Removal.
N. P. S. PRENTICE, Dentist, respectfully informs the inhabitants of Portland and its vicinity, that he has removed to Court Street, where he will attend to the various operations on the Teeth. Portland, June 19th, 1824.

To the Ladies.
M. S. HUBBS has just received a new assortment of Mrs. Cantelo's elegant and fashionable CORSETS and MINERVA BRACE, very cheap. Her shop is in Court, near Federal Street, where she executes the Habit & Dress making business, in a fashionable and faithful manner.

Testimonials in favor of the Brace and Corset might be exhibited from a great variety of sources—but the following, from one of the most eminent physicians in the United States, must satisfy the most incredulous.—
Portland, Sept. 11, 1824.

TO MRS. CANTELO.
New-York, Aug. 12, 1824.
I have entertained an opinion, that the several braces and corsets manufactured at your establishment were intended to give grace and beauty to the form of the wearer, without injury to health. That is my opinion still. It seems to me that they can be detrimental only by improper application, or abuse. This remark applies more especially to the Minerva brace, calculated to secure an erect attitude in a young female too prone to carry her head forward, and to break that vicious habit, without compressing the chest, or injuring any other part of the body.

"If an argument is to be delivered against the employment of an article, because it has been injudiciously applied, then the fashionable maintenance of it, ought to prescribe the wearing of shoes, and firm soles."

"But there is no need of carrying the reform to such an extreme. To grind up the loins, to carry a good head and to protect the feet, will be found useful as long as the figure of man continues as it is; and the great maxim to be observed, is to manage our aids, as not to correct their inf. without destroying their use."

SAMUEL L. MITCHELL.
