DR. WOOD'S GIFT.
 He Donates $50,000 Worth of Property to the Fulton Orphan's Home

K. C. Star.
 Dr. W. S. Wood and wife, of this city, who are now recuperating in Florida for the benefit of their father's health, have just made a magnificent donation to the female orphan school of the Christian church, located at Fulton, Mo. Rev. Dr. T. F. Haley, their friend and pastor, yesterday received from them a warranty deed to the McDowell block on Main street. The property is valued at $50,000, and is deeded to the endowment fund of the orphan school.

The McDowell block is a three story brick building with a stone front. It has been rented for $5,000 a year. Dr. Woods paid $50,000 for the property in 1888 and it is considered very cheap at that figure.

The orphan school now has an endowment of $70,000. It can accommodate about 200 girls and is now caring for 160. The people of Fulton gave $56,000 to the institution and the building and grounds cost $15,000. The school was opened September, 1890. Dr. Woods' gift is a handsome and timely one in behalf of a worthy enterprise.

I had a severe attack of catarrh and became so deaf that I could not hear common conversation. I suffered terribly from roaring in my head. I procured a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and in three weeks could hear as well as I ever could, and now I say to all who are afflicted with the worst of disease, catarrh take Ely's Cream Balm and be cured. It is worth $1,000 to any man, woman or child suffering from catarrh.

It Worked All Right.
 St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 27.—This afternoon at 4 o'clock Paul Caron, walked into A. J. Levin's pawnshop on Edmond street and asked to look at a revolver. He was shown one of the bulldog pattern with four empty chambers. He agreed to purchase on condition that all of the chambers be loaded. Levin put in the cartridges and then Caron examined it carefully. "Will this go off every time?" he asked smilingly, as he held the pistol's mouth behind his right. Levin warranted the action, and before the words came from his lips Caron remarked: "Well, I'll see whether it works all right," pulling the trigger as he finished the sentence. He was dead in an instant. Caron was a fresco painter, about 32 years of age. No reasons are known for the deed. He fell from the scaffold some weeks ago, and came out of the hospital a few days ago. He was an Englishman, unmarried, and has brothers living in Concordia, Kas.

A Nebraska man was convicted of burglary and sentenced to the penitentiary. He appealed to the Supreme Court, and pending action there went to prison and served his time out. Six months after his discharge he received an official document from the supreme court informing him that he had been granted a new trial. Such delay of justice makes courts ridiculous and justice a farce; but nevertheless the lawyers, voicing Sir Edward Coke, continue to assert that law is the perfection of reason.—K. C. Star.

You should not be without it. 3 Every family is liable to have a hereditary taint of consumption in it. It may date back 3 or even 4 generations. This fact makes it necessary always to have a remedy with which to combat this formidable disease. A cough when taken at first can readily be cured before it gets a serious hold on the lungs. Ballard's Horehound Syrup when taken in its early stages will cure consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of the throat, lungs and chest, such as consumption, inflammation of the lungs, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough, croup, &c. It is pleasant to take, perfectly safe and can always be depended on.

To Attack the Tariff.
 Washington, Jan. 27.—Mr. Brockbridge of Kentucky has offered the following amendment to the new code of house rules:

"Provided further, that whenever any general appropriation bill is under consideration it shall be in order to move as an amendment any amendment providing taxation or providing for the withdrawal of any such appropriation of money."
 This provision, if passed, would enable a complete tariff bill to be appended to any appropriation bill under consideration in the house. The significance of it is readily seen. Members of the ways and means committee who are in favor of attacking the McKinley tariff act, by separate bills were afraid that it indicated a purpose to take the revision of the tariff out of their hands and propose a general tariff bill like the Mills bill of the Fiftyth congress. The democratic members of the committee are at present divided on the subject of the best method of attacking the tariff, and the new and old members of the committee have not yet been able to get together on the question.

Candidates For Bates and Vernon.
 Our chief contributor and political soothsayer, "Gabe"—the fellow who blows his bugle not only for Fairview and Keith, but for the southwest quarter section of Bates and the entire northern half of Vernon County, has handed in the following slate:

- W. J. Stone for Governor.
  - H. C. Reece for Representative of Bates.
  - C. C. McGinnis for Presiding Judge.
  - C. F. Boxley for Prosecuting Attorney.
  - Judge Fix for Judge from Southern District.
  - J. B. March for County Surveyor.
  - Tom Ellis for Sheriff.
- While "Gabe" was no doubt merely "fanning when he fixed up the above, it is generally understood that if he didn't hit the nail on the head as regards the head of the ticket he set his foot down pretty hard on the tail of it. In short it is generally understood that Mr. T. G. Ellis, whom "Gabe" alludes to as "Tom," is "in it"—That he is not only a candidate for Osage township but from two or three others; but like Mr. Stone, our friend Ellis is probably a little backward about coming forward, a trifle modest—or perhaps only shy of the newspapers, as the rest of the boys seem to be on his racket all right enough. We advise Mr. E. as well as any others on "Gabe's" slate not to "hide their lights under a bushel," but come promptly to the scratch and fess up whenever the spirit moves them to become candidates. Let them remember that "the early bird catches the worm"—provided the worm isn't bigger than the bird.—Rich Hill Review.

Colonel Annie Baxter.
 Springfield, Mo., Jan. 27.—The election contest of Julius C. Fischer against Mrs. Annie W. Baxter terminated this morning when the court rendered a decision that Fischer was not entitled to maintain action and had no right or title to the office of County Clerk in Jasper County, as Mrs. Baxter owned a plurality of the legal votes cast at the last election. Judgment was given in favor of Mrs. Baxter and a recovery costs of Fischer.

Robbed his Father's Corpse.
 Mexico, Mo., Jan. 27.—It was developed today that Jericho Martin, who killed his father at Marmatung last night, is not half wild. He had already squandered $3,000 of his father's money and demanded more. At the request to-day it was shown that Martin, after killing his father, robbed the body of a good watch and $5. He even stole the shoes off his dead father's feet, leaving his old ones sitting near the body. He then ransacked the house.

The officers failed to find the son last night, but this evening a telegram was received from High Hill stating that a man answering the description of Martin had been arrested there. If he proves to be the right man and is taken to Martinsburg he will be lauded by the populace. The weapon used was a blacksmith's hammer. The dead man's head was beaten into a pulp.

Guarding his Victim's Body.
 Louisville, Ky., Jan. 27.—The latest news from the locality of South America, Belle County, the scene of the murder of Manual Parton by the notorious Berry Turner, reveals a pretty state of affairs. Parton was shot last Saturday within about 200 yards of Turner's house, and the body of the murdered man had been allowed to lay where it fell ever since. Turner has eight or ten desperados with him, and they have stood guard over the body and prevented any of the dead man's friends from taking it away. The Parton faction are aroused, and a desperate feud between Turner and his gang and the Partons is brewing. The Partons claim to have the law on their side, as Manual was killed while attempting the arrest of Turner.

DUALIN.
 Several Sticks of It Placed By Miners Near a Stove.
TERRIBLE EXPLOSION ENSUES.

The Shanty Blown to Pieces—Inmates Scattered in All Directions—Two Men Killed and Eighteen Seriously Injured.

STICKS OF DUALIN WARMED UP.
 WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 27.—A terrible explosion of dualin occurred at Honeybrook, a small mining town, five miles from Hazleton, at noon yesterday. Twenty Hungarian miners were employed in a coal stripping operated by Dick & Manna, at that place. They were sitting around the stove in the workmen's shanty eating their lunch, when several sticks of dualin which had been placed near the stove, exploded, blowing the shanty to fragments and scattering the inmates in all directions. The shock of the explosion was heard five miles away. In a short time hundreds of people had gathered at the spot and willing hands were soon among the wreckage. Two men, Adam Bornick and John Slavatsky, were instantly killed, their bodies being scaldingly mutilated. Of the other eighteen not one escaped injury. Men were lying around in every direction, some with arms and legs broken and blood pouring from many gaping wounds.

Seven doctors were soon on the spot attending to the injuries of the sufferers. Wagons filled with straw were brought and many of the injured, amid groans and moans, were soon removed to places of comfort before sending them to the hospital at Hazleton.

At 8 o'clock last evening a report came from the hospital that there were seven men there. They are still alive, but their condition is considered critical. There were twenty Slavs injured, of whom seven are now at the Miners' hospital in Hazleton. Two are known to be dead and others are being treated by the doctors at their last home where the accident occurred. At nightfall there were two men yet missing and the doctors and bosses are scouring the woods for them. The explosive is known as dualin, one of the highest made. It comes in sticks not unlike tallow candles and possessing much the same flexibility. The explosion was caused by the Slavs heating the dualin and then exposing it to the cold—the low temperature causing it to contract with the result stated. The man who had the dualin was torn to pieces.

In the hospital are John Hildonick, aged 58; Mike Sierock, aged 45; Steve Bedford, aged 44; Kanda Martin, aged 31; Hunanish Vasek, aged 33, and three unknown men, all of whom it is thought will die.

Dr. Keller last night telegraphed to the Record that besides the fractures of skull and bones of the face, the body of each patient contains a score of wounds made as if by bullets, their legs, arms and chests being pierced with dualin from two to four inches deep. The probing of their wounds did not reveal in a single instance any foreign body at the bottom of the wound. Most of the unfortunates are married and have more or less large families.

CAUGHT IN THE BELT.
 A Wealthy Millwright Meets With a Horrible Death.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 27.—William Duncan, a wealthy millwright and one of the best known in Buchanan county, met a horrible death in the Boone & Yates Milling Co's mills at Agency, twelve miles south of here, yesterday morning. Duncan was employed in the mill as superintendent. This morning he was engaged in working close to the belt that circles the large drive wheel, when in some unknown manner he was caught in the belt and whirled about the wheels with terrible velocity. No one was in the engine room when the accident occurred to tell how it happened.

The machinery gave such a jar that it attracted other employees, who ran to the engine room to ascertain the cause. In the engine room they found the mangled remains of Mr. Duncan. The accident occurred so quickly that no human power could have saved him. When Duncan fell upon the belt it is supposed that he tried to extricate himself, but in so doing only made death more certain. When the body struck the fly wheel there was a sudden lurch of the ponderous machinery and the head and arms were crushed into an almost unrecognizable mass of flesh and blood. The lower limbs were shattered and torn and the body horribly mangled. After the body passed over the fly wheel it fell to the lower belt and from there to the floor. Mr. Duncan was 65 years old and leaves a family.

More Crookedness.
 PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27.—City Controller Thompson has sent to the council a communication stating that the outgoing health officer, Joseph G. Patterson, is short $1,779.57. In addition, relative to the payment to the city of costs in the abatement of nuisances, a loss to the city of $19,244.99 was discovered. Controller Thompson's communication in no way implicates Mr. Patterson, but suspicion is said to rest on a former clerk of the office, who was detected in a similar offense.

Five Victims.
 READING, Pa., Jan. 27.—A Philadelphia and Reading coal engine blew up at Newcastle near St. Clair Schuylkill county, forty miles north of here yesterday morning. Five men were instantly killed, the engineer, David Zoigler, Fireman N. Baur, and Jacob Turner, Jack Wintergreen and Henry Sand's brakemen. The bodies were horribly mangled. One has not yet been found.

A Texas Desperado Killed.
 SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 27.—John Coy, a desperado of state-wide notoriety, was shot and instantly killed yesterday in a quarrel with Henry Kempran.
