

C. R. R. TIME TABLE.

Passenger Trains:

TRAINS GOING NORTH.
 No. 2 departs.....1:30 a. m.
 No. 4 departs.....3:10 p. m.
 No. 24 departs.....2:05 p. m.
 No. 26 departs.....11:55 p. m.
 GOING SOUTH.
 No. 1 departs.....3:55 a. m.
 No. 3 departs.....1:50 p. m.
 No. 23 departs.....2:45 p. m.
 No. 25 departs.....1:30 a. m.
 W. L. MYERS,
 Ticket Agent.

THE CANTON TIMES

Local and Personal.

Mr. Mose Beer, of Vicksburg is in the city.
 J. M. Pace, of Sharon, was a visitor Monday.
 J. L. Mills is looking well and enjoying his home visit.
 Mrs. James Vanary is visiting her mother in Yazoo City.
 Mrs. S. T. Dunning is visiting friends in Crystal Springs.
 We regret to learn that Mrs. T. J. Love is still seriously sick.
 Jeff D. Pace, a successful farmer was a recent visitor to Canton.
 Mr. and Mrs. Massey, of Charlton were in the city this week.
 J. F. Kernop, a worthy citizen from Dist. 5 was in the city recently.
 Jas. Priestley spent a few days recently with his parents and friends.
 Bryan Clark, a staunch citizen of District 2. was a city visitor this week.
 Miss Rosa Lutz, spent Saturday and Sunday in Jackson and Yazoo City.
 R. Hansen one of our prosperous northern farmers was in the city Monday.
 E. A. Stinson, our clever neighbor is with his family and home friends.
 Dr. S. K. Coleman, left on the 20th. for the Confederate reunion at Dallas Texas.
 I. H. Harbour, a solid and upright citizen of Flora, was in the city Tuesday.
 B. E. Cauthen, and his daughter Miss Dora, of Ofahoma, are in the city to-day.
 Mr. Feibleman, of Jackson, has been a guest this week in the family of Mr. J. L. Perlinsky.
 Mrs. Miller, of Natchez, formerly Miss Gortie Hundy is the guest of relatives and friends.
 R. H. Adkinson, a clever man and good farmer from Dist. 5 was in the city a few days ago.
 T. J. Love, one of our cleverest and best citizens was hounding with his friends recently.
 H. L. Sanders, a successful farmer and his estimable wife of Madison were visitors to our city Thursday.
 W. H. Bole, our popular and capable president of the Board of Supervisors, was in the city this week.
 Little Ross Roberts is home from New Orleans much improved by the treatment received there.
 T. S. Turner, the live and successful stock dealer is making a business trip to the Delta this week.
 F. D. Coleman, our clever and conservative Supervisor was amongst his friends in town Monday.
 Messrs A. P. and M. Cameron, extensive merchants and planters of Vidalia, were among their Canton friends the first of the week.
 Mrs. S. D. Terry and her beautiful and accomplished daughter, Miss Mattie, were visitors in Canton one day this week.
 J. M. Grafton, the active and successful representative of Geo. D. Barnard & Co., of St. Louis, was with his home folks and friends this week.

Mrs. James McGrath, and her interesting children are visiting relatives and friends in Brookhaven.

E. W. Melvin, the substantial merchant, farmer and good citizen of Thrift, was in Canton on Tuesday.

Dr. Eugene Smith, the great trucker and all round good citizen was a few days ago amongst his city friends.

H. C. Luckett, the active and successful real estate dealer, was with his family and frinds Monday and Tuesday.

S. A. Pool, of Ludlow, who is now engaged in merchandising, at that place was with his Canton friends this week.

An unfortunate man is lying very sick at the Southern Hotel and is in a destitute condition and needs immediate help.

Dr. W. A. Cheek, of Millville, is home from attendance upon medical lectures from Tulane Medical School New Orleans.

Wm Reid, ex president of the Board of Supervisors, is among the number who went to the Confederate reunion at Dallas, Tex.

C. B. Cooper, one of our best farmers, and his lovely daughter, Miss Bessye, of Oaks, were visitors to our city on Thursday.

Memorial Services were held in the cemetery this afternoon, and participated in by the entire town. A full report will be given in next issue.

Miss Annie Sultu has just returned from a visit to Jackson friends, and is accompanied by the beautiful and accomplished Miss Mamié Spengler.

Mr. John T. Hays, a prominent Atty. of Sullivan Ind. is visiting his son-in-law, Mr. J. H. Drake and family, and is much pleased with our country.

Dr. L. C. Pitchford, is home from his medical cours at the Atlanta Medical College, ready for the State Board and to enter upon his professional duties.

Dr. A. L. Morris, the leading physician and merchant of Lena, his wife and little Alex, L., Jr., are visiting his brother, Walter Morris, and family in the city this week.

The members of the Canton Cemetery Association are kindly requested to pay to Mrs. G. D. Cameron at the Mississippi State Bank all delinquent dues as soon as possible. J. W. GILMAN, Secretary.

Will Crattin, who has recently been with the Lexington Advertiser was with his home folks a few days ago, enroute to Lake Charles La. where he has accepted a position. He is a good young man and a good printer.

The body of Mrs. Theresa Harris, wife of Julius Harris of Winona, was intared in the Jewish cemetery this morning. The sympathy of friends is extended to the family. The remains were accompanied by Messrs J. C. and A. Harris and Mrs. A. Harris and Mr. C. Peary

J. W. Thomas, died this morning in Dallas Texas. His remains will be brought to Canton his old home for interment. This is indeed a sad stroke to his relatives and friends here. He was a lawyer of ability, a man of a high order of intelligence, and refinement genial in disposition, a devoted husband fond parent and good citizen.

We wish to call special attention to the ad of McGrath and Sons Co. in this weeks paper. This enterprising and liberal firm are always on the alert when it comes to the interest of their patrons and the welfare of their community, aside from the bargains to be secured, the very commendable feature of donations to the cemetery fund in this sale should recomend it to all our people.

Visit of Admiral Schley,

JACKSON, MISS., MAY 1, 1902—REDUCED RATES AND EXTRA TRAIN SERVICE.

On account of the above mentioned occasion, round trip tickets to Jackson, Miss., at one fare (1901) on sale April 30th and for morning trains May 1st, limited to May 2, 1902, for return. Special passenger train from Detroit will pass Canton about nine o'clock on the morning of May 1st, returning leave Jackson about seven o'clock on the evening of same day. W. L. MYERS, Ticket Agent.

Lottville Dots.

Mr. Tom Prichard attended services Sunday.

A very nice rain was appreciated this evening.

Mr. Joe Tucker, of Canton, paid a brief visit Sunday.

Mr. Divine, of Sharon, was seen on business Wednesday.

Miss Lula McKay, of Carthage is spending this week with friends.

Among our welcome visitors Sunday, were handsome Achie Coleman.

Rev. Mr. Gatlin preached to two large appreciative audiences last Sunday.

One of our sweetest ladies, Mrs. B. F. Leggitte, was seen with a pleasant smile for every one Monday evening.

Mrs. E. J. Cheek, and lovely daughter Angie, has returned to their home in Canton, after being called to the dying bed-side of Mrs. Thornton.

Mrs. J. T. Thornton was called home to God Monday the 21st. She is sleeping sweetly in the Hayes cemetery. We extend our sincere sympathy to the heart broken son and relatives.

WASHINGTON STAR.

PATENTS.

Patented and unpatented Inventions Bought and Sold. Lucas & Co., St. Louis. Mo. 16

Sharon Dots.

Misses Fannie and Alleen Holliday visited home folks last Sunday.

Mrs. Wiggins left last week to spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. M. Allen.

Mrs. Nannie Eldridge left here Saturday for Ridgeland where she will spend a few weeks.

Misses Bertie and Ozella Baker spent last Sunday in the home of Mr. J. E. Holliday and family.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. J. P. Smith is up again after quite a severe spell of sickness.

We are glad to note that Mr. R. E. Spivey and little Duncy Divine are up again after several days sickness.

Mr. Mitchell Prichard, accompanied by Miss Sadie Hickman, spent last Sunday in the home of Mr. J. F. Prichard.

Mr. Aristotle Eldridge and Misses Annie Holliday and Eunice Eldridge attended the teachers examination last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. A. C. Minter, Mrs. M. P. Muse and Misses Vivia Puce and Kate Adams, left last Sunday to attend the reunion in the Lone Star State.

For Sale.

Old issues for sale at 50 per cent discount as soon as new issues are received.

LIST.

- Leslie's Weekly,
 - Monthly,
 - Harper's Monthly,
 - Weekly,
 - McClure's,
 - Cosmopolitan,
 - Century,
 - Scribner's,
 - Munsey's,
 - Review of Reviews,
 - Literary Digest—Weekly,
 - Life—Weekly,
 - Success—Weekly,
 - Saturday Evening Post—Weekly
 - Forest and Stream—Weekly,
 - Ladies Home Journal,
 - Womans Home Companion,
 - Scientific American,
 - Chicago Record, 6 issues Daily
 - New York World, 6 issues—Daily,
 - St. Louis Globe Democrat, 7 issues—Daily,
 - Puck—Weekly,
 - Judge—Weekly,
 - Railway Age—Weekly,
 - Ram's Horn—Weekly,
 - Colber's Weekly,
 - New York Christian Advocate
- Apply at Y. M. C. A. or phone 38, and order will be sent to you. The periodicals are kept in good condition in binders.

D. & L. K. LEVY,
Leaders of Low Prices.

3½c per Yard For regular 5c 26-inch figured fast color Lawn.	5c per Yard For regular 8c 26-inch solid colored Lawn.
4½c per Yard For regular 6c 26-inch figured fast color Lawn.	7c per Yard For regular 10c 28-inch figured fast colored Lawn.

We have a beautiful line of fancy and solid

SUMMER DRESS GOODS,

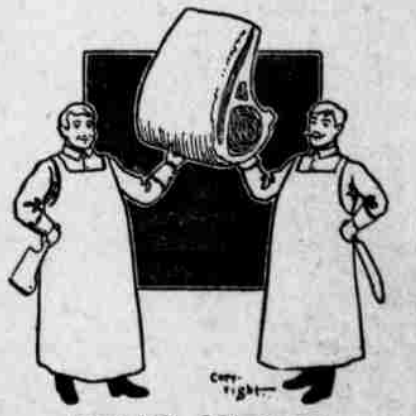

Shirt Waists, Skirts, Laces, Embroideries, Millinery, and in fact everything that goes to make a complete stock, all of which is being offered at unmatched prices.

D. & L. K. LEVY,
Leaders of Low Prices.

Our Mr. A. H. Lahman is now in St. Louis attending a $500,000 fire sale and he expects to buy a good portion of these goods. Due notice will be given on their arrival in the Canton Times. Bargain seekers will do well to wait for these goods.

The C. L. Gross Co.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This Remedy is for sale by B. E. Jones.

50 Bushels Peas
 For sale. Apply to 13-4t W. C. ALSWORTH.

PURINA Feed.

DONKEY ON EVERY SACK.

KEEPS MULES UP AND FEED BILLS DOWN

TRY IT!

IT IS HELD
 by some butchers that they cannot sell high-class meats at ordinary prices and make a profit. Perhaps not—at the profit they want. It is done here.

The Finest Meats
 are sold by us at regular rates. Customers can rely upon getting Beef, Veal, Lamb and Pork that will please and satisfy. Tender, toothsome cuts at moderate prices. Come and see us

MAXWELL & BENEFIELD.
 Phone 140 when you want Job Printing.