Circulation During October. W. B. Carr, Business Manager of The St. Louis Republic, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of the Daily and Sunday Republic printed during the month of October, 1904, gung. The other ticket has tried and trusted men as nominees and receives the vigorous assistance of other tried and trusted nominees.

merely act for the stockholders or the members, as they do in a private business institution or in a society.

MAKE IT 100,000. One hundred thousand majority for Folk would fitly express Missouri's approval of the proposition that public affairs must be wholly freed from the taint of boodle, and would give an impetus to the idea which will carry it far and forcibly into other Commonwealths.

There are about 700,000 voters in Missouri. At the last presidential election 351,922 ballots were cast by Democrats and 314,092 by Republicans.

RECENT COMMENT. A Tragedy. "Sh! quiet, 'ere 'e comes. I toud yer 'e come by this 'ere lonely spot late of a afternoon pretty reglar—know'd 'em from the gardner's boy. Git close up under the bit o' wall by me. Is she loaded or right?"

Jack Hazle in the Pillory. As the midnight hour approaches, our hobo commences to bethink himself of sleeping quarters, if he contemplates a longer stay.

LIQUES IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS. By comparing the State or city government with their own business or benefit-society matters, citizens will find it much easier to understand the issue in this campaign.

DOES REFORM SUCCEED ITSELF? Residents of large cities recall the assertion of Richard Croker that "reform never succeeds itself."

Apply the illustration to St. Louis. The Republican tickets represent the former management, which was ousted. The Democratic tickets represent integrity, efficiency and loyalty.

There are several versions of the shooting of the Hull fishing fleet, and each is authenticated. If a board of arbitration can form a truthful digest from the varying testimony, it should be possible to make peace universal and perpetual.

Apparently the only smoke consumers in St. Louis at present are the people.

THE TRAMP AT NIGHT. As the midnight hour approaches, our hobo commences to bethink himself of sleeping quarters, if he contemplates a longer stay.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Garrison gave a dinner at the St. Louis Woman's Club last evening, entertaining Miss Elizabeth Robertson, who is to marry their son, Oliver Garrison Jr., on November 16.
