—Some one whispered in our ears Wednesday morning that the night previous was All Hallow eve. A person would think that some small cyclone or tornado had visited this place by the way things had changed positions during the night. Well, it only comes once a year, so say the boys.

—Last Saturday night about eleven o'clock two women were seen to walk up to the windows of Al Sisco's sample rooms and with clubs, smash the panes of glass in the same. It seems their husbands had been drinking some that day and they took this means to stop them from drinking any more. We think that other means better than these might have been taken.

The Good Templars Entertainment.

The free entertainment given under the auspices of the Good Templars lodge of this place in Duffie's hall Tuesday evening was very largely attended there being in the neighborhood of 300 present. It was a very interesting affair and crowned with the completest success in every particular. The proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. C. B. Clark followed by a few remarks from the chairman, W. C. T. C. Cooper. Next came a chorus by the choir and then Sis Lottie Utley gave a recitation entitled "The Run Seller," which she did in a very efficient manner. The chorus entitled "Drink, Drink" was well rendered by the choir. The Essay by Bro J. S. Duffie enclosed abundant thought on the subject of "Prohibit the traffic and save the Drunkard." The quartette produced by Bro Cooper, Wells and Mitchell and Sis Holden seemed to please the audience very much. Sis A. G. Brown gave a reading which was listened to with interest by all. Sis Ella Fraser sang a solo, entitled "Where is my boy to-night," assisted in the chorus by Bro Cooper and Mitchell and Sis Holden. Sis Fraser's talent for singing is already known so we need not make any further comments. Bro Bettis made a very enthusiastic speech on the evils of intemperance declaring he would not vote for a man if he be a supporter of the liquor traffic. Sis Hattie Holden rendered a solo which was well received by all. Bro C. B. Clark spoke ten minutes on Temperance and the work that should be done by the temperance folks. Applause after applause came from the audience which showed the sentiment of those present on the points brought forward by Bro Clark, who we must say proves himself a very able and efficient temperance orator. The dialogue entitled "The Bridal Wine Cup" was produced by Bros J. S. Duffie, J. McArthur, Jas Cooper, W. Wells, Sis Creighton, Ella Fraser, Malora Grandy. Sis Creighton took the part of bride and recited well her part. Bro C. Cooper again took the floor and expressed himself in regard to temperance after which the entertainment was closed by the choir singing "Sparkling little fountain." We are confident if the lodge make up their minds to have another entertainment some time this winter and charge for admission, that the hall will be packed full. This society are doing good work and we would rejoice to see the whole community join hands and push this noble cause, then we would have a peaceful town and the citizens would be benefited by it. There are now 75 members to this lodge and steadily increasing in number.

—Mrs and Miss Ferguson, of Battle Run, Mich. were visiting at H. B. Gough's last week.

—Mrs G. H. Mustard left this morning for Pt Huron where she will visit for a short time with her husband.

—Hickey Bros have received a new lot of the Wilson sewing machines which they will sell as cheap as any good machine can be sold. Notice their ad in another column in this issue.

—A. R. Fraser has lately purchased his brother's share in the machine business. He has secured the services of another man and will place him on the road. Alex is working up a good trade in the machine business.

—George, the good natured clerk of the Rapley House, met with quite a serious accident by the upsetting of the bus on the road to the station. His arm was broke and he received other injuries but is now getting along nicely under the care of Dr Mitchell.

—H. Turner and brother have taken down the petition between their store and the one lately occupied by Mrs VanWagner and are making other improvements. Their increasing business is the reason of this change and will afford them more room for a much larger stock which they intend purchasing.

—Suits, of the Port Gratiot Sun, was married a few days ago and one of the wedding presents was a cow. He went out the next morning and hanging the pail on her horns began working her tail up and down, a pump handle, and was surprised to learn that no milk was pumped. He is a good editor but not posted on dairy work. —News.
