FIFTEEN YEARS A BLANK.

A Southern Gentleman Loses Himself in 1868 and Finds Himself in 1882.

A Curious Case of Walter Philbrooks—A Lamentable Relapse the Result of Yielding to Intoxicants.

From the Globe-Democrat.

Cases are numberless wherein persons have suddenly disappeared and then been found in some locality more or less distant without being able to tell how they came there. The temporary suspension of the memory is not an unfrequent failing but such an illustration of it as became known at the city hospital yesterday is remarkable. In February 1881, a man named Walter Philbrooks was picked up by the police, and, being unable to give an account of himself, he was sent to the insane asylum and placed in care of Dr. Howard. He labored under the hallucination that he was a Harve. France en route to London. He could give no account of anything that had taken place since 1867 but was familiar with events that had occurred prior to that time. He had been a soldier in the Confederate army from Alabama and had resided near Mobile. Being educated and accomplished he soon enlisted the sympathy of several parties, who proceded to investigate his antecedents. It was discovered that in 1867 he left Mobile and sailed for Harve. He was supposed to have returned to the United States, but little information was obtained concerning him. When he left Mobile he had a sister residing near that city. It was discovered that she now lived in New York, and a correspondence took place between her and the authorities. By careful attention on the part of the physicians at the asylum, after a year's treatment Philbrook's mind was considered restored. The veil of fifteen years was gradually lifted. Being pressed with his abilities the health commissioner gave him a situation as book-keeper in one of the institutions which position he held for six months. It was then discovered that he had a great liking for intoxicants. He was found intoxicated on several occasions and at length he was relieved of his position. At that time there were no symptions of insanity about him. Subsequently he was discovered in an inebriated condition and a few davs ago was sent to the city hospital to be treated for alcoholism. He was sobered up but it was the

SOBRINESS OF INSANITY.

After the effects of alcoholism had been removed it was discovered that he no longer recognized anyone about the hospital, many of the officers of which he had previously been well acquainted with. Health commissioner Francis was informed of the matter, and called at the city hospital to see him. "How are you?" said the commissioner. Philbrooks appeared surprised, and very courteously informed the Commissioner that there must be a mistake somewhere, that he did not know him. Philbrooks was then asked where he was, and replied that he was "at this hotel in Harve awaiting for a ship to take him to London." He was informed that a communication had just been received from his sister in New York asking about him. He replied that it all was a mistake; that he had no sister in New York; that she resided in Mobile. It was then discovered that he had no more recollection or knowledge of anything that had taken place since 1867, and located his sister at Mobile, where he left her when he sailed for Harve. He was virtually in the same condition he was when sent to the asylum in February, 1881. He was again forwarded to the asylum, and placed in care of Dr. Howard.

THE LIVER AND ITS FUNCTIONS.

It has become a well established fact that the larger portion of diseases to which the human family is subject arise in the first place from some derangement of the Liver. This organ is not only the largest, but at the same time one of the most important. The venous blood, on its return to the heart, passes through this organ, and in its passage the impurities, as also the secretions which are necessary for digestion as well as for a cathartic to assist in the removal of waste material &c. are eliminated. From this it is easily seen that the Liver is liable to get out of order to a greater or less extent, and when this occurs it is impossible for it to properly fulfil its office of removing all objectionable matter from the blood, but allows it to pass through, carrying with it the poisons of which it should have been relieved.

With impure blood the whole system becomes affected, and no organ can properly perform its function unless it is supplied with PURE BLOOD to maintain its strength. So the Liver becomes all important, and when one has the feeling of being continually tired, worn out, is constipated, with tendency to Piles, Headache, Sick Stomach, Sallow Complexion, Eruptions of Skin, etc., they may be sure that the Liver is out of order, and a remedy is required to cause nature in relieving itself of all accumulations, and restore it to its original Strength and Vigor. For all the complaints of this kind there is no medicine that equals

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS is a medicine of rare merit, and as an intoxicating beverage, and being purely vegetable in its composition can be used at all times with beneficial results. It is not claimed as a cure-all, but for derangements of the organs mentioned, it is a specific and as a BLOOD PURIFIER ranks above all other preparations. Ask your druggist for it, and give it a fair trial. If he has none on hand, ask that it be ordered for you.

D! HARTER'S IRON TONIC.

A combination of Protoxide of Iron, Peruvian Bark and Phosphorus in a palatable form. The only preparation of iron that will not blacken the teeth, so characteristic of other iron preparations.

GENTLEMEN: I have used DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC in my practice, and in an experience of twenty-five years in medicine, have never found anything to give the results that DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC does. In many cases of Nervous Prostration, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, and an impoverished condition of the blood, this peerless remedy, has in my hands, made some wonderful cures. Cases that have baffled some of our most eminent physicians, have yielded to this great and incomparable remedy. I prescribe it in preference to any iron preparation made. In fact, such a compound as DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC is a necessity in my practice. DR. ROBERT SAMUELS,
