Mr Kennefick has been engaged for several weeks in such work, and has profiles nearly complete for 40 miles of ditch in this county. —Crosswell Democrat.

—Slice the cucumbers two hours before they are wanted and sprinkle the slices plentifully with salt. Set the dish in the refrigerator. Just before dinner drain away the salt liquor from the cucumbers and mix them with oil first, and then with vinegar and pepper. This salad is very grateful to the taste and does not distort the features of the victim as does the old style of cucumber salad. Death is almost painless, and the remains look about the same as they did in life.

—"It's a boy—worth a thousand dollars—have been wishing for a boy for eight years—believe I could jump over the moon"—or something to that effect said Columbus Phoenix as he laid down before us a handful of prime havanas Tuesday morning, and we readily divined the cause of his joy. Columbus Jr. made his debut Monday night, and weighs eight pounds. Being his "daddy's only sonny" and having two sisters to pet him, it will be a wonder if he is not spoiled in his bringing up.—Fort Gratiot Sun.

—We have had a series of corn growing days during the past week to the gratification of all who had corn to grow.

—The weather has been somewhat dry for the spring crop and pasture, but we were greatly blessed Monday night with a good rain which was very much needed.

—The Farmers have been very busy in their haying and harvesting for the past week and have got along splendidly but the rain put them all back more or less.

—Fall wheat that is not rusted is going to turn out better than it has for years past, your correspondent saw a field of 14 acres that was threshed last Saturday which turned out little over 500 bushels which is about 30 bushels to the acre.
