

SENT TO JAIL AGAIN.

Judges Copenhaver and Lyons
Recommitted by Judge
Philips.

Kansas City, Mo., May 10.—B. R. F. Copenhaver and George Lyons, judges of the St. Clair county court, were this morning again committed to the Jackson county jail by Judge Philips of the United States Circuit Court, "until such time as they comply with the writ of mandamus heretofore issued in the case of the Ninth National Bank of New York against St. Clair county." Judge Thomas D. Nevitt received the same sentence as his two colleagues, and he will come to Kansas City and give himself up to Marshal Stewart as soon as his wife, who is quite ill, recovers sufficiently for him to leave her. Immediately after the sentence had been imposed court adjourned for the day and Judge Philips retired to his chambers, where he was met by Judge Copenhaver, and the matter of the St. Clair county bond case was fully discussed. Judge Philips stated that the interview was amicable and very satisfactory. He will make an effort to get the bondholders and the county judges together in a short time to try to agree upon some basis of settlement that can be submitted to the voters of the county. Judge Copenhaver expressed himself as being willing and anxious to submit any sort of a reasonable compromise proposition to his constituents.

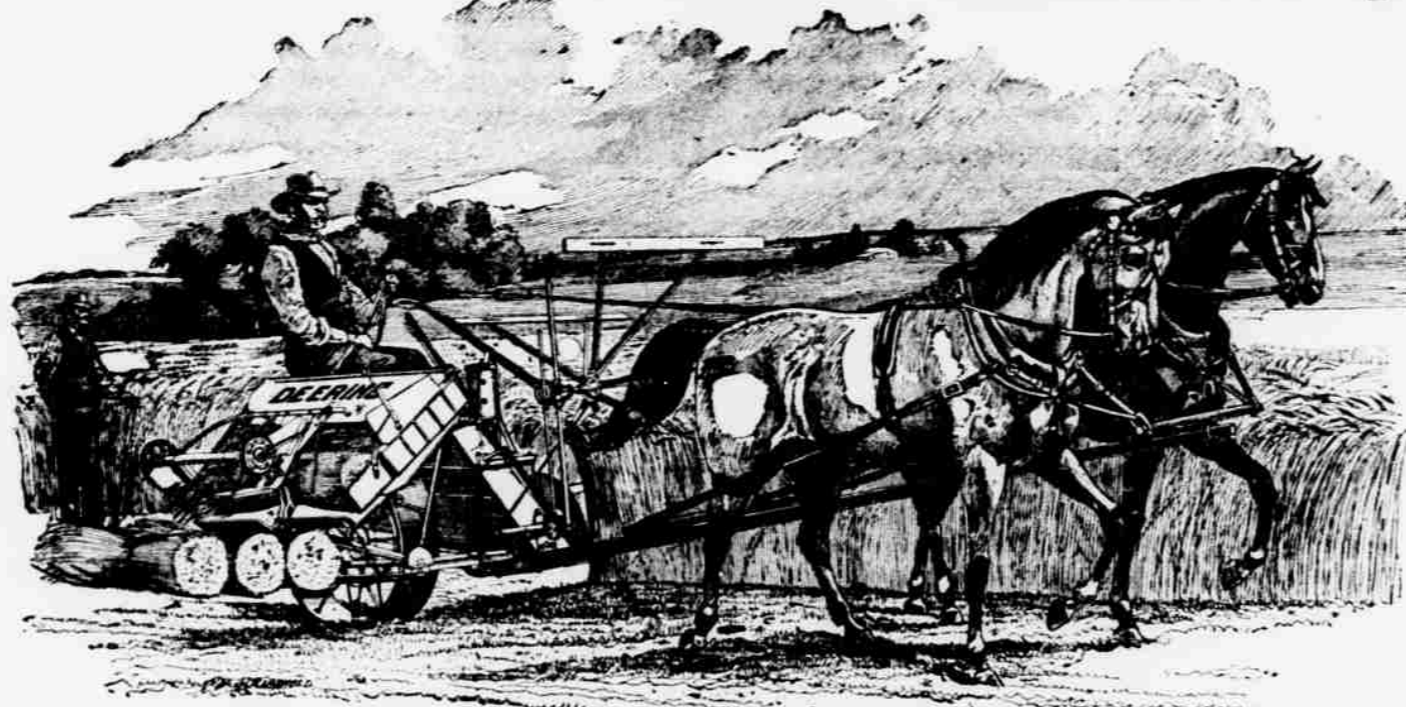

The judges marched off to jail with as much composure as if they were going on a holiday trip instead of to a dreary imprisonment that will probably last for months. "There is nothing for us to do but to go to jail," said Judge Lyons, "we simply would not dare to face our constituents if we consented to make the levy ordered by the court. The feeling now among St. Clair county people is strongly against any effort looking toward a compromise. Governor Stone's message, with which you are familiar, has done more to defeat a satisfactory compromise than anything else in years. But for that message I am satisfied the matter would have been adjusted ere this. The people were beginning to come to the conclusion that a compromise should be made when the governor's message stirred them up again like a hornet at a camp meeting."

A Woman Charged With Hog Stealing
Nevada, Mo., May 10.—Mrs. Delia Harkless was arrested here last night charged with stealing hogs and selling them. This morning she was released on a bond of $500. She has been for a long time a resident of Vernon county, and at the date of her alleged crime was living with her husband at Sandstone. Seven hogs were taken from John Flagg, a neighbor. Six of them were sold to Mr. Bridewell, of this city for $38.80, and one was sold to William Davis. When the hogs were missed the owner tracked them to the Harkless home. The indications pointed to the fact that they had been loaded into a wagon and hauled to town. The clew was followed up and Mr. Flagg recovered part of his hogs and received cash for the others. They had been sold to the buyers by a woman whose face was concealed by a veil. About the time of the theft Harkless and his wife are said to have gone to the Indian Territory, and shortly afterward the mother of Mrs. Harkless took their three children and went to them. A few days since the woman returned to Vernon county with the children and Sheriff Scroggen made the arrest. The woman denied the theft.

BATTLE WITH A MAD DOG

It Invades an Old Orchard Residence and is Still at Large

St. Louis Chronicle.
John H. Wilhusen had a terrible encounter with a mad dog at his home near Old Orchard Saturday afternoon. Mr. Wilhusen was the owner of a very large setter which had been the pet of his children for a year or two. Unknown to the family the animal had been bitten by a mad dog that was running wild in the neighborhood. The dog was lying on the floor in the kitchen, and when Mrs. Wilhusen and little child entered the room it sprang up and attacked them. Mrs. Wilhusen managed to keep the beast at bay until her screams brought her husband. Mr. Wilhusen grasped the dog by the collar and attempted to choke the brute. The dog was powerful and in the struggle Mr. Wilhusen was bitten in the left arm. Mrs. Wilhusen had gone in search of her husband's pistol and returned just as the man through pain and loss of strength loosed his hold. She fired and succeeded in wounding the animal which ran out of the house and disappeared.

Owing to the heavy coat he had on at the time Mr. Wilhusen's wound is not as serious as it might otherwise have been. He had the injury cauterized. The dog is still loose and the people of Old Orchard are much alarmed.

A Kansas editor and a rich widow were engaged to be married, when the neighbors began to talk about it, charging that he was marrying her for her riches. The young editor was vexed at this, of course, and in order to show up its truthfulness, he persuaded his affinity to turn all her worldly peif over to a grown daughter and that he would prove to the world the sincerity of his affections. The trusting widow did so, and the first night thereafter the editor and the young girl eloped, and in the morning the widow pined the forms in the office and would have pined the editor, could she have found him.—Ex.

Avery to Hang May 24.
Jefferson City, May 9.—Governor Stone disposed of the Amos Avery case yesterday by granting a stay to May 24 to allow him to prepare for death on the gallows at Lamar. At the same time the governor declared that he would not interfere as he was convinced that Avery was not insane.

Killed by an Electric Wire.
Nevada, Mo., May 10.—The body of J. W. Knott, an old citizen of this place, was found on North Main street this morning. The coroner's inquest devolved the fact that his death was caused by an electric shock received while shaking a wire hoisting rope attached to the electric light in order to make it burn about midnight.

The village of North Galveston near Warsaw Ind., was destroyed by fire and a family of five persons perished.

Daring Pension Frauds.

Washington, May 10.—An attorney of Norfolk, Va., named Drewey, now under arrest, is charged with securing fraudulent pension claims by the wholesale, using as his instruments in many cases, colored women and men who could not read or write.

Several months ago Secretary Noble ordered three cases dropped from the pension rolls that had been secured by Drewey and later he was debarred from practice. When the present administration came into power a thorough investigation was made into the cases that Drewey had secured and, when it was discovered that about 98 per cent of the cases he had handled under the act of June 27, 1890, were secured through the filing of false declarations. One hundred and sixty six cases were granted and every one of them carried arrears.

Supervising Examiner A. D. Albert, with several assistants, were at once sent to Norfolk where they are pursuing their investigations. In Drewey's office was a notary public named Richardson. When he went out of office Drewey used the notary's seal attesting the false evidence which he had prepared and forwarded the papers to this city.

Attacked by a Convict.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 9.—A desperate cutting affray occurred in the shop of A. Priesmeyer this afternoon, in which John Lallis a negro convict, slashed and stabbed Fred Brown, another negro convict, five times. Brown's wounds are all serious, but it is believed that he will recover.

Brown is from Grundy county under sentence of thirty years for murder, and Lallis is from Randolph county under sentence of five years for assault with intent to kill. Brown was fearfully slashed and presented a horrible appearance when rescued from the hands of his would-be murderer by the guard in the shop.

A NEGRO LYNCHED.

The Usual Punishment for the Usual Crime.

Columbia, S. C., May 10.—Another negro rapist met his fate to day. Heyward Barksdale, a young negro, having confessed to the crime of attempted rape, was hanged to a tree near the town of Laurens about 5 o'clock this afternoon. Monday afternoon the two young daughters of a farmer named James Wham were going through the woods on their way from school when Barksdale seized the elder and attempted to assault her. He was frightened off without accomplishing his purpose. Barksdale was promptly identified by the girls. The crowd of 500 persons carried him to the scene of the attempted rape and swung him to a tree, tying his arms and placing a cap over his face, with no firing and no unnecessary noise. The scene of the crime is within a mile of the residence of United States Senator Irby, and he is said to have been a spectator and to have urged the crowd to be temperate and not fire into the body.

Tragedy On the Stage.

Vienna, May 10.—In the theater at Lemberg, capital of Austrian Galicia, last night, Herr Dalezuk, one of the actors, drew a revolver on the stage, placed the weapon to his head and blew out his brains. It was subsequently learned that his action was prompted by jealousy.

In the company was a young actress of whom Dalezuk was deeply enamored and it is supposed that his love was reciprocated but during the progress of the play he saw her flirting with a man in one of the stalls and at the end of the act upbraided her for her perfidy. She treated the matter lightly and again when she went on the stage resumed the flirtation. His suicide followed.

Mr. Bissel's First Assistant.

Washington, May 10.—Frank H. Jones of Springfield, Ill., was to day appointed first assistant postmaster general, vice H. Clay Evans, resigned. He is a native of Springfield, Ill., and is 39 years of age. He was graduated from Yale in the class of '75 and immediately took up the study of law. Since his admission to the bar he has been engaged in the active practice of his profession. He was a member of the last Illinois general assembly for the Springfield of the league of democratic clubs of Illinois and was a delegate to the last democratic national convention.

ED STOKES A CITIZEN.

His Pardon Was Such as to Remove all Consequences of his Crime.

New York, May 10.—Argument was heard to day before Judge Cowing in the court of general sessions in the libel suit of Edward S. Stokes of the Hoffman house against W. E. D. Stokes and Lawyer William R. Martin. Ex-Mayor Oakey Hall, representing Mr. Martin, moved to quash the indictment. The affidavit of Mr. Martin was read, in which it was claimed that Edward S. Stokes having been convicted and sentenced for the crime of homicide in shooting Jim Fisk, was civilly dead, and the charges brought by him against W. E. D. Stokes and himself (Martin) could not be entertained.

Counsel for Mr. Edward Stokes thereupon created a sensation in the court room by handing up to the court a pardon of the state to Edward S. Stokes, dated December 1, 1884, and signed by Grover Cleveland, then governor, releasing Stokes from all consequences of his crime. This introduction of the pardon is the first information that has ever been given as to the restoration of Mr. Stokes to citizenship. Judge Cowing took the papers in the suit and reserved his decision.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which effected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

A Deputy Sheriff Shot.

Helena Mont, May 11.—Details have been received here of a tragedy near Castle yesterday. Deputy Sheriff William Rader, of Meager county tried to arrest William Gay, charged with setting fire to the office of the Castle Reporter. The attempted arrest was made at the ranch of Harry Gross on Warm Spring, six miles from Castle. Rader drove to the ranch with a companion and called on Gay to surrender. Gay drew a gun and Rader shot and wounded him. Gross then shot Rader through the heart killing him instantly. Rader's companion dropped his gun and ran and Gross and Gay escaped. They were seen near Castle this morning. A posse is in hot pursuit. Both are desperate men and came here from Sun Dance Wyo. which place, it is said, they left between days. Gay has also killed a man in the Black Hills. More killing is feared before the men are captured. Rader was a very popular man and was formerly Sheriff of Meager county.

Joplin, Mo., May 10.—The proposition submitted to the voters yesterday to build court houses at Joplin and Carthage was carried, the majority over two-thirds being in excess of 1,200. A. J. Gammon and Cal St. Clair of Webb City were arrested for illegal voting.

The General Electric employees charged by the Westinghouse company with stealing plans waived a hearing by a Pittsburg magistrate and gave bail for their appearance at court.
