OLD PERRY MAKES GOOD PERSONAL ASSESSMENT SHOW

Forrest County was among the very first to send in a personal assessment roll and so far it has shown a larger gain than any other county.

The following from the Jackson Evening News shows that old Perry, who is our next door neighbor and blood kin, has also made a substantial gain, as well as "Uncle Anse's" county of Rankin:

Chancery Clerk John A. Gayden, of Rankin County, was in the city yesterday and brought along the assessment roll for his county, which he deposited with the Auditor.

This roll shows that old Rankin has been improving somewhat. The total valuation of personalty given by Assessor Atkins is $1,434,898 this year, as against $1,394,868 for last year, an increase of just $40,030.

The Perry County roll was also received at the auditor's office. It shows total valuation of $621,903, as against $2,181,275 for last year.

The latter figures were, however, for the whole county of Perry, and which has since been divided into two counties—Perry and Forrest, the latter including the city of Hattiesburg. In Perry County returns are given for only five precincts that were in the original county, and these five show valuations of $621,903, as above stated. Last year they came up with $460,197, only, so that the increase amounts to $161,706, which is quite as good as could have been expected.

MUCH LOCAL INTEREST MANIFESTED IN THE CONTEST OF HILL AND SISSON

A great deal of interest is taken in the result of the congressional election held in the Fourth Congressional District yesterday. This was one of the most unique campaigns in the state.

Both men live in Winona, Montgomery County. But the strange part is that Hill and Sisson had always been like brothers and had been law partners. It is said that they have conducted a clean campaign and no personalities have been engaged in.

Col. O. F. Bledsoe, of Grenada County, was also a candidate and it looked this morning like he had received enough votes to cause a second primary between Hill and Sisson.

Mr. Sisson is very well known in Hattiesburg, having spoken here several times during the gubernatorial campaign.

SMITH HAS BEEN ARRESTED

Deputy Sheriff Dan McGillvray has gone to Bogalusa, La., today where a white man by the name of Smith is under arrest and who is wanted here for stealing a horse and buggy from A. Polk.

Some time in the spring of the year the man, Smith, appeared at Mr. Polk's stable and rented a horse and buggy and forgot to bring them back. He even forgot that the property was not his and when he got down near Mobile he sold both the horse and buggy, and didn't even ask Mr. Polk's permission or offer to divide the proceeds with him.

The man will be brought to Hattiesburg where he will have to answer for the horse transaction.

The Retaliator. "What business is Miss Gaddie in?" "Oh, she's in everybody's business." "Wholesale, eh?" "Yes; except when it comes to a bit of scandal. She retaliates that."—Catholic Standard and Times.

His Part. Moggs was returning to the clubhouse when Wilson met him. "Well, how did you get on today?" queried Wilson. "I never saw better golf," said Moggs. "My opponent got away every drive, he hit every brassie clean, he approached up to the hole perfectly, and he never missed a putt." "How much were you beaten by?" "Beaten! I wasn't beaten. I won!"—Pearson's Weekly.

His Corporations. Weary Walker—Wot do youse tink uv me corporations, Tatters? Tired Tatters—Wot corporations? Weary Walker—Me shoes. I call them corporations because dey ain't got no soles.—Puncher.

Hope Still. "I can safely say that no man ever attempted to bribe me, gentlemen." "Voice in the Crowd—Don't be downhearted, old chap; your luck may change."—London Telegraph.
