

of the co-operative association is expected to exceed 200. The following clubs were represented at the organization meeting: Fidelis, Endymion, Y. W. H. A., Hatikvah, Harmony, Friendship, Sunshine, Herzl, Hedlite, F. C. B. and Coming Young Men of America.

HADASSAH ENTERTAINMENT AIDS MEDICAL UNIT

The Annual Passover entertainment of the St. Paul Chapter of Hadassah last Thursday evening at the Deutches Haus, was a splendid financial and social success, although the immense hall, which seats over 1,000 people, was only half filled. Those who could have occupied the vacant chairs missed a splendid evening's entertainment, as both of the sketches, "Farewell, America," and "The Dream Sprite's Fantasy," written and arranged by members of Hadassah, were very well presented. The Flonzdell sisters, who are becoming well known as the "Lullaby Quartet," also entertained the audience. Following the entertainment there was dancing. The proceeds are over $500, and will go to aid the Medical Unit in Palestine.

ALEPH BETH NOTES

Members and friends packed the dining room of the Aleph Beth Club last Friday noon when they were entertained and honored by the presence of Vera Gordon, the Star of the motion picture, "Humoresque." A talk on Jewish traditions was given by the guest.

A stag which equalled any heretofore given by the Club, attracted over 300 members last Monday evening, including a large delegation from the Gymal Doled Club of Minneapolis. A splendid program, including Bob Gehan and partners, Wessel and Malvarn, all of whom have performed on the Orpheum Circuit, Frank Busch, renowned story teller, who is playing at the Palace Theatre this week, several members of the Broadway Scandals, which recently played at the Metropolitan theatre, Harry Dayboch, the club's own, and Max Shallet and Zollie Dworsky of the Gymal Doled Club, who were called on informally. The special feature of the evening was a one act Farce comedy in Yiddish and English, which was splendidly arranged and directed by Ed. Helperin, chairman of the entertainment committee, and participated in by Bernard Sussel, William Johnson, Morris Zalk, H. Jacobson, Milton Rosen, Louis Melamed, Gus Axelrod and Melville Meyer. Smokes, sandwiches and drinks concluded the evening.

DR. PROSSER TO SPEAK AT ALEPH BETH

Under the auspices of the Intellectual Advancement Committee of the B'nai B'rith, the monthly open forum of the Lodge will be held Wednesday evening, May 3rd, at the Aleph Beth Club. The meeting is open to members of both the Aleph Beth Club and the B'nai B'rith, and their families. A splendid program has been arranged, headed by an address on "Intolerance," by Dr. M. C. Prosser, head of the Dunwoody Institute of Minneapolis. Dr. Prosser has attained a reputation as a forceful and entertaining talker. The meeting will start at 8:15 o'clock.

Club Meetings

A meeting of the Daughters of Zion was held Wednesday evening at the Talmud Torah. The members discussed ways whereby they could help the circulating library which the Sisterhood of the Hebrew Institute is starting for the children of the Talmud Torah Sunday and Hebrew Schools. An interesting program was presented.

The B. N. O. B. Club met Sunday, April 23, at the home of Marian Laskowitz. Various means for raising money for charity were discussed. After the meeting a lunch was served.

A new group of the Young Judea will be organized for girls of twelve to fifteen years of age. The organization meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at the Talmud Torah. All girls of that age are invited to join.

Talmud Torah Notes

The public examination for the children of the Talmud Torah Sunday school, on Sunday, April 23, was a great success. Prizes were awarded to children who distinguished themselves. The prizes were donated by three members of the board of trustees, Mr. A. Garon, Mrs. Fieldman, and Mr. F. Labovitz. After the examination, the children were shown Biblical slides accompanied by a lecture by Rabbi Lebendiger, explaining the pictures. Mrs. Ida Cook donated twenty-five pounds of nuts, which were served to the children after the examination. Mrs. Ida Cook and Mr. J. Polinsky, known as the "Mother" and "Father" of the Talmud Torah, were presented with gifts by the children of the Talmud Torah to show their appreciation for the interest taken in them.

The local committee for the Jewish Theological Seminary Campaign was recently appointed by Rabbi Lebendiger, a member of the national committee. The members are Mr. I. B. Aarons, chairman; Mr. H. Y. Josephs, Mr. Nathan Kris, Mr. F. Labovitz, Mr. B. Davidson and Mr. J. Polinsky. The campaign started this week and will continue until the Iron Range, the Superior and the Duluth quota is raised.

The Sisterhood of the Hebrew Institute is planning to give a big bazaar the latter part of May for the purpose of raising money for the Talmud Torah. Mrs. Lyle Oreck, chairman of the Social Committee, and her committee are very busy making novelties for the bazaar.

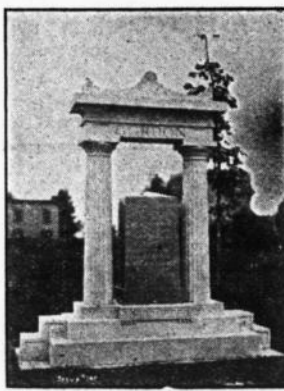

Personal Mention

Mr. Ephraim Gombert was a member of the Central high school debating team which met and bested St. Peter high school team, thus winning the State Championship on April 25.

HENRY DEVLIN FOR COUNCILMAN

Mr. Devlin was born in St. Paul and has spent his entire life here. He was the first Chief of the fire department under the present Commission Form Charter, and he served in this position for six years, during which time the department was reorganized to its present high standard; his record in this high office indicates what the voters may reasonably expect of him if he is elected a member of the City Council.

In his platform he pledges an honest administration, with the interests of the general public ever a paramount consideration.
