

Aull & Schultz,

Gables Old Stand West of the Court House.

20 lbs. Granulated or 25 lbs. of New Orleans Sugar for $1.00 with each $5.00 cash order of goods at the following prices

Loose coffee, 5c or 2 lbs for.....	25c	Eggs, per dozen.....	15c
Blue Mocha and Java, the very	30c	Butterine, 3c per pound, 3 lbs for.....	30c
Light Patent flour, per cwt.....	1.90	North Carolina pine tar per pint.....	10c
Old Country Soap for.....	35c	2 lb can of mince meat.....	10c
lard, per pound.....	10c	Persian dates per pound.....	19c
lard, 34 lbs., for.....	25c	Oranges per dozen.....	30c
Half fat meat 8 pounds for.....	25c	Imported sardines, in pure olive oil,
Breakfast bacon per lb.....	12 1/2c	per can.....	15c
Tomatoes 3 cans for.....	50c	California dried peaches, peeled, lb.....	30c
Tomatoes 7 cans for.....	50c	Other dried peaches, per lb 5c to.....	10c
Standard corn 3 cans for.....	25c	Italian prunes, 30 to the lb, 2 lbs for.....	30c
Standard corn 7 cans for.....	50c	Medium prunes 4 lbs for.....	35c
Can of beets.....	10c	Small prunes, 6 lbs for.....	35c
Carrots Tips per can.....	25c	Dried grapes, 3 lbs for.....	25c
Carrots per gallon.....	25c	1 gallon can of apples.....	35c
Pickles per gallon.....	45c	Fancy dried apricots per lb.....	15c
Greens molasses per gallon.....	45c	Carolina head rice 3 lbs for.....	25c
Greens, 15 pounds for.....	25c	Bulk starch, 8 lbs for.....	25c
Grease, 8 boxes for.....	25c	15 lbs sal soda for.....	25c
Garden Seeds: a full line in bulk		3 big mackerel for.....	35c
and in papers at lowest prices.		White hoop Holland herring per keg.....	90c
		White hoop Milchers, per keg.....	1.00
		Special rolled herring, 3 for.....	10c

THE PRODUCT IS THE PROOF,
and you are more than welcome to test our flower and garden seeds by the output of your gardens, with the very fair proviso, of course, that you follow instructions as to planting and tending. The seeds we offer come from the hot-houses, nurseries and fields of the most expert seedsmen in the country, and are bound to give good results. Phone 152.

MISCELLANEOUS MELANGE.

from Saturday's Daily.]
Several good farms for rent. Apply to Mattent... 2-101f.
J. C. McGrew returned yesterday evening from St. Louis.
Leroy Farmer returned yesterday evening from Glasgow, Mo.
Bert Taubman left yesterday morning to visit her father's family in Ada, Mo.
John Spears this morning acquired his sister, Mrs. George W. to Winton.
C. L. McLaughlin has sent out a lot of Walnut logs this week and two more cars today.
Father Crenshaw returned last night from St. Louis, after a few days at home with his father's family.
Nellie and Mamie Warren returned from Higginsville last night here for the tour around the...
Frances Smith, of C. F. C., returned to Kansas City yesterday evening where she goes to meet her...
G. Baker and wife and children left yesterday evening for Kansas, where they go to make their home.
Transfer company keeps a call book Mammoth livery stable and one at Central hotel. Leave orders at...
Costello of the Catholic church here, returned yesterday from Sedalia, where he has been spending a few days.
Florence Neale came down from Kansas City to spend a few days here with the family of Mr. Lewis Neale.
C. Sharp, of St. Louis, who has been visiting the family of Hon. Wallace for a few days, left today for his home at St. Louis.
Pearl Cox, of Dover, returned last night from Colorado Springs, where she has been teaching. She was accompanied by her little niece, Love.
Lelia Tidball, who has been several days visiting her sister, W. G. McCausland, left yesterday for her home at Fort Worth, Tex.
Geo. Clayton and Mrs. Martha, relatives of Mr. James Finley, who have been residing in our city, left last night to make their home at Sedalia.
Women with female weakness suffer actually from the piles in addition to other pains. They may be cured by Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment. 50 cents in bottles, tubes, 75 cents. Sold by Crenshaw & Young, 4-6m1.
John Donaldson yesterday returned on his way home from Kansas where he had been to buy cats, which he had been stricken with paralysis. He returned home from Blackburn, where he reports he is still unwell.
Col. Donaldson has many acquaintances here who sympathize with sorrow of his mis-

The W. M. A. cadets with colors flying and bugle blowing left town this morning on their first march and bivouac. They go to Hicklin's lake, east of town and remain all day, each cadet having the regular army rations for dinner and supper. The cadets will be instructed in special field practice by Col. Kellogg and will also have special target practice during the day. The field of operations today will be christened Camp Funston and several trips will probably be made to the camp before the close of the term.
[From Monday's Daily.]
Miss Damron spent yesterday in Kansas City.
Rev. J. C. Given left this morning for Pilot Grove, Mo.
Mr. Fred Marshall returned from Kansas City last night.
Miss Florence Neale returned yesterday evening to Kansas City.
Mr. Herbert Sparks, of Kansas City, came down to Lexington this morning.
Messrs. Chas. Loomis and August Egle spent the day in Kansas City yesterday.
Mr. Al Johnson, of the Kansas City Star, came down last night to see his home folks.
Dr. Geo. L. Leyburn came in Saturday evening for a short visit with friends here.
Miss Pearl Cox, of Dover, who has been visiting here for a few days, left this morning.
Mr. John M. Price, Jr., went to Higginsville Saturday evening for a short visit.
Miss Lena McDaniel, of Higginsville, came up Saturday evening to visit the Misses Venable.
Miss Sallie Craig went to Higginsville Saturday evening to remain over Sunday with friends there.
Mr. Mansfield McClelland came up from Sedalia Saturday evening to spend Sunday here with the home folks.
CORRESPONDENTS WANTED—The INTELLIGENCER wants a correspondent in every town in Lafayette county. Write for particulars.
Miss Mabelle Donaldson, of Kansas City spent Sunday here with Mrs. T. C. Butts; and returned home this morning.
Colonists Rates to California—Only $25 from Kansas City, via most direct line, Santa Fe Route, every Tuesday to April 30. J. D. Easter, Jr., Agent.
The Missouri Pacific work train starts work on the road west of here this morning preparing the road bed for the main line track.
Church of Christ Scientist, Sunday services as follows: 10:30 a. m., Sunday school 11:30 a. m., at Knights of Pythias hall. All are cordially invited.
Mr. and Mrs. Fennell Blackwell, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hix for a few days, left this morning.
HOME MONEY TO LOAN.—On good real estate security. In sums of $500 and up, at 7 per cent. No commission, no red tape. Apply to J. Q. Plattenburg. tf

Mr. Arthur W. Waddell, who has been spending several months at home, returned last night to St. Louis.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Mr. Eugene P. Gum and Miss Bessie L. Andrews, both of Odessa.

Mr. Louis Hays, who has been spending some time here with the home folks, left this morning for Kansas City.

Mr. Terrill Tompkins, of Kansas City, came down yesterday to spend the day with relatives and friends near Lexington.

The finest line of cream and chocolate candy in town for 30c per lb; see new cuts of all kinds; figs, raisins, dates and Malaga grapes at Jos. L. Long's.

Mr. Alf F. Rector, prosecuting attorney of Saline county, is in the city today on the Eubanks case, which is set for trial today.

About forty witnesses came up from Saline county today on the Eubanks case, which was brought here on a change of venue.

Justices of the peace and notaries public can be supplied with chattel mortgages at this office, at 5 cents per copy. All kinds of blanks printed to order. tf

Mr. Martin Baker, accompanied by Miss Lillian Baker, his daughter, went to Kansas City yesterday morning to visit relatives for a few days.

Rev. Z. M. Williams left last night for New Orleans to attend the general missionary conference of the Methodist church in session there this week.

Mrs. Minn McFadin and little daughter, Miss Fannie McFadin, went to Kansas City yesterday morning for a week's visit with Mrs. McFadin's mother.

Mr. M. E. Serat, who spent most of last week here superintending the erection of the top works at the Serat shaft, went to Kansas City Saturday evening. Work is progressing nicely at the shaft.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup used in time is worth a staff of physicians with a drug store or two included. Price, 25 and 50 cents. For sale by Crenshaw & Young, 4-6m1

Misses Gertrude Jefferson and Bessie Renick, from near Napoleon, and Mr. Carl Jefferson, from Kansas City, spent Sunday here visiting Miss Annie Jefferson, one of the students at Central college.

Mr. Ike Ryland and wife of Kansas City, came down Saturday night and returned yesterday evening. Master Robert Knickerbock Ryland, who came with them, remains for a short time to visit the family of his grandfather, Judge John E. Ryland.

Owing to the mild weather I did not sell as many overcoats as I anticipated and have yet over 200 of them on hand. In order to dispose of as many of them as possible, I have concluded to sacrifice my entire profit, and now offer them at prime cost. H. Sjaauer, 12-22tf

Mr. H. J. Groves, editor of the Kansas City Times, accompanied by his wife, came down from the city Saturday night to visit Mr. Groves' mother, Mrs. Jane Groves. Mr. Groves returned Sunday morning and his wife returned this morning.

[From Tuesday's Daily.]
Mr. Dennis Gavin went to Kansas City yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Farley went down to Sedalia last night.

Mrs. Ernest Hays left this morning for a week's visit at Independence and Kansas City.

Mr. Lee Stusher went to Kansas City yesterday evening to serve on the federal jury.

Hon. Alex. Graves went to Kansas City this morning on legal business in the federal court.

Miss Josephine Mickle returned this morning from a visit with her sister at Harrisonville, Mo.

Mr. Louis Webb went to Kansas City yesterday evening to help Mr. August Limburg take some horses through overland.

Mrs. Chas. Weber returned last night from Council Bluffs, Iowa, where she has been spending a couple of weeks visiting her son.

Col. Sanford Sellers left this morning to attend a special meeting of the Presbyterian synod at Mexico, Mo., to consider educational matters.

Mr. Sid Loomis' fine Jersey heifer died about noon yesterday. It was quite a pet and Mr. Loomis had it buried with appropriate ceremonies in the afternoon.

Mrs. W. H. Loomis started this morning, in company with her little son, Albert, for Los Angeles, Cal., where she goes to spend most of the summer with her father's family.

Mr. Frank Larkin and Mrs. Fanna Llewellyn Coon, widow of the late Allyn J. Coon deceased, who have been here since Mr. Coon's funeral, left this morning for Kansas City.

Mr. C. L. McLaughlin went down to Higginsville this morning with a crew of men to start them to work on getting walnut logs down there. He also starts a crew at Bates City today.

In the Eubanks case in the criminal court here yesterday before special Judge Jarrett both sides announced ready for trial and a jury was ordered for this morning at nine o'clock.

Nearly every person needs a tonic medicine at this time of the year to brace up and invigorate the nervous system, to cleanse the bowels, liver and kidneys. Herbine is the best and safest remedy to do this, as it will cure constipation, regulate the liver and enrich the blood. Price, 50 cents. For sale by Crenshaw & Young, 4-6m1

Messrs Oscar Andreen, Chris Walk and H. W. Winsor went to St. Louis last night to attend the meeting of the grand commandery and the grand chapter, which meet there Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. They are the delegates elected to represent De Molay Commandery No. 3 and Lexington Chapter No. 10.

High School Class, 1901.

At a meeting of the board of education Friday night the issuing of diplomas to the class of 1901 was authorized. The following are the names of the class members, and the diplomas will be awarded at the graduating exercises of the High school to be held at the New Grand opera house Tuesday evening, April thirtieth:
Siegel Mott Hainkel, William Edgar Goodloe, Gordon Westworth Graham, Charles Herbert Mayer, James Mynos Spurlock, Mary Virginia Shouse, Nannie Shelby Chinn, Estelle Louise Wilker, Elizabeth Davis, William Thomas Yates, John Marshall Price, Jr., William Calvin Nicholson, Sarah Edith Powell, Jennie Irene Curren, Firman Buford White.

Our Exchanges.

The Sweet Springs base ball club has been organized and is now ready to accept challenges from any amateur club.—Sweet Springs Herald.

Notices are posted for a special school election to be held May 2nd, for the purpose of voting an additional 60 cent levy to meet requirements of the school district.—Buckner Star.

Geo. W. Bates, of Lexington, Mo., ex-county collector of Lafayette county, and representing the Equitable Life Insurance company was here Monday in the interest of his company.—Sweet Springs Herald.

The school board met Wednesday night and selected J. E. Ragland to take the school enumeration. The board pays twenty dollars for the work. Superintendent Sebring was granted a leave of absence from the schools for next Thursday and Friday.—Higginsville Jeffersonian.

Joel F. Chiles, this week had recorded a deed for real estate which was made by his father, Joel F. Chiles, Sr. in 1835, the deed bears the names of R. B. Chiles and Isaac Drake. It had remained all these years unrecorded.—Buckner Star.

Col. Paul B. Moore, private secretary to Gov. Stephens during his administration, has engaged in the newspaper business, having bought the Charleston Express. Success to the Enterprise.—Mexico Intelligencer.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Synodical college of the Missouri Presbytery, Rev. Dr. J. N. Spencer, of the St. Louis People's Presbyterian church, formally accepted the presidency of the college to succeed Rev. Walton, resigned.—Mexico Intelligencer.

We understand that Prof. J. R. McChesney will have charge of the Hamburg, Arkansas schools for another year and that under his management the schools have improved and the enrollment increased until extra teachers teachers have had to be employed. We congratulate both Prof. McChesney and the town.—Odessa Democrat.

Married, at 7 p. m., Wednesday, April 17, 1901, at the home of the bride's parents, near Glasgow, Mr. Robert N. Farmer and Miss Maggie Wright, Rev. A. B. Calbertson officiating. The ceremony took place in the presence of a few intimate friends and near relatives. The bride was attired in a handsome gray cloth suit, and looked particularly charming, while the groom looked his best in the conventional black. Among those who attended the wedding from a distance were Miss Mattie Richardson and Jas. Lee, of Gilliam; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Farmer, of Lexington.—Glasgow Missourian.

Over the State.
Centralia, Mo., wants a new city hall to cost about $5,000.

Mexico had the distinguished orator, Geo. R. Wendling, last week.

The Miami High school had its annual alumnae banquet last Friday night.

Some of the Mexico, Mo., churches are putting in pipe organs and this is no pipe dream.

Marshall has had the Passion Play illustrating the touching incidents in the life of Christ.

Mr. N. M. Houx of Odessa has announced himself as a candidate for mayor of that city.

Slater is expanding and will soon vote on a proposition to enlarge its electric light plant.

Fishing is the order of the day in Waverly, several good catches having been made already.

Fifty-two members were recently added to the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Warrensburg, Mo.

Farmers in Richmond are signing up contracts this week to furnish tomatoes to the new canning factory.

The Mexico Intelligencer favors municipal ownership of the electric light plant as soon as practical.

Rev. Father Brennon, of Philadelphia, is conducting a mission this week at the Catholic church in Richmond.

A little child of Henry Porter living at mine No. 1 near Camden, Mo. was burned to death last Wednesday afternoon.

Warrensburg is to have a circus April 29th and the small boy and his father have their faces wreathed in perpetual smiles.

A new switch board to handle 133 phones has been put up in the Lafayette County Telephone Company's station at Higginsville.

The C. & A. R. R. at Marshall is bustling the merchants there in unloading cars by charging demurrage for every day over the limit.

Nevada's city council is having in addition to its calaboose built for the use of its fire department, and it will have all the necessary conveniences.

The Methodists of Higginsville have made arrangements to have a new church and have arranged with Sedalia architect to draw the plans.

At the district meeting of the Missouri Medical Association held at Marshall last week, Dr. Braecklein of Higginsville was elected president of the district.

The county seat war in Montgomery county goes merrily on notwithstanding the fact that the court house at Danville, that county, burned down a short time ago.

Dr. Geo. L. Leyburn, evangelist for the Synod of Missouri conducted services at the Presbyterian church at Higginsville last Sunday at 11 a. m. and participated in the installation of the new pastor, Rev. W. E. Beattie, in the afternoon.

Vandalia, Mo., is having a mad dog scare. A dog killed a few days ago is reported to have bitten a number of other dogs before he was killed. When people in the country now meet a dog in the road they mount the fence or climb a tree.

The retail clerks association and the merchants of Richmond met last week and agreed to closing the stores at 5:30 p. m. except Saturdays and the seven days preceding and including Christmas. It was also agreed to close the stores on the Fourth of July and Sundays except in case of sickness.

A Texas Wonder.

HALL'S GREAT DISCOVERY.

One small bottle of Hall's Great Discovery cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two month's treatment, with cure any case above mentioned. Dr. E. W. Hall, sole manufacturer, St. Louis, formerly Waco, Texas. Send for testimonials. Sold by Crenshaw & Young.

READ THIS.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 27, 1900.—I am using the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and I am greatly benefitted, and cheerfully recommend it to the public. J. H. LEE, Lindell Barber Shop, 615 Washington Av.