EMMET LEA ACQUITTED.
In Justice Bolton's court Saturday afternoon, Mr. Emmet Lee was acquitted of "shooting with intent" at Tom Byrd, a negro, on the streets Saturday. The evidence was to the effect that the negro attempted to draw a knife on Mr. Lea and that he acted in self-defense. After he was acquitted, Mr. Lea swore out a warrant against the negro for attempting to assault him with a knife.

County where he conducted a great meeting, in which there were seventeen additions to the church and two or three young men decided to enter the ministry. One of them came back with Mr. O'Brian to attend South Mississippi College, with more to follow. In this connection, it can be stated that the college is receiving new students every day.

The fact that your advertisement appears continuously in a reputable newspaper stimulates public confidence. Your firm advances step by step in the estimation of hundreds of people who may be months getting around to make their first purchase.

MILLS GENERALLY MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR WORK

It is learned on good authority that the big mill plant of P. M. Ikeler, at Moselle, will be worked at its full capacity beginning about two weeks hence. This is one of the largest sawmills in the state and has been in partial operation all through the year.

a delta plantation and is very fine. In addition to this, Mr. Ikeler has gone largely into the fruit and vegetable business, which gives great promise of success.

The fact that this big mill, together with many others, is getting ready to run full time speaks more eloquently than words of the return of prosperity. Nearly every mill in the Hattiesburg territory that is not now in operation is getting ready to begin work at full capacity.
