SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We have made arrangements with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) to DR. B. J. KENDALL CO., ESSEXVILLE FALLS, VT. This book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work, and be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity of obtaining a valuable book.

It is necessary that you mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open for only a short time.

It Tastes Good
One reason why Scott's Emulsion of Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda has had such a large sale is because it is "Almost as palatable as milk;" but the best reason is that its curative properties are unequalled. It cures the cough, supplies the waste of tissues, produces flesh and builds up the entire system.
Scott's Emulsion cures Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Scrofula, and all Anæmic and Wasting Diseases. Prevents wasting in children. Always as palatable as milk. Get only the genuine. Prepared by Scott & Borne, Chemists, New York. Sold by all Druggists.

Col. Dick Dalton.
The Jefferson City correspondent of the Booneville Advertiser tells the following story:
"I met Hon. Dick Dalton," said one of his friends recently to me, "last summer in the circuit clerk's office in the court house at Montgomery City. I was strangely impressed while listening to him narrate a singular experience he had. Said he: 'Do you see this little package I hold in my hand? You notice that the paper is yellow from age and it is covered with dust. I want to tell you a strange but true story in connection with it. It was nearly thirty years ago I was a poor boy living in Knox county, this state. A sweet-spirited and kind hearted lady manifested an interest in me and took me to live with her upon her little farm. One day while plowing, my horse became unruly and gave me a fearful kick on my left leg, just below the knee. My suffering was fearful. I was unable to continue the work and attempted to return alone to the house, one-half mile distant. The good lady attracted by my screams came to me and assisted me home. The wound was carefully dressed by her, but fever set in and I grew worse and worse. Doctors were summoned. They pronounced the case a serious one. After a day or two of consultation it was thought best, in order to save my life, to remove all pieces of broken bones. This was done and within a month or two I began to recover. After becoming about restored, with the exception of a little lameness, I was attracted to another part of the state, and I bade my good friend an affectionate farewell. I had never seen that good lady who had nursed me during that spell of sickness until Wednesday. I had an appointment to speak near her old home. After my speech, when I thought every one who was interested in me had come and shaken hands with me, she modestly came forward and introduced herself. God bless her! How happy I was to meet her again. She handed me this package. In doing so she said: 'When the doctor took those bones out of your leg I saved them and buried them under the window near the old room where you lay sick so long. I thought you might like to have them returned to you. Here they are as I buried them thirty years ago.' Mr. Dalton then stood up and showed us the wounded leg, with the long, deep, angry scars, made by the kick of the vicious horse and the surgeon's knife. As he talked and thought of his struggles in early life, how he suffered in the little farm house in Knox county, as he lay upon his pallet, and as he recalled the tender ministrations of the kind-hearted old lady, his Irish heart melted and tears filled his eyes."

Wrecked by Dynamite.
Muscatine, Io., May 11.—Three houses were simultaneously wrecked in this city by dynamite at two o'clock this morning. They were owned and occupied by John Mahin, editor of the Journal; E. M. Kissinger, treasurer and active man in the Muscatine County Temperance Alliance; and N. Rowenberger, local attorney of the alliance.
An attempt to enforce prohibition has greatly aroused the saloonkeepers. Four saloons were enjoined Wednesday, and certain saloon men it is claimed, by the victims, are guilty of dynamiting. Kessinger's house was stripped of floors, plaster and furniture, and its walls were sprung. The Mahin and Rowenberger houses were completely wrecked. Rowenberger fell into the cellar and was covered in debris and a woman was blown out of an upper window.
Miss Mahin was pinned beneath furniture and was hurt by falling between floor timbers. The three houses contained 20 people, but none of the others were hurt. The loss aggregates $15,000. W. S. Richie, a prominent witness in saloon cases, was warned by a friend that he was on the list, and two men were driven away from his place. A large citizens' mass meeting was held to-night, in which the deed was denounced and action taken towards the arrest of the criminals. Rewards are to be offered.

Worried Over the Star Gang.
Coffeyville, Kan., May 11.—The Starr gang of eight men was seen two miles east of Caney yesterday evening and fearing an attack on the Denver, Memphis and Atlantic train, a strong guard was taken on at Sedan. No attack, however, was made. Starr and two of his men were at Nowata Tuesday getting horses shod and the leader said they would have to make another haul as they were running short of money. It is thought here that the outlaws were supplied with ammunition from here yesterday evening, as cartridges were sold by one of the hardware stores. The brother of Starr's sweetheart was in town this week and says there are fifty-six men in gang, but this is considered mere boasting.

Dromedary and Bicycle to Race.
Chicago, May 11.—Abaris Sahr, one of the Bedouin chiefs of the society Hamidie that is to give exhibitions of life in the desert at the World's fair this summer, received a challenge yesterday for a race between his pet dromedary and a Chicago bicyclist. He said that his fleetest animal would go a mile in a trifle under three minutes and received a severe pride wound by being told that his pet would have to be given a handicap of fifty yards. The prospect of winning, however, got the better of him and he signed articles for a mile race by electric light some evening in July.

Rioting in Mexico.
Durango, Mex., May 11.—At a holiday celebration here a desperate affray occurred between a mob of intoxicated Mexicans and the police, which resulted in the killing of four of the mob and one policeman. A large number of the lower class of Mexicans were parading the streets, committing depredations of a serious nature, when the police attempted to suppress the lawlessness. The mob fired upon the officers killing Frederico Gerralvo and wounding two others. The police returned the fire killing four leaders of the outlaws. The others were captured and will receive the severest punishment for their offense.

Italy's Crop Ruined.
Rome, May 11.—Reports to the government from the prefects of the various districts throughout Italy show that the drouth has caused such damage to the grain crop that Italy will be compelled to import this year 113½ million bushels of grain in excess of the ordinary imports. The duty is five lire per quintal; the receipts on this account will probably cover the deficit in the Italian budget.

The entire wheat crop of Italy averages only 122 million bushels and her normal imports are about 22 million bushels. The normal corn crop is 80 million bushels; imports three millions; oat crop 17 millions, imports 1½ millions. It would appear, therefore, from these figures that Italy's grain crops are almost entirely ruined.

"Can any one," asked David Pierce who is at the Lindell, "explain why it is that America exports some of the best cheese in the world and imports some of the worst to take its place? That it does so every man that has traveled knows, and he probably regrets it as well. In the opinion of many the best cheese that can be got in Europe is American and the prices charged for it in London and Paris are absolutely normal, and not more than a third or fourth the charges in this country. As an economic proposition one would imagine that the best would go to the highest priced market, but for some reason or other it does not appear so, and much of the cheese sold in America would be practically unsalable in Europe. Of course, the frequenter of first-class hotels can get what he wants practically anywhere by paying for it, but the peculiarity I have mentioned makes itself very apparent when one has to go to a hotel in a small city or to take meals in a boarding house or private family."—Globe-Democrat.

A Crank Twice at the White House.
Washington, May 11.—Hamilton S. Saunders, a colored man from Sumter, S. C., who declared that he wanted the appointment of minister to Mexico, arrived here Tuesday evening and called at the White house, but did not get in. Yesterday he showed up for a second time and was placed under arrest. He was identified as the insane man with whom the police had a similar experience about six weeks ago.

"I Am So Tired"
Is a common exclamation at this season. There is a certain bracing effect in cold air which is lost when the weather grows warmer; and when nature is renewing her youth, her admirers feel dull, sluggish and tired. This condition is owing mainly to the impure condition of the blood, and its failure to supply healthy tissue to the various organs of the body. It is remarkable how susceptible the system is to the help to be derived from a good medicine at this season. Possessing just those purifying, building-up qualities which the body craves, Hood's Sarsaparilla soon overcomes that tired feeling, restores the appetite, purifies the blood and in short imparts vigorous health. Its thousands of friends as with one voice declare "It makes the weak strong."

A girl in this city recently found a lot of love letters written by her father to her mother many years before they were married. This daughter read them to her mother, pretending they were of recent date, and substituted her own name for that of her mother's and the name of a young man, well known to both of them, for her father's. The mother was very much disgusted and has forbidden her daughter to have anything to do with a young man that will write "such nonsense and sickening stuff."—Osborne, Kan., Farmer.

Long Distance Talking.
Nevada Mail.
Wm. M. Torbert of the Missouri and Kansas Telephone company was here to day talking the extension of a long distance line from Kansas City to this place.

Kansas City is now connected with Sedalia, Warrensburg, St. Joe, Leavenworth, Topeka, Junction City and many other points in Missouri and Kansas.
Mr. Torbert's idea is to extend the line which is now at Harrisonville to this city by way of Butler, Rich Hill and other towns along the L. & S. railway. From this place it will be carried to Ft. Scott.

At Frankfort, Pike county, this state, Albert Shotwell, 81, and Elizabeth Shotwell, 79, and members of one of the wealthiest families in Pike county were married.

Notice of Partition Sale.
Whereas on the 8th day of March, 1893, T. W. Silvers, M. E. Silvers and Elizabeth Silvers recovered judgment in partition against Laura Belle Payne, L. B. Payne, James Lee Silvers, James Wallace Sutton, Thos. J. Jackson, John W. Jackson, Milton Jackson, Solomon Jackson and Lettie J. Jackson in a certain case then pending in the circuit court of Bates county, Missouri; and whereas, it was ordered and decreed by the said circuit court that the following lands lying and being situated in Bates county, Missouri, be sold to-wit: 100 acres, the same being the southwest quarter of section twenty-one (21), and 40 acres, the same being the southeast quarter of the south-east quarter of section twenty (20), all in township No. forty (40) of range No. thirty-one (31), also 15 acres, the same being the east 2-4 of the north half of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section four (4) in township thirty-nine (39) of range thirty-one (31). Now therefore, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by law; and a certified copy of the said order and decree of the court aforesaid issued and directed to me by John C. Hayes, the clerk of said court, J. D. A. Colyer, sheriff of Bates county, Missouri, will on Saturday, June 24th, 1893, at the east front door of the court house in Butler, and during the term of the circuit court, offer for sale and sell as public vendee to the highest bidder thereof all the lands aforesaid on the following terms: 1-3 cash in hand, 1-3 in one year, 1-3 in two years, deferred payments to bear interest at 6 per cent per annum and to be secured by trust deed on said real estate.
