HOME ENTERPRISE!

Young America Steam Flour
AND CORN MILL,
BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA.

HAVING RECENTLY EXTENDED MY MILLing interest by the addition of one of E. & J. Clark's Celebrated Patent Flouring Mills, Belting Machinery &c., and having fully tested its capacity to do first class work, I am now fully prepared to give my friends and those of home enterprise generally satisfactory evidence, that they now need not go beyond Baton Rouge in order to secure to themselves flour that will compare favorably to any produced in the country, no matter by how extensive a complicated machinery.

As the object will be to produce flour of the best character and standing I trust to meet with that liberality of patronage as will sustain the undertaking. Families or others ordering flour from me may rest assured my best endeavors shall be given to please them; orders should be sent to the store of the undersigned. For the accommodation of families, flour can be obtained when not wanted by the barrel, in bags of 12, 16, 25 or 50 pounds each, or in such other quantities as they may wish.
