STEWART AT ANADARKO.

FORMER JASPER MAN WHO IS MAKING MONEY.

Gets $70 a Month in Rents--Some Interesting Notes of the New Country by a Returned Pilgrim.

Ollie Roberts returned Tuesday night from a couple of weeks' pilgrimage through the newly opened Indian lands of Oklahoma. He visited Hobart, Anadarko and a number of the smaller towns which are just starting up. He stopped most of the time at Anadarko, where there are a number of Jasper people located. He reports A. Stewart making lots of money. He has five or six buildings which he rents out, bringing him altogether about $70 a month. Ollie says that hardly a day passes without Stewart making some kind of a trade—all the way from a wood pile to a house and lot.

Mr. Roberts bought a residence lot in that city merely as a speculation and has already had a chance to sell it for $50 more than what he paid, but he expects to make a hundred dollars on it. He says that Anadarko is a mighty lively place. No lot up for Sundays, and on moonlight nights the sound of the saw and hammer is heard all night long.

Among the other Jasperians Ollie ran across at Anadarko was Bob Chiklers. Bob was on the lookout for a good location for a small grocery store, but he soon found that that place was well supplied with every business under the sun, and left the city in disgust. Bob said that he was just about to go into business at a little town in the Indian Territory, but a woman got offended at a saloon and set fire to it and burned the town up.

Mr. Roberts also met Clyde Jeffers, a former Jasper boy. He reports him married and doing well.

Have Changed Locations.

Dr. George D. Andrews and two children came in last Sunday morning from Grandin and visited several days with relatives. They leave soon for Grandin, Colorado, where the doctor will take a position in the medical department of a coal and iron company. He was compelled to leave Grandin on account of the unhealthy climate. His oldest son came near dying about a year ago with malaria fever and is just recovering from another seizure of the same disease.

Miss Jessie Bruner went over to Golden City last Friday and began her duties in the schools of that place Monday morning. Her sister Ruth accompanied her and visited a few days.

AMONG THE APPLE MEN.

A NUMBER OF ORCHARDS SOLD IN THIS VICINITY.

Palmer Sells His Crop for $900 and Wm. St. John Refuses an Offer of $800--Rand Sells for $80.

A number of apple buyers have been in this vicinity for the past week or more negotiating for the purchase of this season's crop of apples from the various orchardists in this part of the "Big Red Apple" domain. Representatives from two different fruit companies are vying with each other for the possession of the choicest orchards.

Contracts for the sale of several orchards have already been closed. Clifford Palmer has sold the crop from his fine orchard five miles northwest of the city. He gets $900 for the crop.

Marion Rand, who owns a small orchard north of town, has disposed of the crop for $80, and the orchard on the old Dr. Debow place, east of town has been sold for $200.

D. W. Schaefer has also sold the crop on his farm northeast of the city. Wm. St. John has been offered $800 for his crop, but he is holding it for $1,000, which he thinks he will be able to secure.

The price received for the crop when sold in this manner is all profit, as the purchasers attend to the gathering and shipping the fruit. They are well equipped for that part of the business part of it being done by machinery, which is operated right in the orchard.

DEATH OF MR. SWEET.

Passed away Sunday Morning September 2.

Mr. C. F. Sweet, who has been in a critical condition for the past week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. E. Ballard in this city, died last Monday morning at ten minutes past six o'clock. Mr. Sweet was born in Granville, New York in 1829. He removed to Jasper county in 1859 and settled on the farm five miles southeast of the city on which he has lived ever since. He was a man of many good qualities and was held in high esteem by his neighbors and acquaintances and in his demise the community has lost one of its best citizens. Big Corn on North Fork.

J. W. Bess was in town, says the Carthage Press, with two stacks of corn, each bearing two big ears, which he raised on his farm three miles north of Alba, on North Fork. Of course two ears to the stalk is not the rule in Mr. Bess' field, but it is expected that the field will yield at least 40 bushels to the acre. There are ten acres of it.

This corn was planted on May 12th and began to tassel out just as the first rains came to break the drought. Under these conditions it has flourished.

ENDED WITH A MIXUP.

FRANK GULICK AND A LAMAR MAN ENGAGES IN BATTLE.

Couldn't Agree on the Settlement of a Note Any Other Way and Finally Resort to Fistic Methods.

J. F. Gulick, the well known farmer living west of Jasper, and George Harsberger, a Lamar lawyer, had a little mixup on the streets of Lamar last Saturday evening. The trouble grew out of a disagreement regarding a note. Harsberger had taken a note against Gulick for collection, and several days before came down to Jasper and filed suit for the same in Justice Rathbun's court. The case was set for last Tuesday, but in the meantime Mr. Gulick sent a draft for the amount of the note up to Lamar.

On Saturday Mr. Gulick went up to Lamar himself and during the day he and Mr. Harsberger met. They began to exchange compliments, each telling the other what he thought of him. It finally got to a point where words were inadequate to satisfy the belligerents and more impassioned arguments were resorted to. It is said that Harsberger used an umbrella on his antagonist.

Both were taken before a justice of peace where they pled guilty and paid a fine.

THE LAST ROSE OF SUMMER.

By SAM C. HASTINGS.

'Tis the last rose of summer
Proudly holding up its head
O'er the scene whence late the roses
And the sparkling dewdrops fled.

Radiant and queenly
In its solitary reign,
Smiling so serenely
O'er the flowerless plain.

It may be that its Spartan stock
Perished in
It may be that its native grace
Deserved it,
More likely that the gods themselves
Reserved it,
As an emblem of a constancy divine.
