REGAN ANNOUNCES FOR THE COUNCIL

J. R. Regan, a well known citizen, announces this week that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination as a member of the Commission Council. Mr. Regan while engaged in farming resides in the city limits and has always taken an active part in politics. He was born in Marion county Mississippi, where he spent most of his life, coming to Bogalusa about four years ago. He is a good mixer and his friends have urged him to make the race.

"My only motive in seeking the office is to render service to the peopl," he said "and if elected I promise to discharge my duties fairly and impartially."

The date of the city primary has not been announced, but it is expected to be about the same time as the senatorial primary, which has been fixed as September 10.

GENERAL OFFICES OF N. O. G. N. TO HATTIESBURG

R. K. Smith Succeeds Farris As General Manager of Road

The unification of three southern railways under one general management, by federal authority, to be operated as part of the government system, became effective July 1, it from W. E. Ferris stated—was learned from W. E. Farris, until that date vice president and general manager of the New Orleans Great Northern railroad.

The three railways which have been amalgamated are the New Orleans Great Northern, the Gulf and Ship Island and the Mississippi Central.

The general office of the New Orleans Great Northern will be moved from New Orleans to Hattiesburg, as will the general offices of the Gulf and Ship Island, now located at Gulfport.

The move is made, it is understood, in line with Director-General McAdoo's announced policy unifying railways in the interests of economy and efficiency.

The first intimation Mr. Farris received of the change was a telegram at 9 a. m. July 1 from C. M. Kittle, formerly vice president of the Illinois Central and recently appointed federal manager of that railroad. Mr. Kittle's wire said R. K. Smith, formerly vice president and general manager of the Mississippi Central, had been appointed general manager of all three railways and that the offices were to be concentrated at Hattiesburg.

This relieves Mr. Farris of his duties here in connection with the New Orleans Great Northern and also relieves W. S. Stewart, until July 1 vice president and general manager of the Gulf and Ship Island.

Mr. Farris declined to make any statement further than the facts above outlined, except to say that the move was probably in consonance with Mr. McAdoo's policy of centralization, which would probably effect economies which Mr. McAdoo was more familiar with than those whose activities were confined to one line.—N. O. Item.

WE TAKE NO PRISONERS

(As told by an officer of a Canadian regiment in France.)

We never take a prisoner
When we strike the German line,
And no soldier of our regiment
Is alive beyond the Rhine.
Now, why is this, you ask me,
Why no mercy show to foes?
Well, return and take this message,
To our "Lady of the Snows."

Backward, backward we had swept them,
Spite of gas and shell and flame,
Coward? No, they were not cowards,
Fierce as fiends they came and came,
Rolling, rolling, like the ocean,
Wave on dave in mighty mass,
But our line held firm and stopped them,
For we said "You shall not pass."

Riddled roof and blazing rafter,
Ruined church and ragged street,
Looted home and girdled fruit trees,
Marked the sullen Huns' retreat;
All of this we saw and looked for,
We believe it had to be.
But one sight we saw which made us
Question why we lived to see.

God in heaven, how can I speak it?
I must whisper, "bend more near,
This is what we saw, now wonder
That the bayonet thrust is dear,
Sweet and dear to each one of us
As we strike the dastard Hun,
Saying as we drive the thrust home,
"That is for the little one."

Naked she hung there, ten years old,
In front of butcher's stall,
The meathook pierced her tiny hand,
Two bayonet wounds—that's all
Had torn her tender breasts to show
The Hun had passed her way;
We took her down, few words were said
And no man smiled that day.

That's why we take no prisoners
When we strike the German line,
And that is why not one "of ours"
Is held beyond the Rhine.

Bruce A. Campbell to Head Nat'l. B. P. O. E.

Bruce A. Campbell, of East St. Louis, will be the next grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent Order of Elks, as the result of pre-convention sessions of the administration here Sunday. He will have no opposition.

Retiring Grand Exalted Ruler Rred Harper, Lynchburg, Va., has started a movement for another million dollar war relief fund, supplementing a similar appropriation made at the reunion in Boston last year. Mr. Harper will also advocate membership certificates for men who answered the call to the colors while awaiting initiation into the order.

Reports will show that the Elks in the United States bought $3,000,000 of liberty bonds from subordinate lodge funds; donated $300,000 to the Red Cross war fund, $100,000 to the Y. M. C. A. war fund and $1,000,000 to other war funds. Three hundred Elks club houses have been turned over for the use of the Red Cross and other patriotic agencies and 30,000 members are wearing Uncle Sam's uniforms on land and sea.

Why Take Calomel?

Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup will do all that calomel will do and without the "after effects."

Years ago, when people were bilious, when the liver got lazy and failed to do its work or the stomach was out of condition, calomel was the standard. By and by the use of calomel formed the "after effects" of taking the drug were as bad and more often worse than the ailment for which it was taken.

Dr. Thacher, in seeking a medicine to take the place of calomel—one that would do all the good that calomel would do, and yet leave none of its evil effects perfected Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup. This was in 1832, and each year since has added to the confidence of those who have used it.

Miss Susie Brewer, of Chattanooga, Tenn., tried calomel. She was suffering with a very serious cold and grippe and had no appetite whatever. After the calomel failed she tried Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup. She felt better after taking three doses and soon got entirely well. "I think Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is a wonderful medicine," she said, "and I am very thankful I tried it."

For nearly three quarters of a century this sterling preparation has been an "old stand-by" in thousands of homes in treating rheumatism, dyspepsia, indigestion and other stomach and liver complaints. It is a powerful tonic and blood purifier and can be used with the utmost confidence.

Write Thacher Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn. for a copy of "Thacher's Family Doctor," a book giving causes, symptoms and treatment of 47 common diseases.

Speed—Speed—Speed!

Uncle Sam pushed the clock ahead one hour to give more light. Take advantage of it. You owe it to yourself and your country to make every minute count. Use your car—passenger or commercial—to the limit. Samuel P. Colt, president of the United States Rubber Company, helped awaken the country to the economic value of the automobile last fall. He said— "Everything on wheels must be used and mobilized. "The automobile is second to the railroads as an adjunct and supplementary to them in collecting and distributing merchandise. "Owners should use their cars, both passenger and commercial, more and more." Make the most of your car by using the tires that will extend its usefulness to the utmost. Use good tires—United States Tires. They last longest and carry you farthest at least cost. There is a United States Tire for every car or truck—to guarantee uninterrupted service and greatest economy. Our nearest Sales and Service Dealer will tell you which ones will serve you best.
