DECLARES COUNT STOLE WIFE'S LOVE

Moritz Shapiro Sues for $50,000
 Damages—Love, War, Cossacks,
 Turks, Heroism, Elopement,
 Some Elements.

NEW YORK, June 4.—You can hear the explosion of bombs, the clatter of dishes in a Grand-st. restaurant and the plaudits of the people in the Third-st. temple of vaudeville all through the story of a love that began in far off Bukharest and was shattered eight years later in Forsyth-st.

And the golden undertone is the merry chink of the $50,000 that Moritz Shapiro, an actor, of No. 116 East One Hundred and Eighth-st., hopes to get from Heyman Klatzko, proprietor of the restaurant at No. 294 Grand-st. in a suit for the alienation of the affections of Lizzie Shapiro. Although called Klatzko in the legal papers served yesterday, the proprietor of that restaurant is, Shapiro believes, Count Michael Michaelovitch Barzinoff, colonel of the czar's guard of honor, commander of a thousand Cossack troopers at Tiflis and the head of the Russian secret agents in this country, and that the restaurant is only a blind. Lizzie says she has heard something of the sort and Klatzko admits that he is Count Barzinoff. He has medals and a diploma from the Louis and Clark exposition to prove it. But beyond that he serves no secrets with his meals.

In 1890 the count saved the life of the Grand Duke Sergius by cutting down a bomb thrower with his sabre. The bomb fell from the assassin's hands and killed two lesser noblemen, but the doom of Sergius was postponed.

Shapiro was a matinee idol in Bukharest. Lizzie was the daughter of a free lance of the Balkans, who spent so much time in leading his band against the Turks that he didn't realize how often his pretty daughter went to the theater. She fell in love with Moritz and he with her. They were married and fled to London, for the patriot father had intended that his daughter should become a spy and devote her life to the warfare against the Turks.

In England the bride went on the stage. Six years ago she came here to star in the theaters of the east side. Her blue eyes, golden hair and beautiful complexion would give her a place in the front row of any Broadway show girl group, but her English still limps too much for that. As it is she is a top liner for many a popular little play house that Broadway and its tribe never dreamed of. And she is the bright particular star in the after-the-show group at the Rector's of Grand-st. She is also the mother of a daughter, Rose, seven years old, for whom she keeps house at No. 107 Forsyth-st.

In his complaint Shapiro alleges that during his absence in Colorado for his health his wife went too often to the headquarters of the Russian and that the count, with flattery, jewels, rare woods and other costly gifts, won the affections of the actress. The count admits that he has often lent Mrs. Shapiro money and has given her trinkets in acknowledgment of the pleasure she has given him by her art, but nothing more.

The actress denies the charges but intimates that she loves her husband no more. To prove that her husband has not supported her all the time she has given the count to use in his defense postoffice receipts for money she sent him while he was sick in Colorado.

Both Barzinoff and Mrs. Shapiro say the actor tried to persuade her to join in a conspiracy to get money from the count and then return to Roumania.

FEUDIST STARTS OUT TO "SHOOT UP" JACKSON

Wholesale Battle is Threatened When 100 Revolvers are Drawn in Kentucky Town.

JACKSON, Ky., June 4.—More than 100 revolvers were drawn at one time on the streets here last night and a wholesale battle threatened as the result of A. S. Johnson, notorious feudist, starting out to shoot up the city. Johnson two years ago so terrorized the court where he was on trial that state troops were ordered out to protect the judge. Thursday losing another suit before Judge Adams, he later attempted a personal encounter with the judge, but was restrained. Angered at this, Johnson became intoxicated and after threatening to kill a prominent attorney if he carried out his intention to run for circuit judge, proceeded to shoot up the town. Together with Jake Noble, another well-known feudist, fully 100 shots had been fired before officers could overpower him. Johnson was allowed to be taken home by friends, but while the officers were escorting Noble to jail, members of the Deatch feud faction interfered and in a moment 400 or more revolvers were drawn and serious shooting threatened. Officers, however, succeeded in disarming the leaders and getting their man to jail without bloodshed.

BOY'S LEGS BROKEN.

Tot Terribly Injured by Wagon; Driver Hurries Away.

Solomon Tahman, the 4-year-old son of H. Tahman, of No. 127 Benton-st., was run over and terribly injured by a dirt wagon in front of his home, Thursday afternoon, and though an angry mob of neighbors chased the wagon for some distance, the driver whipped up his horses and escaped. Witnesses declare that the man was driving very recklessly when one of the horses knocked the little fellow down, and his body went under the wheels of the heavy wagon, which broke both of his legs. The excitement incident to caring for the boy allowed the driver to make his escape. Solomon was sent to the Children's Free hospital, where it is reported that he will recover.

Trouble Makers Ousted.

When a sufferer from Stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his Dyspepsia and Indigestion fly, but more—he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves, healthy vigor, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right.
