Well!

WELL!

Well!

Here we have a new periodical making its appearance before the public, edited and managed by a home girl, who has already made her mark in the literary world, and will now add even greater luster to her fame. Hurrah for that! It shows that women are coming to the front as they should do, as they are naturally smarter than men anyhow. I hasten to avail myself of these useful columns to tell the people that I intend to have a beautiful Stock of Goods this coming season.

Anything in DRY GOODS from solid staples up to fine fabrics. Anything in the MILLINERY line from the neat sailor up to the daintiest creation. Anything in NOTIONS and little dress novelties, from a hair pin up to a glove or corset. Cheap Prices! W H I reckon. Just come and see me and you will find my prices right down on the ground floor. Agent for Butterick's Patterns. Dress Making.

To the Women of Mississippi.

We, the new Dry Goods firm of the Capital city, have an offer to make to the women of Mississippi, living in and around Jackson, that is unprecedented in your experience. In this inducement, we offer Staple Dry Goods, exquisite Fancy Goods, and the latest wrinkles from Eastern and Foreign markets, at prices that would be cheap in New York. Our Mr. Buckley is now in New York, making daily purchases, that will please you. Call and let us tell you more about it.

Respectfully,

BOYD & BUCKLEY, Jackson, Miss.
