OGDEN, UTAH.
While walking through the luxuriously appointed lobby of the Wheatley Hotel, who should I see ensconced in one of the big leather chairs but our old time friend W. J. (Billie) Wheaton of San Francisco, Calif. The snow was falling in great flakes and no doubt Billie was thinking of the flowers and the fog, but a "Hello Bill!" soon had him up with that genial grin and hearty shake which makes him loved by the boys. Being here on fraternal business that required both tact and diplomacy, Billie was refusing numerous requests for his society. We went to hear him speak on Sunday night at the A. M. E. church. His subject was "Unity" and he spoke with an eloquence that surprised. We know he was a wizard with the pen, but never before that he was the equal of his famous brother, J. Frank, on the platform. Grand Exalted Ruler, McMeabeu, could not have picked a man more qualified to adjust difficulties and we are sure everything will be right. Billie asked to be remembered by the boys—Doc Ramsey and Bruce and Bruce especially.

COLUMBIA, MO.
By Mrs. J. Z. Moseley.
Powerful revival services are being held at St. Paul A. M. E. church. The Rev. O. H. Burbridge is preaching some real Gospel truths. Rev. O. F. Nelson passed through enroute for McBaine last week and was a worshiper of St. Paul. We also had with us Rev. Robinson. Rev. S. L. Brooks went to Centralia Mo. Sunday afternoon and held services for the Rev. J. H. Ward. Mrs. J. Z. Moseley was hostess to the "Donor Club" on December 2nd and Mrs. S. L. Brooks was the hostess December 9th and many interesting games were played after the business was gone over. Mr. Martin Brown of Minnesota was in the City last week and was dinner guest of Douglass Schaal Cafeteria. Mr. Sam O'Neal, one of our most industrious young men, has opened a Cafe with short orders, fine candies and soft drinks. Mr. Edmund O'Neal, his nephew of Detroit, Mich., will be the manager of Mr. Sam O'Neal in other business. We wish him much success. The boys of Columbia have organized a Junior S. C. O. Club.

NEGRO ELECTED TO ASSEMBLY IS SPEAKER AT G. O. P. MEETING.
St. Louis, Dec. 18.—Waltham M. Moore, a Negro waiter who was elected a member of the Missouri house of representatives from St. Louis, Saturday told his Republican colleagues in a session at the Planters hotel that he expected to accept the advice of friends to "sit quietly and look on" during the proceedings of the Fifty-first general assembly at Jefferson City.
Moore, whose district includes the "silk stocking" wards in the west end of St. Louis, did not arrive at the hotel until after the representatives had finished their dinner. He was until recently a waiter at the City club here.
He was introduced in his regular turn by Lieut. Gov.-elect Hiram Lloyd, whose call for the Republican house members to come here to "get acquainted" was answered by only about 25 members outside of St. Louis. There was a generous applause as Moore rose to his feet.
Gave Meeting Coloring
"I suppose you fellow representatives are thinking that I would have a bit of stage fright in appearing before you," said Moore. "I am placed in a peculiar yet a distinguished position by having been the first man of color elected to sit in the Missouri legislature. I was afraid that I might not get here Saturday, but for fear that the meeting would not have the proper coloring, as Mr. Lay has so beautifully put it, I am glad to be with you. (Lay is the representative of Crawford county and during a short speech had referred to the meeting as having the "proper coloring.")
"I probably have received more advice than any other representative or representative-elect," continued Moore. "I have been advised to sit quietly and look on. I think that it is good advice."
"I want to cooperate with you members in seeing the complete program of the Republican party carried out in Missouri. The raising of our educational standards is probably the greatest problem which confronts the general assembly."
Tribute From O'Fallon.
Rep. Sam F. O'Fallon, of Holt county, who probably will be re-elected speaker of the house, in a speech paid a rather glowing tribute to the Negro member-elect.
"I hope the Negro member will not feel out of place because he is the first one to serve with the white members," said O'Fallon. "It is only through the Republican party that he can serve in the Missouri legislature. I am glad that he is here."

CLARKSVILLE, MO.
Rev. A. L. Lovel preached two splendid sermons Sunday. Green Chapel Baptist church convention held last week was quite a success. There was good preaching morning and night and two additions. Mr. C. W. Duncan our Colored grocer is having a good trade. Rev. W. H. Hurley of Pittsburg, Ill., visited his brother George and other relatives. Mrs. M. A. Crow will spend the Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cox of Frankford.

HOLDEN, MO.
By Charles Pratt.
Services at Baptist church Sunday were largely attended. A grand sermon was preached. Frank Hunley of Excelsior Springs visited his parents here. Nathaniel Draper of Windsor, Mo., passed away last week. Mrs. Mary Warnick of Centerville, Mo., was the guest of Mrs. Emma Kaseley. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Owens will occupy the residence of William Jacobs. Mrs. Stella Combs visited Mr. and Mrs. Edd Green in the county last Sunday. Dr. Charles M. Briscoe of Kansas City spent Sunday with his father. Charles Pennington has moved to Kansas. Mrs. Lillian Stewart returned home last Sunday from Kansas City. Mrs. Pratt spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Berry and family. Mrs. Carmichael entertained was a success last Saturday night. Mrs. Lottie Clay and sister, Miss M. Johnson attended the funeral of their cousin, Nathaniel Draper of Windsor, Mo.

ROSEDALE, KANSAS.
The Parent-Teachers' Association held their meeting at Atucks School Friday evening. A nice program was rendered. Rev. J. H. Lee was the principal speaker, and made an address which met the hearty approval of all present. The attendance at the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church Sunday was good all day. The members responded fairly well with the rally. The pastor, Rev. S. V. Terry, delivered a spiritual sermon in the morning and at night a young minister spoke. One addition was made. Something over $47.00 was raised. There will be special services at Wesley Chapel Christmas morning. Rev. Walden, the pastor will deliver a sermon on "The Birth of Christ."

We will send it, Jeff's.

TUSKEGEE CONFERENCE.
Tuskegee Inst. Ala., Dec. 11.—Elaborate plans are being made for the Thirtieth Annual Tuskegee Negro Conference which will be held at Tuskegee Institute, Wednesday and Thursday, January 19th and 20th. "Needs of the South's Present Day Rural Life" is the general topic for discussion, and as usual the first day will be given over to the farmers and the second day to persons engaged in educational, christian and social uplift work.
Dr. Robert R. Moton, Principal of Tuskegee Institute, announces that the indications are that the Conference in 1921 will be one of the largest attended in the history of this movement. A number of speakers of national importance have been invited to appear on the program and many of them have already accepted. Special reduced rates on the railroads have been applied for and persons attending will be entertained as guests of the Institute.

NEW FILM COMPANY FOR COLORED PEOPLE OF KANSAS CITY.
A new enterprise, namely, the Gate City Feature Film has been organized by our people of Kansas City with offices at 1701 E. 12th street. The trustees are all men well known for their reliability and integrity. The company is owned by Colored people exclusively and a force of thirty have been selected and are now working on the first production entitled, "Fought and Won" said to be a very forceful picture. The production of motion pictures offers a wonderful field for our people, as we have thousands of motion picture theatres in this country.
The Company will employ expert assistants and have its own studios located here. The success of the new enterprise is a foregone conclusion and all concerned are enthusiastic. The very best talent of Kansas City has been selected and excellent progress is being made daily. The new enterprise will give employment to many of our people and is being loyally supported.
