MARDI GRAS AT GAY CONEY

New York, September 14.—Coney Island's sixth annual Mardi Gras carnival and farewell festival had its inaugural today and will continue through the week. A great symbolic pageant, illustrating "The Age of Progress," will be the feature. With fair weather, it is expected that over a million New Yorkers will visit Coney Island during the carnival. Thousands of dollars have been expended preparing for the carnival, which will eclipse in magnificence all previous celebrations of the kind at the famous amusement resort.

GERMANS HOLD BIG CELEBRATION

Washington, September 14.—Benings race track was the scene today of a big German Day celebration under the auspices of the United German Societies of Washington. An extensive literary and athletic program was carried out.

The celebration commemorates the anniversary of the landing in America of the first German immigrants, headed by Francis Daniel Pastorius, who founded a colony at Germantown, Pa., in 1683. The actual anniversary of the landing is October 6, but it was decided to hold the festivities earlier this year.
