TO LOOK INTO CONDITION OF THE PIMA INDIANS.

Commissioner Jones Sent by President to Investigate Missionaries' Charges Red Men Are Starving.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Commissioner of Indian Affairs W. A. Jones, at the special request of President Roosevelt, will leave Washington to-morrow for Arizona to personally investigate the assertions which have been recently made by an organization of missionaries, to the effect that, through neglect, the Pima Indians of Arizona are in a starving condition.

These charges were preferred some weeks ago, and Commissioner Jones, en route east from California, where he had been on business for the Indian Bureau, made an investigation which resulted in a whitewash of all charges.

Now, however, the missionary association renews its charges with increased vigor and has appealed direct to President Roosevelt, urging that something be done immediately to alleviate the alleged distress of the Pima Indians of Arizona. Responding to this urgent request, President Roosevelt has directed Commissioner Jones to proceed at once to Arizona and thoroughly look into the condition of these tribes of the nation's wards.

COURT CORRECTS A MISTAKE.

Decree Issued Authorizing Muskogee to Issue Bonds.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Muskogee, I. T., Oct. 24.—The Court of the Western District has issued a decree authorizing the city of Muskogee to issue $200,000 worth of bonds for the extension of waterworks and sewers.

These bonds were voted, advertised for sale, sold and the bond company purchasing them was ready to turn over the money, when it was discovered that the decree authorizing the issue had never been made, owing to an oversight on the part of the court.

As soon as the discrepancy was discovered the court issued the decree.

New Headquarters in Muskogee.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Muskogee, I. T., Oct. 24.—The Hammond Packing Company has established general headquarters in Muskogee, and will make this place the headquarters for all business transacted in Indian Territory, Oklahoma and Texas. There will be sixteen branch houses in operation in the territory mentioned.

GOULD INTERESTS TAKE CONTROL

In Charge of Property Containing 15,000 Acres of Coal Land With Annual Tonnage of 2,500,000.

At a meeting of the boards of directors of the Pittsburg Terminal Coal and Railroad and West Side Belt Railroad companies at Pittsburg, yesterday, the following officers were elected to be in charge of the two companies: Joseph Ramsey Jr., president; J. W. Patterson, vice president; W. G. Rock, secretary and assistant treasurer; H. B. Henson, treasurer. The following have been elected directors of the companies:

Pittsburg Terminal and Railroad Company—George J. Gould, Edwin Gould, J. Ramsey Jr., E. T. Jeffrey, J. W. Patterson, W. D. Holliday, J. T. Walsh, W. G. Rock, Charles Donnelly, F. F. Nicols, T. N. Barnsdall, William Flynn.

West Side Belt Railroad Company—George J. Gould, Edwin Gould, J. Ramsey Jr., E. T. Jeffrey, J. W. Patterson, W. D. Holliday, J. T. Walsh, Charles Donnelly, F. M. Osborne, T. N. Barnsdall, F. F. Nicols.

With this election, the Gould interests are placed in charge and control of property of inestimable value to the Wabash.

The Pittsburg Terminal Railroad and Coal Company consists of twenty-three miles of belt railway, extending from the Ohio River on the southwest to the Clairton Steel Works on the Monongahela River, and 15,000 acres of coal land, with seven new mining plants, having an output of 2,500,000 tons annually.

This property, with the West Side Belt Railway, from which spurs are to be built to several of the large steel plants, will, under the agreement made with the Carnegie Steel Works, supply an enormous tonnage, thereby justifying the large expenditures made by the Wabash in entering Pittsburg.

R. G. & W. Election.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 24.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Rio Grande and Western Railroad, held here to-day, all the old directors were re-elected, including E. H. Harriman. This disposes of the rumor that an effort would be made to oust the Harriman interests from the directorate of this Gould road. The meeting of the Board of Directors will take place in New York in about two weeks.

May Not Control Santa Fe.

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 24.—It is regarded as practically settled that the Harriman interests will not secure control of the Santa Fe directorate at the stockholders' meeting in this city next Wednesday. General Solicitor Kenna says it may be possible for Harriman to secure control, but that the present directors expect to be chosen again.

TO VISIT CHESLEY ISLAND.

Plans to Dispose of Garbage Are Progressing Rapidly.

President Phillips of the Board of Public Improvements and Street Commissioner Varrelman will visit Chesley Island, to make further arrangements for disposing of the garbage, when it is removed there after November 15. They will leave on the harbor boat Mark Twain at 3 o'clock tomorrow morning, from the foot of Market street and will return in the afternoon.

President Phillips says that the work of arranging the details for the new place is progressing rapidly and that there will be no doubt of the city's readiness to handle its own garbage after the Butler contract has expired.

Dodson Braun Win Grand Prize.

Dodson-Braun Mfg. Co., St. Louis, were awarded Grand Prize—highest award—for their famous Cupid Brand Pickles and other goods, at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

Culberson Will Go to Indiana.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Senator Culberson was in the city to-day. He will leave in a day or two for Indiana, where he will make several speeches.

Former Representative Yoder of Ohio will leave to-morrow for New Philadelphia, O. He will make two speeches daily in the Seventeenth Ohio District in favor of the election of J. E. Hearst, the Democratic nominee. The Republican nominee in the Seventeenth District is M. L. F. Smyser, who lives at Wooster.

THINKS ROOSEVELT ISN'T A CHRISTIAN

Philadelphia Pastor Creates Stir by Attack on President's Orthodoxy.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 24.—The Reverend George Bell, pastor of Patterson Memorial Church of this city, caused a stir at the meeting of Presbyterian ministers to-day by an attack on the orthodoxy of President Roosevelt. Subsequently, while excitement was at a high pitch, the minister withdrew his objectionable remarks.

It was after a paper on "Why the Church Fails of a Great Revival" had been read that Mr. Bell arose and startled his hearers with these words:

"When President Roosevelt was Chief of the New York Police Department he did all in his power to suppress the liquor traffic and to stamp out evil. In his recent letter of acceptance of the nomination from his party, he said not a word against liquor. I do not think, therefore, that President Roosevelt is a Christian. He is not proving himself such."

"I object; I object to such a statement before this body about Roosevelt," vehemently interrupted the Reverend Chas. Nevin.

"Well," declared the Reverend Mr. Bell in softer tones, "I shall modify my remarks somewhat by saying that such men (referring to Roosevelt) do not prove by their acts at all times that they are Christians."

"That's better; that's better," remarked many who were present. "There's no reason for saying that about our President."

"This is not the place for such talk," all agreed.

HIGGINS PRELIMINARY TRIAL POSTPONED TO WEDNESDAY

Identity of the Man Who Mysteriously Attended Mrs. Thomasson at Her Home Established.

Peoria, Oct. 24.—The preliminary hearing of Richard Higgins, charged with the murder of Mrs. Nellie Thomasson, has been postponed until 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. This action was taken at the request of both the State and the defense.

A witness to the alleged assault by Richard Higgins, in the person of Conrad Suft, almshouse keeper of Marshall County, has been found. He was peering through the door of the waiting-room when the affair took place.

The mystery concerning the identity of the man at the Taylor residence at Lacon was cleared up in a statement made by Mrs. Taylor, mother of Mrs. Thomasson, this forenoon. The man is George Gelewicks of Tiskilwa, Ill., a real estate dealer, who often visited at her house.

Mrs. Taylor said that Gelewicks had an appointment with Mrs. Thomasson at her house at 6:30 Saturday evening.

When Mrs. Thomasson arrived so seriously injured, he remained with her. He stayed at the house all night and left Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Taylor denied strenuously that there was any trouble at her house.

She declares that all Mrs. Thomasson's injuries were received in Peoria, and that her daughter said that Higgins assaulted her.

Gelewicks is said to be a private detective and the residents of Lacon assert that Mrs. Thomasson frequently engaged in this work. Officers are now trying to locate her.

Should Higgins senior have come to the city yesterday and have quietly disappeared it is taken by friends of the family to mean that he does not intend to come to the rescue of his son. Efforts are now being made to determine definitely whether he was in Peoria or not.

The Higgins family, however, declared this morning that he was not at home, and that they had heard nothing from him. The neighbors, among them Thomas Loughlin, assert that Higgins, Sr., was seen entering the front door of his home Sunday morning.

Efforts to get the members of the family to either specifically affirm or deny this story were unavailing. They refused to talk concerning the matter, further than to say that they did not know where he is.

SOUTHERN WOMEN FORM CLUB

Dixie Daughters the Name of New York Organization.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Oct. 24.—A new social and literary club, which has for its objects the promotion of social relations among Southerners in this city, and the study of Southern literature, has been formed. It is known as the Dixie Daughters' Club. The moving spirit is Mrs. Hallie Milburn Dunklin of No. 21 West One Hundred and Sixth street.

Mrs. Dunklin is a former president of the Texas Woman's Press Association, and is the only woman who has ever owned and edited a daily paper in that State. She is the former owner of the Daily Telephone, one of the largest Texas afternoon papers published at Waco.

These Dixie Daughters expect in no way to encroach on the rights of the Daughters of the Confederacy, but are a club within this body, so to speak, as most members of the new organization are also U. D. C. members.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis is honorary president. Mrs. Dunklin is president. The headquarters of the Dixie Daughters is in the Red and White Room of the Hotel Astor, where the next meeting will be held November 11.

CHARGED WITH STEALING GAS.

Saloonkeeper Arrested on Complaint of Upstairs Roomer.

Robert A. Agnew, a saloonkeeper, at No. 926 Hamilton avenue, was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff Edward Noonan on a warrant charging Agnew with stealing 1,000 cubic feet of gas, valued at $1.

Louis Yost, who has rooms above Agnew's saloon, had the warrant sworn out. He charged that Agnew used gas from a burner connected with Yost's meter in the cellar. Yost is a vegetarian, and some time ago prepared an article on living cheaply, the police say.

Agnew claims that the action of Yost is the result of spite.

"HOPPING" TRAINS WAS FATAL

George Senkey, 13, Loses Life Under Car Wheels.

While trying to board a freight train which was crossing South Broadway at Tesson street, George Senkey, 13 years old, living at No. 7829 Water street, was killed yesterday afternoon.

He tried to jump on one of the cars, but slipped and fell to the ground. A brake beam struck him as it passed, crushing his skull. The body was removed to his home and the Coroner notified.

KENTUCKY COLLEGE BURNS.

Professor and Students Lose All Their Personal Effects.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 24.—Blandville College of Kentucky burned this morning about 8 o'clock, leaving but the brick walls standing. Professor Robinson and family and a few students who boarded with them lost most all their personal effects.

They were living in the building, awaiting the completion of the dormitory, which was almost ready for occupancy. No one was seriously injured. There was no insurance on the college.

WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION

The Thanksgiving and Election number is on sale to-day. A magazine that goes into half a million homes, and is welcome in every one. Entertaining, companionable, helpful to all its readers—men, women and children—between two and three million of them—who regard this periodical as their ideal. In contents, illustrations and execution the WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION stands first and highest in their estimation.

The November Number

is exceptionally timely in its articles and artistic in its illustrations. You will be glad of a copy—indeed, must have one. There are many things in it for you.

Thoughtful readers will find in this number not only an absorbingly interesting story of the spectacular career of Sully, "King of Cotton," but a most startling revelation of the planters' "Crime Against the Cotton-Seed." But for Sully's marvelous warning the cotton supply of the world might have deteriorated more than it actually did—and may yet if the lesson passes unheeded.

Busy housekeepers, upon whose shoulders rests the responsibility for preparing the great feast of the year, will give joyful welcome to the ten prize recipes for old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinners. From these recipes, many of them handed down through generations of New England or Southern families, many a famous dinner of olden times, toothsome and abundant, may be duplicated.

"In Sod-House Land" is a sympathetic picture of the shaggy sod house as it used to stand "on the edge of things" in the rich-grassed leagues of the vast, dull-toned, clear-skied prairie.

Old Ireland's strangest shrine, "Saint Patrick's Purgatory," a quaint account of which has been written by Seumas MacManus, will delight all lovers and followers of Saint Patrick.

Our short stories are capital. "The Rising Up of Ezzie Wygelia"—"when she did rise up she just rose up all over"—is a story that will do every one good to read. And "The Girl and the Game" tells in a charming way how "the girl" married the man she "could beat 3-up" at golf.

The second instalment of "The King of Diamonds," a tale by Louis Tracy, author of "The Wings of the Morning," depicts the troubles of a boy made fabulously rich by a meteorite of diamonds. It is a story of such dramatic interest as to make it hard to wait for succeeding chapters.

Election articles and pictures are of course a marked feature of this number, one of the most stirring of which is an account of "Election-Night in a Newspaper Office." "An Election-Day Dinner" is an odd recipe well worked out.

For college girls, in this period of hazing and secret-society initiation, extracts from Martha Cobb Sanford's "Memory-Book" will be a bonanza. Richly illustrated with scenes of college pranks.

Our regular departments, as always, full of good features. Mrs. Sangster's Thanksgiving talk will help to find new causes for thanksgiving; "Fads and Frills of Fashion" treats of "adjustable things," and is particularly for the girl who has to depend upon her own ingenuity; "Children's Fashions;" "Photo Contest;" "Home Training of Children"—practical doings of the mothers themselves; while the "Children's Pages," under the conduct of Aunt Janet, will be hailed as joyfully as ever by the youngsters.

FATHER SUES FOR CHILDREN.

Says Wife Refuses to Let Him See Them.

John H. Redmond applied to the St. Louis Court of Appeals yesterday for a writ of Habeas Corpus to have his children, John, Camilla, Mary, Lewis and Charles, released from the charge of their mother, Camilla C. Redmond.

He states that the children are kept part of the time at the home of his wife's mother, Sarah B. Herr, at Springfield, Mo., and part of the time away from there at school.

He alleges that the children are prohibited from seeing him, and that his wife has refused to allow him to see them, and that she has taught the children to run away from him and disown him. She has also, he alleges, instructed the superintendents of schools which the children attend not to allow him to see the children or to allow them to write to him.

An order, directed to the Sheriff of Greene County to be served, was issued citing Mrs. Redmond to show cause November 7 why her husband's petition should not be granted.

SEEKS TO STOP DIVORCE.

Circuit Clerk Gets Letter Requesting Withholding of Decree.

A letter has been received by Circuit Clerk W. H. Hauschulte, from Chicago, signed George B. Chamberlin, requesting him to notify the Court not to grant a decree to William G. McDavitt, whose suit for divorce against Nellie McDavitt is pending in Judge Douglas's Division of the Circuit Court.

Chamberlin states that he has been Mrs. McDavitt's attorney for several years, and that McDavitt sued for divorce at Fargo, N. D., and Enid, Ok., and failed each time. He says that Mrs. McDavitt did not learn of the present suit, which was filed last August, until October 19. He requested that Mr. Hauschulte inform him of the status of the case.

McDavitt states that he and his wife separated September 26, 1896, and that they were married at Racine, Wis., March 7, 1895. He alleges that she was jealous, quarreled with him and called him bad names and failed to attend to her household duties.

TO HOLD SURETY RESPONSIBLE

Work of Sewer Contractor Is Said to Be Defective.

Sewer Commissioner Valliant has written a letter to A. A. Janis, the Missouri representative of the City Trust, Safe Deposit and Surety Company of New York, notifying him that he will expect the company, as surety of H. Ruecking & Co., sewer contractors, to deposit sufficient money for the repair of defective work done by H. Ruecking & Co., in Fillmore Sewer District No. 2.

Mr. Valliant says that he frequently finds that inferior piping has been used by the contractors, but he never has been compelled to notify the surety of the contractor, as before the contractor always has volunteered to repair the sewer himself. He has written numerous letters in this instance, he says, but the contractor has refused to make the repairs.

To-day he will begin work on the defective sewer and charge the cost of the work against the sureties of H. Ruecking & Co.
