After all the work of raising funds for a 4th of July celebration at Yale the matter has been dropped and our citizens will celebrate in their own quiet way.

Wool is coming to market quite freely and the price is holding firm at 20 and 21 cents per pound for unwashed. Wharton & Fletcher have purchased close to 28,000 pounds this season.

Isaac Menerey's house one-half mile west of Yale was struck by lightning during the electrical storm last Friday. Considerable damage was done, and although the family was in the house at the time no one was injured.

Bert Desmond, well known in Yale, filed a cross bill for a divorce from his wife, Althea Desmond. He charges that she has run him in debt, does not take care of her children, has been guilty of extreme cruelty, etc. Mrs. Desmond will be remembered as Althea Gark.

E. P. Fead, cashier of the First National Bank, has been a very sick man the past week and his friends were alarmed at his condition for a time. The trouble was a stoppage of the bowels. He is still confined to the house but we are pleased to announce that the doctors believe the danger is over.

This week we publish the annual financial statement of school district No. 1, Brockway township. All interested should read it carefully and become posted as to what has been done with the school taxes collected. The annual school meeting will be held in the high room on Monday evening, July 8th.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a supper on the church lawn, weather permitting, if not, in the dining room next Tuesday night, July 2. The public cordially invited. Thos. Wharton raised a fine large barn on his farm near Melvin Tuesday of this week. About 100 men took part in the work and the frame was placed in position without an accident. The barn is 66x44 feet with two thresh floors and stands on an eight foot stone foundation. The ladies furnished a hearty meal in the evening and all enjoyed the feast.

A novel baseball game is slated for Tuesday of next week to come off at Riverside Park. The farmers near by here have challenged the business men of Yale to play a friendly game for nine little pigs and three barrels of sugar. You may look for an interesting time as the lineup is composed of cracker-jack players and we expect the score to be 3 and 2 in favor of Yale.

On Wednesday morning Prof. F. W. Wheaton and family took their departure for their new field of labor at Rochester, Mich., where Mr. Wheaton has secured the superintendency of the public schools at a fine salary. While Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton have only been here a little over a year, yet they have made a number of warm friends who will regret to lose them from our midst. We wish Mr. Wheaton much success in his new position.

The Port Huron Herald has the following to say about Ernie Baxter who is working in W. A. Williams' store in that place: "And while we're passing down the list we must not forget Baxter, who plays shortstop for the Chronicles. Baxter is one of those country youths and nearly everyone who comes from the country is a good ball player because they haven't much else to do there. Baxter is one of the best ground scoopers in the business and is really a credit to the City League."

A meeting of the Business Men's Association of Yale was held Monday evening to consider the advisability of our city uniting with the business men of Mayville, Marlette and Brown City in an excursion on the 31st of July to some point on St. Clair river or to Detroit. A committee consisting of Chas. H. Palmer, J. L. Rosenthal and J. C. Holden was appointed to canvass the city and report how the citizens felt in regard to the matter. We believe that every person who possibly can should join in this outing and give their hearty co-operation.

The L.B.S. of the P. S. Presbyterian church had a social afternoon in the church on Wednesday and got up a picnic supper. This was in honor of Mrs. A. K. Park who with her family, left on Thursday for their new home in Detroit. The affair was to have been held in the grove, but the cool, threatening weather prevented. However a good time was had in the church parlor by about 40 members and guests. The ladies are all sorry to lose Mrs. Park who has been an efficient and thorough worker in the church. A silver meat fork was presented her by the society.

A farewell party was tendered Miss Lucy Utley at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Cole Tuesday evening.
