GAY BOY VICTIM OF A BAD RIDE

Eastern Horse, Heavily Played at Odds On, Was Mishandled and Finished Second.

FRONTENAC RAN GOOD RACE.

Beat Matador and Astarita in the Handicap in Rather Handy Fashion—Track Muddy Only on Top.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 27.—In spite of the heavy rainfall of Monday night the Fair Grounds track was in much better condition to-day than it was expected it would be. The track had previously been rolled so hard that the water drained off rapidly, and while it was, of course, heavy on top both the outer and inner positions afforded good footing. The worst part of the going was in the middle of the track, and the severing of horses in the stretch, particularly on the outside to the inside through the deep going, has much to do with the results of the contests.

Astarita, because of her fondness for the mud, figured to be best in the handicap at six and one-half furlongs, and it is a royal price. Frontenac, on his brilliant race of a few days ago, when he was only beaten a nose by Dick Bernard in a fast run of six furlongs, would have held the position of honor in the betting had the track been fast. At Chicago last summer he did not seem to like the mud, but he was not at his best then. He was fancied by his stable connections and backed at 3 to 1. Forehand, a natural mudder, was the good thing played from 8 to 5 to 1.

The firm bottom to the track suited Frontenac. He and Astarita raced behind Brush Up, the pacemaker, to the turn of the back stretch. There Robbins squeezed through with him between Brush Up and the rail, and at the turn for home he was in front. Matador, outrun in the early part, closed fast at the end and Frontenac had to be ridden to win by a length. Astarita tired at the end and finished a poor third, beating Brush Up a length. The latter also succumbed to the early pace. She was interfered with at the furlong pole, else she might have beaten Astarita for third money.

GAY BOY BEATEN BY BAD RIDE.

Crack Eastern horses that come down here with reputations invariably have their measures taken by Western animals held to be little better than selling platers. An example of this was furnished in the second race, a condition affair at a mile, for which Gay Boy, with Powell up, was a 7-to-10 choice. But five started, Orthoepy being among the absentees. St. Tammany and Falerian, each at 4 to 1, were supported in half-hearted fashion as having outside chances to defeat the favorite. That St. Tammany won was due to clever riding on the part of Hennessy, who had the mount, and a very poor effort from Powell on Gay Boy. When the field was straightened for the run down the back stretch, these two went to the front, and the race was between them. Powell kept to the outside, while Hennessy hugged the inside rail, where the going was almost equally good, and in cutting the corners saved half a dozen lengths.

In the run through the stretch Gay Boy came very fast on the extreme outside, but he could not quite get up, St. Tammany winning by a neck. The defeat of the Eastern horse was a blow to speculators, as he looked to far outclass his field and was heavily played. With a good ride he could not have lost.

THREE BOXERS AND MANAGER BARRED FROM WEST END CLUB

Accusation That Regan and Monte Attell Agreed, in Secret, to a Drawn Verdict if Both Were on Their Feet at the End of Fifteen Rounds Resulted in Barring of This Pair, Abe Attell, Referee Tom Smith and Several Others.

Following an accusation by the club management that Abe and Monte Attell entered into an agreement in Monte's first battle with Johnny Regan to a drawn verdict if both men were on their feet at the end of fifteen rounds, the trio of pugilists have been suspended by the West End Club. Referee Tom Smith and Manager John Reid are also included in the ban.

The fight in which Attell was to have met Jimmy Walsh was also canceled and several hangers-on about the institution were warned to stay away. The suspension is indefinite, according to the order. This is the first time on record in which such sweeping action has been taken by a boxing club.

Manager Charley Haughton of the West End Club stated yesterday that an admission had been obtained from both Abe Attell and from the Regan faction that the men had met in a room and discussed the verdict in advance. This was the contest fought December 15, and Haughton says that he warned Attell between the sixth and seventh rounds to go in and fight and not to keep hitting with one glove open.

He also states that he interviewed Tom Smith, the referee, after that bout and that the latter admitted having approached by both factions and having kept the fact secret. Smith claimed, however, that he had no intention of living up to any such agreement, and stated to both men that he would hand down a draw only if the men fought to an even break.

When they failed to do this, in Smith's estimation, he claims that he gave the verdict to Attell. Haughton claimed that all the men admitted the facts when confronted with proofs, but that one stated that "it didn't hurt anything and that there was no harm in getting some sucker money."

"Putting on the first fight made me suspicious," said Haughton last night, "and I overheard two attempts by the Attell party to get down money on Monte, both men attempting the wager offering to give 2 to 1 against Regan if they were allowed to put down the whole amount in case of a draw. This seemed so absurd to me that I watched the fight carefully, and my warning to Attell was the result. He cut loose after that, and the remaining rounds of the bout appeared to be fought on their merits.

NO HARM WAS DONE.

"I was dissatisfied with the looks of the affair and cornered Abe Attell on the point. He finally admitted that he had planned with the Regan party, but insisted that no harm was done. Overhearing John Reid talking angrily about Tom Smith for what he had done, I managed to get an admission from him that the agreement was for a draw if both men were on their feet at the end of the fifteenth round.

"Tom Smith then made his statement about apparently agreeing to this point, but about refusing to live up to it. I said nothing more about it, but ordered the men to get ready for a return match and notified all parties that they would be watched carefully. Had there been the faintest sign of faking I would have turned over the men's share of the purse to some charitable institution.

"I believe this last fight was conducted without any agreement between the men and I think it was contested on its merits. After holding a meeting of directors today and getting all the evidence we could we finally decided to bar the entire outfit from the club.

"This has been done. The Walsh-Attell fight, set for January 5, is called off in consequence, but we will try and get some good man to appear as an opponent for Walsh on that day."

Haughton also stated that facts connected with the appearance of Ralph Worthington here made him suspicious. A fighter of the same name appeared at New Orleans the same evening. Exactly which one was the genuine fighter no one seems to know.

Haughton says that Attell claimed that the "Worthington" who appeared here was not the genuine fighter of that name. This "Worthington" had been working at the Regan training camp.

As a result of the whole affair, no further bout is in prospect for this week, although an effort will be made to pull off another go January 5.

REID DENIES STORY OF FIGHT AGREEMENT.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 27.—Johnny Reid, manager of Johnny Regan, departed late to-night for St. Louis to attend to fighting matters. He said, before taking a train, that the whole report of the alleged agreement for a draw between Regan and Attell was a fabrication, and there was absolutely nothing to the story.

Ike Bloom, manager of Abe and Monte Attell, also said he knew nothing of the story.

ABE ATTELL MAKES STATEMENT.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 27.—Abe Attell tonight denied the charge that he and his brother Monte had entered into an agreement with Johnny Regan to fight a draw battle on December 15. Attell said: "Your information is the first news I have received of the action of the West End Club in barring my brother and myself. I can't see why we should be charged with making an agreement for a draw fight, when Monte won all three battles with Regan, the first in Chicago, the second and third in St. Louis on the 15th and 23d of December. The charge is false. I shall try to prove it false, so that we can be reinstated, if indeed we have been barred. Monte is scheduled for a match at the West End Club with Jimmy Walsh January 5."

BURKETT TRADED TO BOSTON TEAM

Hedges Secures George Stone and Bonus of Cash in Exchange for Fielder.

NEWCOMER A GREAT BATSMAN.

Led the American Association and Should Prove a Valuable Man for the Browns.

The St. Louis club yesterday consummated a deal whereby Jesse Burkett, the Browns' left fielder, was transferred to Boston for George Stone and a cash consideration.

Stone is declared to be a wonderful ball player. Last year he led the American Association in batting and his performance with the willow was of the Lajoie order.

As far back as three months ago it was known that there was a deal on foot for an exchange of Burkett for Stone.

McAleer, when approached on the subject, admitted that such a deal was on before the close of the season, but asked that nothing be said about the matter, as it might injure the deal.

Stone is a hard-hitting good player in Burkett's class, but he led the local team, and his fielding was very good.

Stone is said to be a very fast man on the sacks, and this, coupled with his ability to hit, makes him a valuable addition to the local team.

Just how much cash the local team secured as a bonus is not known, but it is understood that only a few hundred dollars of Taylor's money was thrown in to balance the scales.

Stone played with the Milwaukee team last year. He is a left-hand hitter. He is of stocky build, and as he is still a youngster he should prove serviceable for St. Louis for the next five years.

Burkett has played with St. Louis ever since the American League team was installed here.

Previously to that time he played with the Cardinals, but jumped to the American League when Hedges got a team in St. Louis.

The latest report in local baseball circles is that Owner John I. Taylor of Boston is after Pitcher Fred Glade of the Browns.

According to the fans of that city, and some of the critics, Taylor has made an offer to Hedges for his star pitcher.

When asked about the matter Hedges declared yesterday that Boston had no chance to secure Glade.

"I am in the market to buy good ball players, not to sell them," declared Hedges. "Glade is not for sale. He is a star and I want to hold him. I wish I could secure a couple more players like him."

There is hardly any doubt that Taylor did make an offer for Glade, but his chances for securing him are small. Hedges is in earnest in his desire to build up a pennant winner, and while he would not state what Taylor offered for Glade it is understood that the owner of the St. Louis American turned down a five-figure offer for the twirler.

Fred Tenney and the triumvirs who own the Boston Nationals are having trouble. Tenney wants more money to manage the team than the triumvirs feel justified in paying. Last season Fred secured 4,200, but it is understood that this war-time salary has been slashed.

The Boston fans want Tenney, and it is believed that a compromise will be effected on the salary question, and that Fred Tenney will steer the Boston Nationals next season.

Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburg team, has announced that he will abandon Hot Springs as a training place and take his lot of one-time champions to West Baden for "prepping."

Pitcher Bill Milligan is out with the statement that he will not play with Providence next season. He declares that he will return to New York.

Low McAllister of the Buffalo club, formerly a Detroit player, has been secured to coach the University of Michigan baseball squad.

Norwood Gibson is the latest one of the Boston champions to put his signature to a contract, this time for two years.

Christie Mathewson, the "Giants'" big twirler, has not yet sent in his contract to Manager McGraw. The players that have not yet signed up with New York for next season, besides Mathewson, are Donlin, Ames, Wiltse and McGann. It is rumored that Mathewson is anxious to secure a franchise in Pennsylvania and branch out as a magnate.

Ries Tenpin League.

The Sports beat the Brokers in their tenpin match on the Ries alleys last night, taking the three games. Rechnesser of the winning team was high man, with 180 average.

The Bankers won the three games from the Merchants on the Ries alleys last night. A 168-average by McKay of the losers was the highest individual score.

Grand Tenpin League.

The Elks took the odd game from the Actors on the Grand alleys last night. Bryant of the losing team was high man, with an average of 174, while Lockwood of the winning five rolled an average of 171.

Reasons Why We Don't Ask for Money

Until Our Patients Are Cured to Stay Cured.

DR. MEYERS' STAFF.

FIRST—We have confidence in our ability to cure all cases coming under the head of our specialty, which is confined exclusively to the diseases and disorders of MEN ONLY.

SECOND—We never accept a case until we have made a thorough examination and feel confident we can cure it.

THIRD—We do not believe a physician is entitled to his fee until he has proven to the satisfaction of the patient that he can cure him.

FOURTH—Our fee is so small, being only $12.50, that we believe any honest man will pay it after he is cured.

FIFTH—There are so many impostors and unreliable so-called specialists that we believe our methods will in time prove our superiority and hence be the more profitable.

SIXTH—Our enormous practice, built up on these lines, proves the fact of all our statements.

SEVENTH—Should a patient pay us in advance he might quit treatment before permanently cured, and our reputation would be thus jeopardized.

EIGHTH—Should a few dishonest patients refuse to pay after they are cured the loss would be only $12.50 each, and we could stand it with more fortitude than if it were a big fee.

NINTH—Many honest men without ready money might otherwise neglect themselves and thus become incurable, while our Not-a-dollar-until-cured motto enables them to take advantage of our special skill and pay at their leisure.

TENTH—Last but not least, we desire to reach the poor as well as the rich man, and by making our fee only $12.50, payable on such easy terms, we thereby increase our business and secure lasting gratitude and testimonials from thousands who would otherwise remain afflicted if it were not for this liberal offer.

All of the above reasons we are willing to verify and practically demonstrate to the most skeptical. Our offer is to you, to everyone, only $12.50 for a cure, payable at your convenience, in such sums as you can spare. Could an offer be more generous? It savors of honesty. It is honest. No matter what your trouble is—if you suffer from neglect, for want of money or from unskilful practice—here is an opportunity to get the services of five skilled specialists, every one a graduate physician, with years of ripe experience in treating complicated and special disorders of men only. It will cost nothing to talk with us, and may be the means of restoring you to health and happiness. Why not call to-day? Our offices are very private. You see only the doctor. If you cannot call, write for blanks, as we extend the same liberal offer to those who cannot call. In fact, there is no excuse for being disordered or sick while this liberal offer remains. It is a holiday gift of priceless value, within the reach of all. Remember, only $12.50 for any disease, except contagious blood poison, which is the only disease we ask $25.00 for a cure.

SETTLE NELSON-MURPHY CASE.

Pugilist and Manager Divide Money in Court.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 27.—Battling Nelson and his manager, Theodore Murphy, who was arrested at Stockton a few days ago on a charge of embezzling the bulk of the pugilist's two latest contests, appeared arm in arm to-day before Police Judge Cabrinnise.

Eddie Santry, also under arrest on a similar charge, was with them.

Nelson took the stand and declared the arrests were made while he was laboring under a misapprehension of facts, and said he did not desire to prosecute anybody.

The money in the property clerk's hands, was then produced, Nelson receiving $6,501 and Murphy $2,166, this division being according to the manager's accounts.

The cases were then dismissed and the trio left the courtroom.

A preliminary has been arranged between Cotton Billiter, a welter weight of St. Louis, and Battling Murphy, a coal miner of Collinsville, who has achieved local success as a boxer. The entertainment will end with a battle royal between five negroes. The show is carded to start at 8:45 p. m.
