WILD WEST SHOW.

On the Fair Grounds beginning Sept. 1st. The Society have been fortunate in securing an attraction of this kind for their Fair. They require a 600 foot circle and have wild horses, Indian ponies, bronchos, wild steers and show the wild life of the Far West in handling the wild horses and cattle; also the cowboy and cowgirl in feats of shooting and throwing the "lariat." This show is direct from the Plains of Northwestern Nebraska.

THE RED BALL ROUTE.

Robert N. Carson of Iowa City organizer and promoter of the Red Ball Route, St. Paul to St. Louis was in Austin Saturday and Sunday accompanied by his wife. He was going over the route to see if it was properly marked. This is said to be the best marked highway in the country.

MACHINIST LOSES ARM.

Andrew Rockne, machinist for the Farmers Brick and Tile Company had his right arm so badly mangled Friday morning that it had to be amputated at the shoulder. He was taken to the city hospital and Drs. Rehm and Leck were in attendance. Mr. Rockne was oiling the big gears that connect the shaft of the clay granulator. The sleeve of his shirt caught in the gears drawing his arm into the steel teeth. The flesh and bone was crushed in terrible shape. No one was near and he freed himself and walked several rods to where there were a couple of workmen who gave him assistance.

TO THE CIRCUS.

Among the Austinites who attended Ringling Bros. Circus in Albert Lea Monday were, Clinton Smith, J. H. Mears, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Young, Mrs. Thos. Cudmore and children, Mrs. Geo. Uffwelling, Miss Frances Lewis and Miss Keith, also Paul Kieth of Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John Bieloh and family; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Murray.

LUTHERAN CONVENTION.

Twentieth Annual Session of Young People's League of the United Lutheran Church.
 The Twentieth Annual Convention of the Southern Minnesota and Northern Iowa Young People's League of the United Lutheran Church opened at Austin Tuesday evening August 18. There were over two hundred delegates and visitors from out of town and the church was crowded for even standing room at the opening session. Miss Hilda Thompson rendered an organ prelude and Rev. J. A. E. Naess of the local church gave the address of welcome. The President Ignatius Bjorlee responded and called on others. Mrs. Naess and Mrs. C. A. Hegge rendered a vocal duet, "Hark, Hark my Soul." An excellent address was given by Rev. Edward Nervig of Albert Lea. A reception was given in the church parlors by the young ladies of the church. Mrs. K. O. Wold had charge of decorations and the rooms were pretty with golden glow and vines. Frappe was served also ice cream and cake.
 At the sessions Wednesday the attendance reached over 400. The Northwood choir of thirty-five voices rendered some excellent music and the Emmons choir was present at the afternoon meeting. Prof. Fred P. Johnson, conductor of the Lutheran Choral club of Chicago and an exceptional player of the pipe organ delighted all present with some fine music. The addresses by the various speakers were all enjoyed and educational. Some of the very choicest speakers had been secured such as Rev. L. W. Boe, president of Waldorf College, Forest City; Dr. C. A. Melby, professor of history in St. Olaf College, Northfield, and Dr. Martin Hegland of Grand Forks. Rev. Naess is to be congratulated upon the success of this large meeting. Surely the young people were inspired with many new ideas along Christian and educational lines.
 A musical program Thursday evening closed the three days session.
 The Ladies Aid planned a delightful picnic supper in the park and the Austin Automobile club took all delegates for a ride about our beautiful city Wednesday after the afternoon session.
 The next meeting of this large convention will be held in Northwood, Ia.
 In appreciation of the services rendered the convention officers were all re-elected for the coming year and are as follows:
 President—Ignatius Bjorlee, Northwood, Iowa.
 Vice Pres.—Prof. O. Theo. Moen, Forest City, Iowa.
 Secretary—Miss Jennie Thorson, Forest City, Iowa.
 Treasurer—Carl N. Urdahl, Northwood, Iowa.
 Board of Directors—Rev. J. A. E. Naess, Austin, Minn.; Miss Amelia Ulland, Blooming Prairie, Minn.; Rev. Edward Nervig, Albert Lea, Minn.

DICATION OF PIPE ORGAN.

In Evangelical Lutheran Trinity Church, Waltham, Minn.
 As announced the dedication of the new pipe organ of this church took place last Sunday. The dedication service was by the morning, Rev. C. A. Affeldt, delivered an appropriate sermon on Ps. 150. He showed the origin of the use of musical instruments in divine services and the God-pleasing manner of using an organ in church.
 At 2:30 and 8:00 p. m. organ recitals were given by Prof. Frederick Reuter of New Ulm. Compositions of the worlds greatest composers were rendered with artistic skill, which could not unfold to its highest degree on account of the inadequate size of the organ.
 The organ is nevertheless large and powerful enough for the church which it is to serve. It has two manuals. The swell organ comprises three stops: Flute Harmonic, Salictonal and Stopped Deapason. The great organ has an equal number; Open Diapason, Melodia and Dulciana. The pedal organ contains 1 stop Bourdon. Six couplers. Swell to Pedal, Great to Pedal, Great to Great, Swell to Great 4 ft., Swell to Great 8 ft and Swell to Great 16 ft. afford the possibilities of many combinations and six positions operating on swell and great organ afford opportunity of shading the power of the tone.
 The action of the organ is tubular pneumatic throughout. The instrument was built by the Wicks Pipe Organ Co. of Highland, Ill. and erected by Wm. Staub a specialist of long and thorough experience in the art.

ter infant, Owatonna, Minn., and served until the close of the civil war. During the war he with a number of his comrades kept up a weekly prayer meeting. At the close of the war he returned home to Havana. In the year 1877 he moved with his family to Lansing, Minn., and located on a farm. In 1901 he moved to Lansing village where he lived until April this year moving from there to Owatonna, Minn. During his last sickness he ever felt the presence of God with him and shortly before his death said he was ready to go when God should call him. He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, his wife, seven children, twenty grand children, also one sister, Mrs. Frank Chambers, Sr., of Port Angeles, Washington. The funeral was in charge of Goodwin Post G. A. R. and conducted as he had requested by Rev. R. B. Rallo of Glenville, Minnesota. The body was laid to rest in Havana Cemetery. ***

MRS. DANIEL CASEY.

Mrs. Daniel Casey who had been seriously ill for the past four weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Albright two miles south of Austin died Tuesday evening August 18. She underwent an operation last December also in May but did not get relief. Catherine Cotter was born in Ireland, County of Cork, May 1, 1848. When a little girl about six years of age she came to America and lived in Manchester, N. H. From there she removed with her parents to Adams county, Wisconsin in the fall of 1862 she came to Oakland to reside which was her home for over fifty years. She was married February 19 in 1868 to Daniel Casey. He died last June, 1913 and since that time Mrs. Casey has lived with her daughter. There are three children living, Mrs. Fred Albright, Austin; James Casey, Oakland and Mrs. S. E. Dugan, Bismack, N. D. Two children died when they were young. Four brothers are also living, Ed Cotter of Oakland and William, Maurice and John of Austin. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 9:30 from St. Augustine's church.

GLADYS SWEEN.

Little Gladys Sween, 18 months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Sween of Grand Meadow died Sunday at St. Olaf's hospital. The child was badly burned three weeks ago when the plug came out of a washing machine and the scalding water went over her. She was brought here for treatment but the burns were deep and the little one was relieved of her suffering Sunday.

WM. COOK.

Wm. Cook, a former Mower County resident died at the Rochester hospital Saturday following an operation for appendicitis and gall stones. When his wife lived Mr. Cook farmed near Cedar City but he left Austin several years ago and has been in Washington four years and in Des Moines, N. Dak., for three years. He came here in June for treatment and had been at Rochester

NOTICE TO POULTRY EXHIBITORS.

As our County Fair will begin on Sept. 1st and hold four days, I wish to let all the poultry raisers in the County know that we have put in all new and up to date coops for all the fowls and they will be in the same kind of coops as we have at the State Fair. I expect to give all my time to the taking care of the poultry and will see to the selling of any birds that are offered for sale with no charge for same. I wish that every raiser of pure bred poultry would bring in their birds and make this division the biggest and best exhibit in the state.
 Please bear in mind that we will take good care of all the birds sent in for showing and also furnish all the feed free of charge. We also take all the birds that are to be returned to the train free of charge if the owners are not here they will be cared for. People who have pure bred poultry will find that this is the best advertisement they can get as many people come to the Fair every year to buy good birds. Let us all join together and make this the best exhibit in Southern Minnesota. You can depend on me to do the best I can for all who exhibit here.
 Yours respectfully,
 Geo. W. King, Supt. Poultry Dept.

Her Idea of Lawyers.

"I am not guilty. If I had been, I should have engaged a lawyer!" was the observation of a woman summoned before the Darlington (England) bench.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends in Austin and vicinity for kind acts and sympathy shown during our recent bereavement in the death of our brother, Wm. Cook. Also the I. O. O. F. for services at funeral and floral tribute sent by them the Eagles and friends.
 MARK COOK,
