Rejection of S. J. Peters by the Senate. We learn from a telegraphic dispatch, which will be found in another column, that our fellow-citizen, Samuel J. Peters, Esq., who was nominated by the Legislature to the office of Collector of this Port, has been rejected by the U. S. Senate.

Another Deceleration in Cotton. The steaming Niagara, which sailed from Liverpool on the 18th, has arrived.

An Unfounded Charge Refuted. We do not conceive that it is any departure from our independent position to defend a person friend unjustly charged, and to urge his claims to the support of the people.

The Congressional. The bill making appropriations for light houses, and great harbors, has passed the Senate.

Presidential Nominations. It is respectfully announced that Messrs Maxwell, Collector of New York, and Kane, of Baltimore, have been confirmed, and Mr. Polk, of New Orleans, rejected by the Senate.

Jenny Lind in Boston. CHARLESTON, S.W. 20th Sept. Jenny Lind, the Swedish Girl, left for New York on the 18th inst.

Denmark and the Duchies. A vessel from Copenhagen, which returned from the Danish Islands, arrived at New Orleans on the 18th inst.

Steamboat Explosion - Fourteen Persons Killed and Scalded. The St. Louis Republican, of the 23d inst, publishes the following particulars of the explosion of the steamer Kate Kearney, attended, as usual, with fatal consequences.

The Congressional. The bill making appropriations for light houses, and great harbors, has passed the Senate.

Telegraphed to the Crescent. By the steamer Niagara. The arrival of the Niagara seven days later from Europe.

Another Deceleration in Cotton. The steaming Niagara, which sailed from Liverpool on the 18th, has arrived.
