families is in the field, where they have been accustomed to work. If found wandering about the country, or gathering at military posts, they will be arrested and punished, and all transients and private steamboats running on the river are prohibited from carrying this class of people except upon a written pass, which will be given only in exceptional cases. If necessary for them to leave home or visit any of the military posts, they will be furnished with a pass by their employer to prevent their arrest as vagrants. But while it is found necessary during the present unsettled state of the country to make these orders relative to the blacks, the planters are reminded that the matter depends largely on them, and that only by fair treatment of the blacks can they hope to mature and harvest their crops and carry on their plantations.

Definite contracts must be made with the negroes, which will be binding for the balance of the present season.

Planters who endeavor to do this in good faith will be assisted in all proper ways, and it will do much towards restoring quiet and confidence.

By Command of Major General HERRON:
W. H. CLARK,
Capt. and Asst. Adj. General.

THE IRVING HOUSE.

THIS OLD, WELL KNOWN AND POPULAR establishment, west of the Market, is now supplied with the very best of WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS.

All the attaches of the establishment are scientific compounders of EMERALDS and COCKTAILS; interested in maintaining the reputation of the house. There is a fine BILLIARD TABLE in the front room and a CLUB ROOM up stairs, free to all gentlemen visiting the house.

WILLIAM ROLLO,
Proprietor.
