

nual White Elephant Sale of the Council of Jewish Women will have its opening. Members of the Council have been gathering their odds and ends for the past few weeks, and according to Mrs. Harry Pollak, president of the Council, have succeeded in finding many articles of value. The Council hopes to realize a large sum from this sale. The proceeds will, as usual, be devoted to the Summer Vacation Camp.

T. A. A. to Meet

There will be a meeting of the Temple Alumni Association in the vestry rooms of the Temple on Sunday, May 14th, at 3:00 o'clock. All members are urged to be present, as this is the last meeting of the season, and election of officers for the coming year will be held. A report of the recent entertainment will be given, and there will be an interesting program.

T. A. A. Revue Pleases Audience

A large audience filled the Church Club, Dale and Portland, on May 6th, when the T. A. A. gave their annual entertainment and dance. Mr. Harry Daybook was in charge of the Revue, and he succeeded in presenting a very interesting, clever performance. "There's one born every minute," a short one-act farce, was presented by Miss Irene Golling, Mr. Malvin Herz, and Mr. Shirley Binder. "The Bachelor's Dream," a dream fantasy, was presented by Miss Josephine Wolfe Mr. Philip Hirschman, Miss Violet Reisman, and the Misses Roslyn Jane Hirschman, Helen Hart, Felicia Druck, Julia Barr, Roslyn Goldberg, Marian Rice, Lillian Litman, Edith Klein, Laura Heilbron, Mildred Simon and Dorothy Hart. Miss Elsie Thompson sang her newest composition, "Why am I Always Alone?" Great success is assured this very clever and popular song. Miss Roslyn Goldberg delighted the audience with her "Frisco" dance, and proved once again that she is a finished dancer. The T. A. A. Minstrels, with Mr. Milton Hart as "Mistah Intalock-atah" and the Messrs. Milton Rosen and Clarence Levy as the end men was enjoyed by the whole audience. The other minstrels were Messrs. Shirley Binder, Walter Levy, Melville Meyer, Dick Burton, Alex Weil, Art Eisendrath, and Irving Ruben. After the performance, dancing was enjoyed by those who remained.

With the Travelers

Mrs. I. Soleski, together with Miss Glover and Miss Giblon, all of Hayward, Wis., spent the early part of the week in Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wetzler left Tuesday for Milwaukee to visit relatives.

Entertaining

The Y. W. H. A. will give a dance at the Odd Fellows' Hall, May 30th. A cabin party was given by the girls of the Unous Club at the Happy Weston Club cabin, Sunday, May 6th. Ten couples were present.

Sabbath Tea

The first of the Sabbath teas given at the home of Mrs. Harry Davis on the afternoon of April 29, proved very successful. The thirty women who were present enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. The program, consisting of piano solos by Miss Ruth Shenowsky, Jewish current events by Mrs. Pol'ons and the reading of "The Fat of the Land" by Mrs. Davis, was very entertaining and instructive. It is hoped more women will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending future Sabbath teas as no invitations are issued.

Temple Notes

A card party will be given by a group of women Tuesday afternoon, May 16th, at Covenant Hall for the benefit of the new Temple.

The regular monthly meeting of the Temple Aid Society was held Wednesday afternoon in the Temple Vestry Rooms. Miss Nell Ames Horr, a very talented reader of this city, read a one-act play.

Clubs

The ladies of the Y. W. H. A. held a sewing club meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Litman, Jr., Thursday, May 4. A collection for the war sufferers was taken up by which seven dollars was raised.

An important meeting of the Sisterhood of the Hebrew Institute was held Monday. Mrs. Lyle Oreck and Mrs. Kasmir were elected to have charge of the bazaar which will be given June 6, 7, 8. A committee was appointed to take charge of the library which the Sisterhood are organizing for the Talmud Torah consisting of Mrs. William Oxman, Mrs. J. Garon, Mrs. Goldish, Mrs. M. Silk, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Lebendiger.

Covenant Lodge Banquet

The naturalization banquet of the Covenant Lodge I. O. O. B. was held Tuesday evening at the Covenant Hall. The Americanization Committee of Duluth co-operated with the lodge in staging the dinner. H. G. Steel, secretary of the committee and Hugo Freimuth, chairman of the naturalization dinner committee, were in charge of arrangements. Judge Bert Fessler, chairman, Americanization Committee, presided. Rabbi Lebendiger gave the invocation. An Americanization program was given.

Talmud Torah Notes

A new group of the Young Judea was organized Sunday at the Talmud Torah for girls of the ages 13 to 15. They decided to call themselves the Hatikvoh Girls and elected the following officers: Irene Levine, president; Anita Averbook, vice president; Pauline Sclarow, secretary; Eva Sclarow, treasurer.

The students of the Hebrew and Sunday school of the Talmud Torah will hike to Lincoln Park at 8:45 a. m., accompanied by the Sunday school teachers and Rabbi Lebendiger. A Lag Bomar program will be presented at the park in the open. After their lunch, races and games will take place. Twenty prizes will be given. The prizes will be donated by the Sisterhood of the Talmud Torah and by Mrs. H. Segal and Mrs. F. Karon. The parents of the children are invited.

The Young Folks League will hold a very important meeting at the Talmud Torah Monday. All members are requested to be present.

Warsaw (J. T. A.)—Posters urging a boycott of Jews have been placarded by the Roswoj party in Prezmysl declaring, among other things, that the "Yiddish jabberers" should be made to go to Palestine.

PALESTINE IN THE AIR

New York (J. T. A.)—The Radio-telephone Broadcasting Station of the Westinghouse Electric Company of Newark invited Gershon Agronsky of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency to deliver a talk through the air over the radiophone on the subject of Palestine and the possibilities of its future. The half-hour talk, entitled "Palestine: Past, Present and Future," was given by Mr. Agronsky on Wednesday, May 10th, at 7:30 p. m.
