All Our Readers Should Take It.
 One of the most useful as well as the most handsome weekly papers that comes to our sanctum is the AMERICAN LAND AND LAW ADVISOR, published at Pittsburgh, Pa., by Messrs. Croft & Phillips. It is a PAPER FOR THE MASSES, and should be taken by every business man, mechanic, land owner, or those about to build, or purchase any kind of property. It gives you ALL your Legal Advice Free, ORIGINAL DESIGNS for cottages, dwelling houses, suburban and country residences, and a vast fund of practical information such as is found in no other paper in the world. We find the following law questions—submitted to the paper by subscribers—answered fully, INTELLIGENTLY, and very satisfactorily in a recent issue. This feature is alone worth to every subscriber TEN TIMES the subscription price:

Can a husband, who may be a justicer, take the acknowledgement of his wife? (H. T.)
 Where A. gives to B., his son, a farm for his natural life, and at his death to go to his heirs, &c., what claim has B's widow on the farm after B's death? (A Subscriber.)
 Where one farmer agreed to cut with a machine a field for another, and was prevented from finishing the same for a whole week by reason of continuous heavy rains, in consequence of which the whole field was lost; how far is he responsible for the loss? (J. F. C.)
 In Ohio, when has county Auditor the right to demand from delinquent tax payers (by reason of claiming that the tax is levied on bona fide debts) the names of creditors, &c? [A Subscriber.]
 Can a surety on a bond, which turns out to hold him to different obligations from what he understood and intended at time of signing; avoid the bond? [Deceitful.]
 Where a woman, being engaged to be married, obtained a deed from her betrothed, based on the marriage contract, and then refuses to marry him; what redress has the man? [Inquiry.]
 What redress has a father against the keeper of a "public den" for the ruin of his two sons? [H. R.]

In addition to all of the above, the publishers give to every yearly subscriber a beautiful oil chromo, "THE LOST BABE," fully worth $5.00—all for $2.50. We would advise all our readers to subscribe for the ADVISOR, as they will find it the most profitable newspaper investment they ever made. Send two stamps for sample copy.
 The publishers are establishing permanent subscription agencies in all parts of the country, and they want a good, life agent to establish and take charge of agencies in those places where there are none. Address them as above for particulars.
 N. B.—Copies of the AMERICAN LAND AND LAW ADVISOR can be seen at the office of the FAIR PLAY and, by our arrangement with its publishers, we can furnish it and the FAIR PLAY for $3.50 per year, with the above chromo to every yearly subscriber.
