He had been there, and knew whereof he spoke. When Tom Reed was once asked what the rules of the house were for, anyway, he promptly replied that they were to "prevent legislation."

There is to be a new republican newspaper started in Washington. There will be an excellent opportunity offered again for some one to put in money that will come out again!

Sophia's Rise.
An infoensive old gentleman named SIMEON DINWIDDLE, a deacon residing in the West End, created quite a sensation the other morning by shouting at the top of his voice, So-PHIA! that being the name of his daughter, who was at a near neighbor's, reading the Sedalia Weekly Bazaar, viewing its character illustrations. Neither of the persons were arrested, as it was found by the authorities, on examination, that it was no violation of law to either shout or read a paper published for the people now on earth.
The Sedalia Weekly Bazaar can be had for $1.00 per annum. Address J. WEST GOODWIN, Sedalia, Mo.

You do not, any of you, advertise enough. You ought to use printer's ink every day. You are asleep and want your business to run itself. Standing advertisements in the paper command confidence. The man who for a year lives in one community and leads a reputable life, even though he be of moderate ability, will grow in the confidence and esteem of his fellows. On the same principle a newspaper advertisement becomes familiar to the eyes of the readers.
It may be seldom read, still it makes the name and business of the man familiar, and its presence in the columns of a paper inspires confidence in the stability of his enterprise.

Ingalls View of Tariff Legislation.
Washington, Dec. 10.—Speaking of the senate substitute tariff bill, senator Ingalls said yesterday:
There is no doubt that the bill will pass the senate, although it will be amended, I think, in accordance with the wishes of the west. I think the lumber schedule will be modified and the iron schedule will be reduced. The west will also ask a modification of the sugar schedule. We will want a bounty equivalent to the reduction made by the bill. With the 50 per cent reduction which it is now proposed to make, a cent a pound will be sufficient protection to this young industry. Even with this bounty the cost of sugar to the people will be greatly reduced, for we cannot hope, for the present at least, to supply a very large proportion of the sugar consumed in this country.

Plenty of six per cent money to loan. Privilege of paying part or all at any time before maturity and stop interest.

A Beer Selling Drug Clerks Prison Prospect.
Wichita, Kas., Dec. 10.—The case of Stewart the drug clerk who was sent to jail for seventeen years for selling liquor, has been revived by rearrest of Stewart upon the demand of Assistant Attorney General Hallowell. Stewart was released by the government after serving six months of his sentence. The attorney general attempted to collect his fines and cost, about $50,000 by selling the building in which the liquor was sold. Failing in this he had Stewart rearrested upon the old complaint. As the prisoner is a poor man he has a good prospect of remaining in jail if not again released by executive power.
