

The Home of Gold.
Las Cruces Republican.

A story about which there is a fascination which it is impossible to resist, when you hear men tell it, is that of the "Home of Gold." Somewhere in Southwestern New Mexico, in the Sierra Madre, it is enclosed in high rocky walls and accessible only by a secret passage, which is known to but few, in this extraordinary place. It is about ten acres in extent, has running through it a stream, which waters it thoroughly and makes it a perfect paradise, with its exquisite flowers and beautiful trees. In it are thousands of birds of the most beautiful plumage. Running across it is a ledge of pure gold about thirty feet wide, which glistens in the sunlight like a great golden belt. The stream crosses this ledge and, as it runs, murmurs around blocks of yellow metal as other streams do around pebbles. The ledge of gold is supposed to be solid gold and to run down to the centre of the earth. The legend is of Indian origin and around it cluster a number of Indian stories, in which the name of the ill-fated Montezuma occurs frequently. The descendants of the Aztecs believe firmly that the day will come when Montezuma will return and free them from the dominion of the descendants of the Conquistadores. They believe that the money necessary for this work will be taken from the Medre 'Ore. The secret into the entrance into the valley is carefully guarded by a tribe of Indians living near it, and among them it is only communicated to the oldest men, amid the solemn ceremonies of the medicine lodge. Having such a story to work upon there is little wonder that the vivid imagination of Mexicans should have built upon it tales of men who have found this wonderful place. One is that a certain Jose Alvarez, while wandering through the mountain in search of game, saw the valley from the top of the wall. Finding he had no hope to enter by climbing down, he took up his abode with the Indians who guard the canyon leading into it. The daughter of the chief fell in love with him and betrayed the secret to him. Exactly how she found it out they do not tell. Having been shown the entrance, Jose went in and would possibly have gotten away with some of the gold had he not weighed himself down to such an extent that he could not get up the declivity at the lower end of the passage. He was discovered and the Indians sacrificed him on the golden ledge with all the terrible ceremonies of the Aztec. She, in despair at losing herself from the high wall valley below. Hundreds of years have passed since that day, and it is scarcely necessary to say that the gold is still there.

A Fatal Affray
Sedalia Democrat.

From a gentleman from the Democrat learns of a which took place at that Saturday night. The parties related are as follows: heavy set man named B who is a brick moulder visited Stephens' saloon night, having in his possession of boxing gloves which he engaged in a play boxing with various parties. It was not long, however, drink or other cause, he proceeded to knock the body who came in his rear bare fists. Among the grass, or rather floor, was man named Freeman Burden, who was knocked down Freeman sprang to his feet, drew a revolver and fired at Burden, who was in the act of striking Burden, after being stable several other parties and the floor and died almost Burden and his brother were in jail. Sunday an inquest on the body of Burden rendered that he came to from a knife wound in the ceived at the hand of Freeman, and that Chas. Burden, necessary thereto. On a hearing yesterday the Bur committed to jail to await charge of murder in the first degree.

A striking example of the country printing office was the Messenger office receiving mysterious dangers which its machinery, ooze from lie in water in its paste scintillates from the editor Mr. Horace Edmonds, thirteen, has long had a on this office for wet days, and particularly, days. On Saturday he customary visit, and while being made ready on the cautiously placed his hand impression arm, where it and roller arms, which about one-quarter of an

Horace Edmonds, colored, stood upon the manner, but he flew, shedding blood, profanity and high ever jump. He now app the lower extremity of his limb looking much like a su ham in white canvas jacket.

And in this connection add a word of solemn warn boys who are apt to make rendezvous of the country some solemn facts not given away by the profession has become the adulteration metal with strychnine an green that to exposed you deadener. To Check Diarrhoea.
Diarrhoea is a complaint that the human family suffers more from at this time of the year than any other, and should be treated very carefully in order to restore the bowels to their proper strength. There is a wine in New Jersey and sold by our druggists, called Speer's Port Grape Wine, which is being used very successfully in diarrhoea cases. In fact, it is conceded by chemists to contain just such properties as gradually check the fermenting in the bowels and add tone and vigor to the system, so as to withstand the miasmatic climate against these prevailing complaints. The wine is rich in body and is an excellent tonic, keeping the functions of the bowels in their proper condition.—(Evening Post.)

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS

The majority of the ills of the human body arise from a derangement of the liver, affecting both the stomach and bowels. In order to effect a cure, it is necessary to remove the cause. Irrigation and Singh's action of the bowels, the liver, sickness at the stomach, Pain in the back and loins, etc., indicate that the liver is at fault, and that nature requires assistance to enable this organ to throw off its impurities.

Prickly Ash Bitters are especially recommended for this purpose. They are mild in their action and effect as a cure; are pleasant to the taste and taken easily by both children and adults. Taken according to directions, they are a safe and pleasant cure for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Habitual Constipation, Diseases of the Kidneys, etc., etc. As a Blood Purifier they are superior to any other medicine; cleansing the system thoroughly, and imparting new life and energy to the invalid. It is a medicine and not an intoxicating beverage.

GENTLEMEN: I have used Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic in my practice, and in an experience of twenty-five years in medicine, have never found anything to give the results that Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic does. In many cases of Nervous Prostration, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, and an impoverished condition of the blood, this peerless remedy has in my hands, made some wonderful cures. Cases that have baffled some of our most eminent physicians, have yielded to this great and incomparable remedy. I prescribe it in preference to any iron preparation made. In fact, such a compound as Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic is a necessity in my practice.
