WITFUL WINS—AN EASY RACE—Captain Brown's Audience Runs a Good Second After Settling the Pace.

LITTLE MIRTHFUL BOLTS.

Runs the Wrong Way in the Track, Falls Over the Fence, and Severely Hurts Jockey Kutz.

MEMPHIS SPECIAL.—Memphis, Tenn., April 8.—Captain S. S. Brown's 2-year-old filly, Audiance, made her first appearance of the season in the third race here today, and she showed that she still retains all her old-time speed by running a smashing good race, and finishing a close second to Witful, after practically setting all the pace.

In the early running Audiance was rank and Audubern had her under restraint. Going to the front soon after the start she opened up a lead of a length, and retained this advantage until well straightened out for the final run.
