A WILD WOMAN OF THE WOODS.

Terror Inspired in North Carolina By a Baby-Eating Negress—Attempts to Capture Her.

Special Dispatch to the Phil, Times.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 19.—For months past there have been rumors of a terrible apparition which has frightened all the women and children in Clear Creek township. The women say that for two weeks they have been subject to terrifying visits, in the absence of their husbands, from a creature like a shiny black negress, with long hair and gleaming eyes. She asks in hardly distinguishable gibberish for a baby to eat, and makes efforts to get hold of the children. The men, getting tired of the fears of their wives, determined to try to catch the creature, and for the last week crowds of farmers have been daily and nightly chasing her, without success. The first effort to catch her was made a week ago by John Roberts, a blacksmith. The wild creature had appeared several times at a fire which it was the habit of Cortey Moore, colored, of the neighborhood, to light after dark in the yard of his house for the preperation of his meals. Roberts was put there to watch for her and she appeared even before the flames were well kindled. She presented such a wild look in the half light and asked for food in such a wild fashion that Roberts was demoralized. He recovered however, made an outcry and attempted to sieze the woman, but she slipped through his hands and disappared in the dark shadows of the woods. Tuesday morning Mannar Stephen Cawell caught sight of the creature and chased her across an open field. He was badly hurt in his efforts to keep up with her, and reported that she outran a buck and cleared four corn rows at a leap. That same night she was again enticed from the gloom of the woods by the kindling of a fire and was chased by thirty men, without success. Capt. Marsh Allen later in the day met her in the neighborhood, with her face torn and bleeding and a long bloody knife in har hand. The creature was naked and so unearthly and terrible looking to him that he says he is not sure it is a human being. Her hair reached almost to her feet, but was kinky like that of the African. It is not mere fright that has caused the country people to organize in their attempts to catch the creature which has been living in the forests and swamps for a year or more. Some months ago, it is reported, an infant was spirited away from its parents' yard while they were in the cornfield and was never heard from, and the disappearance was from that section of the country in which the wild woman has been seen, and mothers, white and black, are in terror for fear their little ones may also become food for the cannibal negress. Yesterday the farmers, some mounted and others on foot, assembled for the purpose of surrounding a swamp in which the creature is known to be hid. There were four hundred men banded together for the chase. At first it was attempted to run her down with bloodhounds, bnt they refused to chase her, which deepened the superstitious feeling with which the men as well as the women of the community began to regard her. The men then made the attempt to catch her, but without success. The excitement among the negroes and simple country folks is intense. By the more intelligent farmers from that section the theory is advanced that the creature is some half-witted woman, who has been so long hunted down that she lives in terror of all human beings, and therefore lives like an animal in the forest, her necessities having forced her to eat anything she can get, including even human flesh.

A Poker-Playing Millionaire.

A millionaire in New York who dispenses princely hospitality, has a great liking for Poker. One evening while playing with a foreign Minister, the game along at midnight all at once became exciting. The deal giving the millionaire the eight, nine and ten and jack of hearts. He discarded a spade and got the queen of hearts. The Minister called for two card. He had already three kings, and in the draw got the fourth. Quietly the players began to bet. The pile amounted at last to $600,000, when the millionaire called his opponent. When the Minister laid down his four kings the banker put his straight flush beside them without a word. The Minister seemed a little surprised, but merely said: "Very good the; the money is yours." He had lost $300,000, but it did not sour him a bit. The game was not resumed, but he talked as pleasantly as if he had won a fortune instead of losing one. The banker seemed embarassed, and his friends who had dropped out of the game, were uncomfortable. He decided on the spot that it would not do to have any more poker-playing in his house. It might be said that he drew his friends there to fleece them. He still plays a little game now and then, but only at the club.—N. Y. Post.

Here is an account of an American invention, printed in the London Standard—just the thing for girls who like dancing for dancing's sake. The "irreproachable waltzer" is a stout frame of light wood, of about five feet in height, and remotely resembling an old-fashioned kite frame. At the top of the frame is a padded "rest" for the lady's hand, and at about the middle of the frame is a jointed arm, capable of being placed around a young lady's waist and securely fastened in that position with a thumb screw. The frame has two feet, furnished with castors, each one of which has a universal joint, so that it can turn freely in any direction. The whole affair weighs only five pounds, and it is made to fold together, so that a lady can carry it in her hand, either with or without a shawl strap.

Free of Cost.

D. HARTER'S IRON TONIC

A combination of Protoxide of Iron, Peruvian Bark and Phosphorus in a palatable form. The only preparation of iron that will not blacken the teeth, so characteristic of other iron preparations.

GENTLEMEN: I have used DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC in my practice, and in an experience of twenty-five years in medicine, have never found anything to give the results that DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC does. In many cases of Nervous Prostration, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, and an impoverished condition of the blood, this peerless remedy, has in my hands, made some wonderful cures. Cases that have baffled some of our most eminent physicians, have yielded to this great and incomparable remedy. I prescribe it in preference to any iron preparation made. In fact, such a compound as DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC is a necessity in my practice. DR. ROBERT SAMUELS,
ST. LOUIS, MO., NOV. 29th, 1881. 3104 Wash Avenue.

It gives color to the blood, natural healthful tone to the digestive organs and nervous system, making it applicable to General Debility, Loss of Appetite, Prostration of Vital Powers and Impotence.
