

MINES AND MINING STOCKS

MARKETS

Boston—The local market showed a considerably better time today although the volume of trading is not very heavy.

Boston—Today's market, with regard to fluctuations, did not mean any more than an evening up of accounts by people who did not wish to carry their commitments over the triple-bullay.

The local market was quite encouraging under the leadership of North Butte, barring any unforeseen mishap, next week's market ought to be better as fundamental conditions are still most excellent.

When a man assumes control of a bank account he is bound to get a great deal of good out of it apart from the money which he accumulates.

The experience he will get in the practice of self-denial, punctuality and stick-to-itiveness, is bound to prove of inestimable value to him.

He will very soon become familiar with the depositor's side of the banking business and this is worth a whole lot to anybody.

Taking it all in all the "Savings Bank Habit" is about the best habit any young fellow can form.

This bank is ready to encourage the habit and any who are interested are invited to call.

Big Buying Movement.

European consumers have misjudged their September copper requirements by a few million pounds and have as a result requested that some of their October deliveries and shipments be made in September.

A big buying movement has been in swing for a full week and sales of over 100,000,000 pounds will have been booked before its culmination.

On Wednesday there were indications of mere willingness to sell for November than heretofore evidenced and for that month several million pounds brought 17 3/4 cents.

SOMETHING WRONG

The City Boy—Yep, it's all right, but I do miss the "Keep Off the Grass" signs!

It is now possible to send wireless messages around the world. Dr. Arnold Loeland, of Paris, says sitting cross-legged is productive of appendicitis.
