THE CITY.

Cheboygan county fair next week. Farmers turn out and bring with you something to exhibit.

Remember the supper to be given by the ladies of St. Mary's church, at the Town Hall next Tuesday evening.

The high winds lately have played Cain with political banners, on house tops and poles throughout the town.

The City of Mackinaw last Thursday brought up a large new safe from the Detroit Safe Co., for A. L. Fexer the jeweler.

Over $9,000,000 has been paid out by the A. O. U. W. order since it was founded in aid of the widows and orphans of members.

Rev. Mr. Rutter, of Mancelona, preached at the Congregational church last Sunday, morning and evening. He will preach again next Sabbath.

Last Sunday Joseph Pellenze caught a large sucker with his hands in the slip between McArthur's dock and the railroad dock. The fish would weigh four or five pounds.

At the meeting of the Blaine and Logan club last Thursday night the executive committee were instructed to make arrangements for a public meeting in the near future.

G. P. Langdon and C. J. Hunt last Friday visited Long lake on a fishing expedition. They caught thirteen nice black bass, the largest one weighing six pounds and one ounce.

The masons are getting along nicely with the walls of St. Mary's school building. Should the weather continue favorable this week will see the walls of the first story about completed.

The shipping in transit through the straits will find Cheboygan harbor from now until the close of navigation, very acceptable. Several crafts have found refuge here from heavy westerly winds this week.

George Bunker opened school in the school house at the Tallman settlement last Tuesday. Mr. Bunker was one of the graduates at the last term of the Cheboygan graded school and is well qualified for a teacher.

The assembly of Knights of Labor meet in their Hall, Kessler block, every Monday night. The membership is growing rapidly. Starting out, a few weeks since, with 40 charter members, the membership has been nearly doubled.

The tool house on W. & A. McArthur's lumber pier was broken into sometime between Saturday night and Monday morning and four suits of oil cloth clothes stolen. Suspicion rested upon some of the crews of vessels in port, but a thorough search failed to materialize the missing goods.

The Parana made a remarkably quick run from Chicago on her last trip down. She left there Saturday evening and arrived at Duncan City Monday afternoon. Under the command of Captain Pollock she has always made excellent time and Mr. Smith has been more than satisfied with her sailing qualities. This is largely owing to the good qualities of the skipper, no doubt.

K. O. Penny went to Detroit last [Sunday] night to purchase new dry goods.

We are indebted to Auditor General Stevens for a copy of his annual report for the fiscal year ended September 30, 1884.

E. P. Vanderwater, operator at the station, has been jerking lightning at a lively rate this week, sending word to his friends about the arrival of that boy.

O. M. Clement requests us to announce a thrilling story from his pen in our next issue. In the mean time if you want anything in the shoe line he can supply you.

In the contest for the nomination as a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket in the First, Detroit, district, James Caplin withdrew, giving Col. John Atkinson a walk away, he being nominated by a rising vote.

A Mother Hubbard party will be given at the skating rink next Monday evening. Good music will be in attendance and a pleasant time may be expected. A prize will be given to the lady appearing in the most complete Mother Hubbard.

There will be a meeting at the council room Tuesday evening next for the purpose of organizing a Cook-eyed Son of Destiny club. It is desired that there will be a full turn out of all favoring Benj. F. Butler's election as President. See notice elsewhere.

The Wizard Oil Concert company has been the great attraction in Cheboygan this week. They have demonstrated that Cheboygan can furnish a fine audience for a free concert, especially when the music is as good as furnished by the Wizard Oil Company.

Invitations have been sent to the State Fish Commissioners of Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota and Wisconsin to meet at Milwaukee Oct. 17 and 18 and confer with prominent fishermen concerning the best methods of protecting the lake fisheries and increasing the supply.

A description of the man found drowned last Sunday was telegraphed Capt. Gibson at Buffalo, and he confirmed the belief that the body was that of John Templeton, who jumped overboard from the propeller Buffalo. Capt. Gibson telegraphed to have the remains buried here, at as little expense as possible.

Mollie Harris and Wm. J. Watts S. Humphrey's horses, did not trot at Chicago. Arrangements were made for a race Thursday, but the managers of the fair postponed it until Saturday, and as the horses were entered for the races at Kansas City this week they had to leave Chicago last week in order to be on hand on time.

A body of a man floated in near Packards mill last Sunday. An inquest was held and a verdict of drowning given. There was nothing on the man by which he could be identified, but it is generally supposed the body was that of the look-out on the propeller Buffalo, John Templeton, who committed suicide by jumping overboard in the straits.

Dr. J. B. Patterson, of Rogers City arrived up on the Atlantic Tuesday morning to attend the Senatorial convention as a delegate from Presque Isle county. He reports a disastrous fire at Roger City Saturday night the International hotel burning down, entailing a loss of $4,500. By some it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary but the general impression seems to be that it was caused by carelessly throwing down a lighted cigar stub.

Last week St. James' Episcopal church received a bell present from Mr. Coyle, of Cleveland, step father of our fellow townsman Chas. E. Mould. Mr. Mould paid the freight, S. S. Eddy provided the rope and Messrs Quay & Sea hung the bell, all free gratis, so that our good friends of St. James have their bell in position in the bellfry without costing them a cent. It is needless to say they all appreciate the thoughtfulness and liberality of all concerned.

Mrs. A. R. Thayer received a telegram Sunday announcing the death of her mother Mrs. Allen, of Lansing. It was only a few days previous that the deceased had bid good bye to her daughter whom she had been visiting for several days, and took her departure for home and the sad news was wholly unexpected. Mrs. Allen during her visits to Cheboygan has made many acquaintances in Cheboygan, all of whom will regret her demise. Mr. and Mrs. Thayer have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

The harbor presented a lively appearance this week from the large number of crafts inside loading.

W. W. Strohn purchased two magnificent teams of horses from the Cheboygan Lumber company and shipped them on the Messenger Tuesday, to take them to his farm near Oconomowoc.

We are indebted to Capt. Chas. E. Kirtland for a sample of a new brand of nails, manufactured by the branch of the North Chicago rolling mill company at Bay view, near Milwaukee. It is a nail that will do to hang your hopes upon. It is a Blaine and Logan nail the names of the Republican candidates being plainly stamped on each side.

We acknowledge the receipt of the wedding card of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stimpson, Jr. The better half was Mrs. Emma E. Howard. The marriage took place Tuesday, September 9th. The card also states that Mr. and Mrs. Stimpson will be at home, No. 602 Broadway, Quincy, Ills., after October 1st. Mr. Stimpson is no stranger in these parts, and has numerous friends in northern Michigan who will join the TRIBUNE in wishing for the new firm the best that life affords.

Otis T. Benton, of Cleveland Ohio, made application to the council for permission to lay gas mains in the streets and alleys of the village in behalf of a gas company he represents. The company ask for no bonus, no exclusive right, nor do they ask that the village commit itself in anyway except to give the right to put down the mains. The council voted to grant the petition. Whether or not the company will proceed depends upon the success they meet in getting like privileges in neighboring towns.

Rev. Willis G. Clark, pastor of the Baptist church, following the scriptural admonition that it was not good for man to be alone, on Thursday Sept. 11th, 1884, at White Lake, Oakland county, was married to Miss Alice Chandler, Rev. L. Chandler tying the knot. Mrs. Clark will not only be warmly welcomed to her new home by the people of the Baptist church, but will find many warm friends in every denomination to welcome her to a home in our midst, and who will join the TRIBUNE in wishing the happy couple peace, prosperity and happiness and a long life of usefulness.

A representative of the TRIBUNE recently made the rounds with Dr. Rexford on his visits to his equine patients. At the water mill stables a horse was examined that the doctor had removed a large tumor from two days previous; the incision was healing rapidly and the horse was doing finely. Several other horses in the same stable were being treated for different causes and the employees pronounced them all progressing rapidly toward recovery under the doctor's treatment. At the Duncan City mill stables the doctor has several patients and all appeared to be improving. Owners of horses in this locality should consult Dr. Rexford whenever their horses are ailing instead of attempting to treat them themselves, as he has fully demonstrated his competency since locating here.

August 4th our cotemporary published an article headed "A Mystery." The substance being that the mother of John Shehan, who was drowned while employed on Laughley McCulloch's drive, had written to Dr. Beach that her son had returned home the day before she received his letter notifying her of his death by drowning. We have seen a letter written by William Shehan, a brother of the drowned, at Park Corners, Canada, in which he states that his mother nor no one else ever wrote Dr. Beach any such letter. William writes: "I got a letter from the man that George was working with saying that George was found and buried. I was very glad to hear that he was found." So the mystery vanisheth when the truth comes out. From the letter it would appear that the man's name was George instead of John.
