REVOLUTIONARY MEMORIAL IS UNVEILED BY WEE TOTS

Interesting Ceremonies in North Carolina Capital Today

COMMEMORATES THE EDENTON TEA PARTY

Memorial Stands in the Rotunda of the State Capitol at Raleigh and Was Erected Through the Efforts of the D. A. R.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 24.—Thirteen little boys and girls descendants of Revolutionary families, today unveiled a handsome statue commemorating the famous Edenton Tea Party. Ceremonies of an imposing character marked the dedication. The memorial is placed in the rotunda of the capitol, and bears the following inscription at the top:
 "Erected by the North Carolina Society of the Daughters of the Revolution to the 51 ladies of Edenton who, by their patriotism, zeal and earnest protesting against British authority assisted our forefathers in the making of this republic and our commonwealth." Below this inscription is a tea urn of very large size, upon this being the house in which the tea party was held; under this house being the words: "The Tea Party House Edenton, N. C." Under this inscription is a hand holding an inverted tea caddy, and pouring tea from the latter. Yet below this is the inscription: "Edenton Tea Party, October 25, 1773." Below all the inscriptions, etc., is the year, 1908. The border of this very handsome tablet is a wreath of pine, including the burs and the fascicles or leaves, mingled with these being tea leaves and blossoms.

LEFT FOR TEXAS.
 Mr. S. C. Tucker left yesterday for Brownsville, Tex. He was accompanied by his mother and Mr. Tod Tucker, who will remain a month. This is the first vacation that Mr. Tod Tucker has taken in six years. He is the oldest and the youngest employee of the Hays & Field drug store and its predecessors.

NOW READY FOR BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Meeting Will Convene in Hattiesburg Wednesday, October 28, at Immanuel Church.

PROMINENT VISITORS EXPECTED TO ATTEND

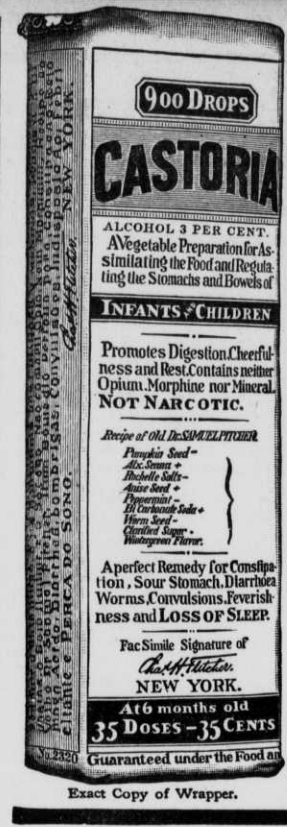

More Than 100 Delegates Will Be on Hand and the Sessions Will Be Interesting and Instructive—New Church Edifice Ready.

The Lebanon Baptist Association will convene with Immanuel Baptist Church, of this city next Wednesday, October 28, and will remain in session until Saturday. This association is composed of some 25 churches located in Forrest and adjoining counties and it is expected that two or more delegates will come from each church. From the larger church, there will be a larger delegation, and it is possible that some few of the churches may send letters instead of delegates as this sometimes happens, but the hope is indulged that all of the churches will be represented by delegates.

The moderator of the association is Rev. I. P. Trotter and the clerk is Rev. A. L. O'Brian, both of this city. Several prominent visitors are expected, among them Rev. A. V. Rowe, secretary of the convention board, Winona, and Rev. T. J. Bailey, editor of the Baptist, of Jackson. A year ago when the Immanuel Church invited the association to meet here, the congregation was worshipping under a tent and the association feared that suitable provision for the sessions could not be made, but they were assured that everything would be all right. When the members of the association assemble in Immanuel Church building next Wednesday they will see one of the handsomest frame church structures in Mississippi. The interior has not been finished and some other work needs to be done, but the delegates and visitors can form some idea of what the interior will be when they take a look inside. The auditorium is one of the largest in the city and has two galleries. In addition to this there are a number of large windows and the ceiling is very high, the building being practically two stories, but with no second floor. It is expected that there will be more than one hundred delegates and visitors.

Here are shown pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Chu Foch, who have sailed for China to engage in missionary work. Mrs. Chu Foch was formerly Miss Kathryn O'Brien, of New York.

CIVIL TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT

The civil term of the circuit court will convene in this city Monday and will continue for two weeks. The docket is a large one and Judge W. H. Cook will do well to clear the docket in the time allotted. In fact, it will hardly be possible to do this, as there are about fifteen cases set for each day of the term. There are several personal injury suits of considerable importance. Immediately following the civil term the criminal term will begin and will continue two weeks and after the circuit court adjourns the chancery court will come on, so that there will be court in session for several weeks. There will be no grand jury until the criminal term begins, but the following have been summoned to serve as petit jurors at the civil term beginning Monday:
 First Week—W. J. Woods, J. A. Cameron, H. S. Campbell, W. S. Perkins, J. B. Coursey, J. D. Wedgeworth, M. C. Vanderford, J. I. New, J. W. Gray, M. M. Moore, S. Y. Nall, W. M. Conner, J. A. Long, W.
