

"Thunder Afloat," at Maryland Last 3 Days Next Week

"THEY SHALL HAVE MUSIC"

Jascha Heifetz, the world's greatest violinist, makes his film bow in Samuel Goldwyn's "They Shall Have Music," which starts a three-day run at the Maryland Theatre on Monday and brings to the screen for the first time his immortal musical genius. Also starred in the film are Joel McCrea, Andra Leads and Walter Brennan.

HISTORICAL SHORT

Another of the Warner Bros., historical shorts on America entitled "Sons of Liberty," will be shown at the Maryland Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, together with "Thunder Afloat", with Wallace Beery. This short boasts an all-star cast, headed by Claude Rains.

Dr. J. H. Nilson, health officer of Mankato, Minn., at a recent meeting of the city council protested that his salary was too high and volunteered to accept a reduction.

A bandit who stopped Burt Morris on a street in Clarksville, Tenn., robbed him of $8 and a set of false teeth he had in his pocket.

"Thunder Afloat", With Wallace Beery, Here On Thursday

Epical story of courage at sea adding a seldom-told chapter to the history of the United States Naval Reserve. "Thunder Afloat" brings Wallace Beery to the screen of the Maryland Theatre next Thursday, amid some of the most thrilling action ever filmed.

Teamed with Chester Morris, as his rival throughout the story, and with Virginia Grey, as his daughter, Beery appears as a tugboat captain who joins the navy after a U-boat has sunk his beloved craft. The action-packed sequences in which the principals participate include the raiding and sinking of the tug and its string of barges, the torpedoing of a light-ship, the disabling of a subchaser after Beery, in command, has attempted to sink the sub with depth bombs, the attempted ramming of the U-boat by a Gloucester schooner which is sunk by gunfire, and the final crippling of the undersea boat.

Scenes were shot at sea off the Atlantic Coast with the remnant of the subchaser fleet of World War days, and off the Coronado Islands on the West Coast, with the United States submarine Sturgeon.

HANGOVERS

(Continued from page one) of 2,000 members has been set for the Hagerstown Club, and, say the sweet things, fifty per cent of this total will have been enrolled before the curtain goes up on the next big show in '40.

The biggest political sucker is the guy who passes up the importance of these women's clubs. A thousand ballots, or even half that number, voted as a unit, would certainly be disastrous to any guy's ambitions!

When a clerk in an employment office in Atlantic asked to see an applicant's social security number he began pulling off his shirt explaining: "My social security number is tattooed on my back."
