FIGHT WILL BE HOT ON PLATFORM AT DENVER

Hearst News Service. Chicago, June 26.—Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, chairman of the Democratic national committee, predicts a hot platform fight at the Denver convention while in Chicago on his way to Colorado.

"The platform will be conservative, and one that every Democrat may be able to subscribe to," was his significant remark.

John W. Kern's boom for vice president went along with the Taggart party. He is an Indiana product, and the organization's head declared that the Hoosier state was going to demand second place on the ticket.

"We are in better shape than we have been since 1892," said Chairman Taggart, talking of the Kern boom. "The Republicans in Indiana are split, and the fact that Fairbanks is out of the running on the Republican side, makes the odds favor our side in Indiana. We are going to nominate Kern for vice president and put Indiana in the Democratic column sure."

FORREST COUNTY MAN TELLS SAD TALE OF RUINED HOME

The following telegraph item will be read with some local interest, as the man, Fulton, mentioned in the article, lives at Epps, which is in Forrest County:

Gulfport, Miss., June 24.—By some clever detective work Police Chief Duckworth apprehended here yesterday two marines, Harry P. Cunningham and Clarence Ralph Morton, who deserted from the United States torpedo boat Hopkins, at Pensacola navy yard. The chief left on an early train this morning with the prisoners whom he is taking back to Pensacola from whence they will be sent on to the naval prison at Norfolk.

With the chief went also as far as Flomaton, a man named R. E. Fulton from Perry County, near Epps, who was on last night detained at the depot by Officer Alford and arrested by night Patrolman Moore on authority of a telegram to the chief charging the man with having kidnapped a little three-year-old girl. Fulton went quietly to police headquarters with the officers, to whom he told the pitiful tale of a ruined home and an unnatural mother, producing in support of his story, a statement signed by fifty-five good citizens of Perry County to the effect that he was better fitted to care for the children than was his wife, who was utterly incompetent. The chief this morning released the man on his recognition to visit the bedside of his mother, from whence he declares he will return home to gain possession of the other child by legal process. The little girl was remarkably bright and well mannered, although meagerly clad in a cotton slip without hat or shoes.

COUNTY CROP LOOKS GOOD; PRISONERS TO WORK ROAD

Mr. Horace Culpepper, superintendent of the county farm, states that the prospects for a good crop are exceedingly fine. He says that both cotton and corn are looking as well as he could expect and he believes, if the seasons continue favorable that a splendid yield is certain. Other crops, usually grown on a farm, are looking well and the season's have been altogether favorable.

As the work on the farm is almost completed, it is Mr. Culpepper's intention to work the prisoners on the county roads. To this end, tents have been bought and the prisoners, with the guards, will "camp out" while working the roads. The first road that will be given attention is the road between Hattiesburg and Rawls Springs. Work on this road will be commenced next week and it is proposed to put the road in first class condition. This road is perhaps traveled more than any other road in Forrest County as it is thickly settled along the road and at Rawls Springs, besides the immense amount of travel from Hattiesburg to the Springs.

Mr. Culpepper is doing fine work with the prisoners and at the same time he is treating them in a humane way.

TARIFF BODY OFF TO PARIS

Americans Will Confer With French Officials On Important Tariff Schedules.

Hearst News Service.

Washington, June 26.—When the Vanderland sails from New York tomorrow it will have as passengers the members of the American commission chosen to confer with a similar commission appointed by France to draw up a new reciprocity treaty between the two countries. James B. Reynolds, assistant secretary of the treasury, is chairman of the American commission.

On reaching Paris, the commission will begin immediately their series of conferences with the French commission. Mr. Reynolds recently requested that all persons having commercial intercourse between this country and France favor the commission with suggestions in the interest of trade expansion. Circulars bearing on the subject were sent to the chief commercial and trade bodies of the country. Many helpful replies have been received, and much data of a useful character in framing a new treaty is at hand.

While no attempt will be made by the American commission to drive a hard and fast bargain with France, it is understood that many concessions now desired by business interests will be sought.

French wines, works of art, china-ware and manufactures generally will figure prominently in the new treaty. The commission probably will remain abroad three months.

For a Sprained Ankle. As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may be effected in many cases in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation. COTTON CROP LOOKS GOOD

PLANT IS MAKING GOOD HEADWAY IN THIS STATE.

Weather Conditions Have Been Favorable to Growth, and Late Planting is Taking on a Very Rapid Growth.—The Weevil's Work.

Reports from over the state concerning the condition of the cotton crop continue to be of satisfactory character, and the staple is making rapid progress toward maturity.

A substantial improvement in the condition of that portion of the crop replanted after the May rains is being shown, and the farmers are encouraged to believe that this portion of the acreage will be matured unless the frost period is exceptionally early.

In the southwestern section of the state the planters are somewhat worried over the boll weevil invasion and in Wilkinson and Adams counties it is feared that the yield will not be more than fifty per cent of the normal, owing to the ravages of that pest. Under normal conditions these two counties raise from 50,000 to 60,000 bales, and the boll weevil invasion therefore means an appreciable curtailment.

In a few counties, notably Smith and Simpson, the farmers are complaining of a lack of rain, which is causing more injury, however, to the corn crop and gardens than to the cotton acreage.
