

THE CLARION.

Official Journal of the City of Jackson

LOCAL AND OTHER NOTES.

Next Sunday is Easter. Jackson Royal Arch Chapter No. 6 next Monday night. Stedman & Co. have a very readable announcement in this issue. Ye Old Folks, of Vicksburg, will give a Concert in Jackson on 29th. Frost Monday night, but not enough to injure fruits and flowers it is thought. The Penitentiary leeches are extending their walls and increasing their towers. Quarterly Conference at the Methodist church next Saturday and Sunday. The Mite Society will meet at the residence of Mr. Van Hook on Friday night. Dr. J. A. Peace, of Coahoma, gave us a passing call yesterday. He reports the overflow situation improving. The Natchez Telegraph line reached Raymond Saturday, and is expected to be at Jackson next Saturday. Saturday last was St. Patrick's day. It wasn't "celebrated" here. What has become of the Hibernian Association? Mr. Horn, of the Meridian Mercury, was in town last week, shipping a printing press and engine recently purchased here. Rev. Dr. Hunter will preach at Clinton next Sabbath. There will be no morning or night service in his church here. The grand opening at Stedman & Co's., is announced for Tuesday and Wednesday next—the weather being favorable. The carpenters and painters of Jackson appear to have their hands full just now—can't keep up with the demands upon them. The Union Prayer meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath afternoon, commencing at half-past 4 o'clock. A young and experienced printer, for whose capacity and industry we can vouch, wants a permanent situation. See advertisement. If you can't see it, get a pair of Scutter's spectacles. He has ten different kinds in stock. Also, a large assortment of eye-glasses. Capt. J. P. Stevens and family have removed from their cozy cottage on Amite street to the more spacious residence of Mrs. Thos. Green. The remains of little Halsey Boyd, who died in Fort Worth, Texas, in May last, were interred in the family lot in our city cemetery, on Monday evening last. The committee to canvas for subscriptions to a State Fair have met with some encouragement, but they need a good deal more, and hope they will get it. To-morrow will be Holy Thursday, and the day following Good Friday. The usual solemn services will be observed on both days at St. Andrews and St. Peter's churches. Mr. Chas. E. Martz has now a business interest in the candy factory of J. Martz & Son. Dealers who want to furnish pure candies to their customers, should order from this factory. Mr. Scutter's store has thoroughly recovered from the effects of the late fire, and his large stock of jewelry, silverware, and photographic gallery, can now be seen to good advantage. Among the recent local improvements, we note a new residence on one of the High school lots, being erected by Mr. Chas. Winkley. Mr. C. C. Campbell has also made an addition to his residence. Monday morning our city was visited by a rain and wind storm, the like of which has not been experienced here for some time past. As yet we have learned of no damage to persons or property by the same. Our young friend, Claude Winslow, dropped in upon us from Meridian this week. We were pleased to learn from him that his father-in-law, Col. Wm. B. Taylor, is successfully established in business in the great city of the East. On Friday evening last, one of our citizens, Mr. A. L. Brunson, became involved in a difficulty with one of his hands—a colored man, in which he received a severe blow on the head, and a cut on the leg from a hatchet. The negro was arrested by Mr. Albert Lewis, deputy sheriff, and lodged in jail. A little town in North Carolina, with a population not exceeding four thousand, has recently subscribed sixty thousand dollars for the erection of a cotton factory. That's what we need in Jackson. A public meeting, and a subscription committee in that behalf, should be the next thing in order. A well-equipped printing office is now in operation at the Deaf and Dumb Institute. Mutes make very fair compositors. They follow printed copy very closely, not being disturbed by conversation in the composing room. A newspaper will soon be issued from the institution. By a change of schedule which took effect on the Natchez and Jackson road, on Sunday last, the passenger train leaves Jackson at 7.00 a. m.; arrives at Natchez at 12.40 p. m.; leaves Natchez at 3.00 p. m., and arrives at Jackson at 8.40 p. m. The freight leaves Jackson daily at 8 a. m., and arrives at 5.10 p. m. Some of the young people of Jackson are indebted to Miss Ada Green, for a most delightful evening spent at the residence of her father, Mr. Joshua Green, on Friday last. Miss Ada is a charming young hostess, doing in an easy, graceful manner, "who proper thing" by every guest. One of the sweet singers of Jackson, Miss Myra Baley, and Mr. I. H. Charles, of New Orleans, favored the company with several splendid pieces of vocal music.

Opium, or morphine, is used to an extent only known to the drug stores. We have known persons who would make almost any sacrifice to obtain it. Its habitual use is considered a great misfortune. It will be seen by a certificate in this issue that Cortivalis is a positive antidote. It is manufactured by Erwin, Gayden & Young, Winona, Miss. Rev. C. B. Galloway delivered a very impressive lecture at the Methodist church Sunday night, on the life and labors of the Rev. Elijah Steele, a young preacher who is remembered by many inhabitants of our State and Louisiana, for devotion to his calling, his marvelous preaching, and his sad but heroic death at the post of duty. Three "visitors" entered the store of Mr. Chas. Fransoli last night about 12 o'clock, by forcing a shutter in the rear. They were surprised in their operations by a party of young men who were passing, and by policeman Williams, who fired on them, wounding one on the head and capturing him; the others made their escape. They had entered Mr. Manship's paint shop, and evidently had designs on Mr. Watkin's hardware store, in the rear of which some of their tools were found. In our last issue we failed to state that several graduates were examined by the medical board here last week, passed satisfactory examination and were granted license to practice medicine. Their names are as follows: Robt. Lowry, Jr., Robt. L. Buck, Jackson; W. C. Weatherly, Monticello; Benj. F. Hendon, Moss Point; J. B. V. Girardin, Bloxi; and Geo. W. Laster, Cayuga. The three first named are only 20 years of age. We are indebted to the courtesy of the Jackson Postoffice for the annual number of the United States Official Postal Guide—an indispensable volume of 838 pages. Ten pages are devoted to an alphabetical list of "Frauds," which include nearly all the Matrimonial Associations that figured in Mississippi last fall. The managers ought to sue the Postoffice Department for libel, inasmuch as said Associations were duly chartered by the State, and were incorporated for purely benevolent purposes. We have never heard of any profits to the managers except from the "animal dues." The frame building on the northeast corner of State and Pascagoula streets, owned by Mr. Philip Hays, and occupied as a dry-goods store by S. Kaufman, was partly destroyed by fire at an early hour last Sunday night. The firemen were, as usual, promptly on hand, and soon arrested what would otherwise have been a general conflagration. The fire was the work of an incendiary. Coal oil appears to have been used on the weather-boarding in the rear. Mr. Chas. Daley, whose tin-shop was in the same building, sustained some damage. There was no insurance on the building, but an insurance of $1000.00 on Mr. Kaufman's stock. The musical and charade entertainment at the hall of West Jackson Fire Company last Friday night, for the benefit of the new Methodist church, was a most gratifying success. Considering the great length of the programme, and the large number of little and big folks who participated, everybody and everything moved along with praiseworthy harmony and promptness. The hall was crowded and the sale of tickets netted the handsome sum of $50.00. There are so many who deserve praise for originating and bringing the entertainment to a successful issue, that we abstain from personal reference. It will be repeated to-night, with a partial change of programme. Admission ten cents. Pay at the door. Another meeting of the citizens of Jackson was held in the Senate Chamber, on Monday evening last. Col. W. L. Hemingway presided, and Capt. G. D. Bustamante acted as Secretary. The subscription committee reported what they had done, which showed that they had secured but one-third of the amount necessary to organize the Fair Association. Thereupon, Dr. Byron Lemly, in behalf of himself and associates, made a proposition to furnish five thousand dollars in cash, and form a company to hold Fairs here annually, if the citizens of Jackson would subscribe and secure them a bonus of three thousand dollars. It was decided to hold a meeting next Monday night to raise the amount and ratify the proposition, which is alluded to in detail, by Capt. G. D. Bustamante, in his communication in another column. The matter now is reduced to a tangible proposition from thoroughly reliable gentlemen, and should be concurred in by our citizens. Let the subscription to the $3,000 be commenced at once, and let the meeting next Monday night be a full meeting and the proposition ratified. If you want a nice sort of Clothing of the best made goods, and the very latest cut and prices to suit the times at LAZ. KAHN'S.

Notes from West End of Jackson. [PUBLISHED BY JACK SPRA.] Enterprising West. The Mighty West. Little J. and Big J. School children and Taffy Tois. Many railroad tracks, take care. Look out for the locomotive. Spring, lazy days have come. Soon have to hunt shady places. Gigantic Railroad centre. Whistle and ringing all day long. Large and small hotels—take your choice. Railroad men all flourishing—sleek and fat. A man got shot to-day—bought them from E. M. Scott. West Jackson Fire company are wide-awake boys. John McDonnell is the great iron man of the West. Men of large brains and much capital dwell here in unity. If you want a small crumb of comfort—call on O. C. Crum. Go to George Lemon—for your lemons. The iron horse sports and covets through West Jackson, about every fifteen minutes during the eternal 24 hours. The West End is made up of a mixed population—good, bad and indifferent. The boys from up-town have lots of fun in the West. Drummers are plentiful and full of fun—tell funny stories to our merchants, and sell them goods on credit. New summer beverage—Pine Apple Lemonade—for sale at Rietti's West Jackson confectionery. A new way of expressing the fact of being flat-broke—nickelless. W. H. Potter is still pottering away in the drug business. The Potter boys are solid. The colored railroad hands are working to the best of their ability, and pay their wages promptly to the merchants in the West. Simmons & Bros. are first-class butchers, and will furnish the best of meats to all classes of people, for American money—or small change. The street car traffic is lively—a car leaving West Jackson every half-hour. Southern Express business is lively and kicking. E. O. Ryan carries the largest stock of groceries and dry-goods in West Jackson. He is an Irishman. A good bakery—Harry Nisher. He feeds the poor. A look at the Lawrence hotel show window will produce an excellent appetite. Call soon. Fragiucano has a King at his hotel. Sullivan, (not the pugilist) presides in the office. Mrs. Matilda O'Leary does the principal grocery business in the West. Dameron & Swan have a tip-top lumber yard—and are doing a lumbering business. Candidates for office congregate in West Jackson, and will talk you to death on a worn-out subject—politics. The citizens of the North and South Wards do congregate largely at the depot in the evening, to gaze at passengers—and buy New Orleans papers. Look out for gas next winter. The citizens of West Jackson are very well satisfied on the gas question. Let the other wards squeal until they get a like quantity, and they will be enabled to keep out of gutters and sink holes. Look out. MARRIED. At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. H. Snyder, Wednesday night, March 14, 1883, by the Rev. C. B. Galloway, D. D., Mr. J. M. Drysdale, of Pine Bluff, Ark., and Miss CLARA V. SUTTON of this city. An observing friend who was present furnishes the following lengthy account of this interesting event, from which we extract as follows: "When all was in readiness, the door connecting with the parlor was thrown open, and a splendid couple came in, dressed in the most elegant of the evening attire. "First came the bride's mother, Mrs. Snyder; next, Miss Annie Smythe, escorted by Mr. R. H. Alexander; next, Miss Mattie Alexander, in charge of Mr. Eugene Strauss; then Miss Kate and Alexander, Mr. Eddie M. Strauss, and last of all, graciously leaning on the willing arm of the bride, the bridegroom, Mr. J. M. Drysdale. "The bride wore a beautiful white dress, with a high collar and long sleeves, and a long train. She was accompanied by her bridesmaids, who wore dresses of various colors. "The groom wore a dark suit, with a white shirt and a dark tie. "The ceremony was performed in a simple but elegant manner. "After the ceremony, the bride and groom were seated at a table with their friends. "The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner. "The bride and groom were accompanied to the depot by their friends. "The bride and groom are now residing in West Jackson. "The bride and groom are very happy and contented.
