Father, Mother, and Three Sisters Dead.

Mr. David Claypool, formerly Sergeant-Arms of the New Jersey Senate, and now Notary Public at Cedarville, Cumberland Co., N. J., makes the following startling statement: "My father, mother, and three sisters all died with consumption, and my lungs were so weak I raised blood. Nobody thought I could live. My work (ship-smithing) was very straining on me with my weak constitution, and I was rapidly going to the grave. While in this condition I commenced using Mishler's Herb Bitters, and it saved my life. Because it was so difficult to get it in this little place, and I had improved so much, I stopped taking it for a time, and the result is that I have commenced going rapidly down hill again.
Somehow, Mishler's Herb Bitters gives appetite and strengthens and builds me up as nothing else does, and I must have a dozen bottles at once. Use this communication as you please, and if any one wants to be convinced of its truth, let them write me and I will make affidavit to it, for I owe my life to Mishler's Herb Bitters."

The secret of the almost invariable relief and cure of consumption, dysentery, diarrhoea, dyspepsia, indigestion, kidney and liver complaints, when Mishler's Herb Bitters is used, is that it contains simple harmless, and yet powerful ingredients that act on the blood, kidneys, and liver and through them strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Purely vegetable in its composition; prepared by a regular physician; a standard medicinal preparation; endorsed by physicians and druggists. These are four strong points in favor of Mishler's Herb Bitters. Mishler's Her Bitters is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per large bottle, 6 bottles for $5.00.
Ask your druggist for "Mishler's Herb Bitters."
If he does not keep it, do not take anything else, I will send you a postal card to MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS, 520 Commerce Street, Philadelphia.

How Watch Cases are Made.

Most persons have an ambition to carry a gold watch case, and yet few people know how a watch case is made, or the vast difference in the quality of them. In a GOLD WATCH CASE, aside from the necessary thickness for engraving and polishing, a large proportion of the metal is needed only to stiffen and hold the engraved portions in place, and supply strength. The surplus is not only needless, but undesirable, because gold is a soft metal and cannot furnish the stiffness, strength and elasticity necessary to make the case permanently strong and elastic. The perfect watch case must combine gold with some metal that will supply that which the gold is deficient. This has been accomplished by the James Bond & Son's Watch Case, which saves the weight of gold, and increases the STRENGTH of the case, and at the same time reduces the cost of the watch.

Send 2 cent stamp to J. G. Bond & Son, Watch Case Factory, Philadelphia, Pa., for catalog and list of prices (showing how James Bond & Son's Watch Case is made).

Killed While Resisting Arrest.

Moberly, Mo., Sept. 18.—Officer Butler, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, noticed a suspicious looking negro lurking behind Hegarty Bros. store and he attempted to take him into custody. The negro showed fight, and managed to take the officer's club away from him and dealt him a blow over the left eye.
The officer fell and they both clinched. The negro got Butler's hand in his mouth and nearly chewed it to pieces. Finally getting separated from the negro, Butler called upon him to surrender, and fired a shot in the air to intimidate him. Not heeding this, Butler fired at him the bullet passing through the abdomen and wounding him fatally. The negro, it seems, had come in from Kansas City about 2 a. m. on a freight train and, according to his story, not having any money, was looking for a nice, quiet place to sit down. His name is Henry Holmes, and the address on a letter he had showed him to have resided at No. 576 Grand avenue, Kansas City, Mo. He was on his way to Washington, D. C. where his mother resides. He suffered intense misery during the day, and died at 6:15 yesterday evening.

Officer Dick Butler, who did the shooting, has been on the Moberly police force for a long time, and is known as a man who submits to more abuse from obstreperous persons than any officer on the force. No blame attaches to him in the affair, as it was purely a case of self-defence.
Butler was badly used up, but his injuries are not fatal.

Rush Hill, Mo., July 21st, 1885.—After suffering with the toothache and neuralgia for three successive days I was advised to try Merrell's Penetrating Oil and after using one application I got immediate relief. I would not be without it.
Respectfully, Mrs. Berie Bick.

Cured by Faith Alone.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 18.—F or the past year or more Miss Sallie McDonald of Boyle county, Ky., has been afflicted with spinal compound and has been bedridden during the whole time. Last Sunday she was visited by the Rev. Mr. Burchfield of Cincinnati, who prayed with her and received from her assurance that she had faith that God could and would restore her to health.
Mr. Burchfield placed his hands upon her head and she arose perfectly restored. Up to this time she has suffered no relapse and says she has no apprehension that she will.
Miss McDonald is a daughter of Jesse McDonald, a respected citizen of this county, and is herself a perfectly reliable lady.

Benj. F. Butler has an article in the North American Review on "Vice-Presidential Politics in 1864." Chase and Lincoln were working for the presidential nomination and Butler tells how friends of each candidate endeavored to lure him from the glories of a department command to take second place on the ticket.
He declined both offers, assigning among other reasons, that he was only 45 years old; that to be elected would condemn him to listen to stupid debates in which he could take no part; and that at the end of the four years, because of the exalted position he had held, he would not be permitted to go on with his profession. He also threw in a parenthesis to the effect that nowadays no vice-president is ever elected president.
To the dismay of all, no doubt, he announced his ultimatum: "I will not be a candidate for any elective office until this war is over." Had it not been for this magazine article the world might never have known what inducements were offered by the anxious Washington authorities to tempt Gen. Butler out of the army.

Captured at Great Sacrifice.

A few days ago, Abner Aldrich, a man of about 45 years of age, with his wife and two children, one of them a young man of about 20, live on a farm about eight miles northeast of Ionia, Mich., and one mile east of Collins Station, on the Detroit, Lansing & Northern railroad.
The family have been for years, the terror of the neighborhood where they reside. Aldrich has been arrested for assault and threats against life, time without number, and never without cause. Some time since, a judgement was obtained against him in a justice's court in Portland, but no officer there would attempt the collection, so it was brought to Ionia and given to Constable Perry Chapman, with a warning to take help with him and look out for himself.
He took with him George Brady and W. A. Ainsley of Ionia and went out there.

They found Aldrich and his 20-year-old son loading wheat into some bags. Chapman stepped up to the wagon where Aldrich was and said he was an officer and had an execution Aldrich caught up an ax lying in the wagon and raised it to strike, when Chapman covered him with his revolver and at its muzzle compelled him to leave the wagon, and still covering him, told the men to seize him, but before they could do so the young man had got a rifle and opened fire on Chapman and the woman was coming with an ax. Young Aldrich fired at Chapman but missed him, and he turned and shot at young Aldrich, who recovering a repeating Spencer carbine, opened fire from the house. Brady fell at the third shot, but was helped away by Mr.
Ainsley.

Chapman was uninjured, but finding himself alone, he retreated.
Ainsley was but slightly injured, but Brady is in a precarious condition.
His right arm was amputated late in the afternoon, and he is doing as well as could be expected. A warrant was issued for the Aldrichs, the two men and the woman, and the sheriff and four officers went out to serve it. After holding the officers off with rifles they finally yielded and at midnight were lodged in jail.
They still kept their guns and more trouble was expected. The house where the Aldrichs live is boarded up and the walls pierced for rifle shootings on the plan of a frontier fort and is nearly as strong. The family are armed with repeating rifles and they have for years kept off officers on this plan.

Prairie Fires.

The vast plains of Dakota are now being swept by the usual autumn fires. These fires are often kindled by careless movers, but sometimes by rascals, who thus seek to destroy or drive away parties who have become obnoxious to them. The destruction is very great every season, but unusually so this fall. Between Bismark and Fargo alone it is said the loss is already several hundred thousands of dollars. Hundreds of farmers have been swept clean of buildings, stock and crops, and the owners are left with nothing but the bare ground. It is believed that many families have perished in the flames. Take whatever precautions they may, it is extremely difficult to guard against such disasters. Plowing around a farm does little good.
The winds bear the burning tumble weeds to immense distances, and no power can stop them. As a result of these Dakota fires there is likely to be an unusual amount of suffering among the people of that region during the winter now near at hand.
They will need assistance, and it should be given them generously by those who are blessed with abundance.—St. Joe Gazette.

Reil got the Indians into his rebellion by promising that whisky should soon sell for a dollar a barrel.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, apothecary dealer of Chartanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs and tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery.
