Mutual Insurance

THE only Mutual Insurance Company in the city doing FIRE, MARINE AND RIVER INSURANCE upon the MUTUAL PRINCIPLE.

The Crescent Mutual Insurance Company o New Orleans

With a subscribed and the local Capital of 200,000 Dollars.

Is now ready to receive applications, and write in advance at their office, on the north west corner of Camp and Gravier street, on

FIRE, MARINE AND RIVER RISKS,

Their company established upon the Mutual Principle of Insurance, and is emphatically a Home Institution. Its earnings are to be invested and employed here, and under the immediate control of the Trustees, and not sent to other cities for investment.

Every person insuring with the Company interested in its success—and the PROFITS, instead of being divided among a few stock holders, belong to those who insure with the Company. The Company, as one of the conditions of its charter, is required and pledged FUND, reliable in cases of loss, and ample under all ordinary calamity, saves the public that they have now a guard of subject to all the contingencies of CAPITAL, and liable for the losses of the Company.

The Trustees believe that subscription offers full security to the assured, and that this Company presents unusual guarantees for prompt and liberal settlements in cases of loss, as the funds of the Institution are required to be invested, and its home is a Southern and Domestic Institution, its acts are not controlled by foreign directors, and it will conform to Southern habits in its mode of business.

The Portfolio of the Company is at all times open for the inspection of parties wishing to make insurance with it.

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF LOUISIANA.

Business of the Company confined to Life Insurance Only.

Office, No. 38 Camp street.

Between Gravier and Common sts.

The permanent fund is to be invested as per charter for the benefit of the policy holders, in bonds and mortgages on unincumbered real estate valued at double the amount loaned thereon, and in stocks of the State, and of the United States Government.

The Company being organized, not for the benefit of stockholders and capitalists, but solely for the protection of the policy holders and their families against want and poverty, is in its operations a great National benevolent institution, conducted upon the most secure and solid principles, and affording for a small annual sum, paid during life, a large and handsome legacy to widows and children after death.

All policy holders, whether for life or shorter terms, who continue the insurance till death, participate in the whole of the profits of the company, without any reservation.

Creditors can insure the lives of debtors, thus securing a prompt settlement in case of death. A married woman can effect insurance on the life of her husband, for the sole benefit and use of herself and children, free from the claims of creditors.
