

FINE CHRYSANTHEMUMS

Mr. W. A. Collins of this city presented the Daily News today with three of the finest Chrysanthemums that were ever raised in Hattiesburg. They are beauties, and ought to take the prize at any Chrysanthemum show, many of which are now being held over the state.

NEY YORK CHINKS REJOICING OVER EMPEROR'S DEATH

New York, November 16.—The news of the death of the emperor and the dowager empress of China was received here with great rejoicing in the Chinese quarter. This is explained by the fact that most of the Chinese in this country are cantonese and hate the manchus, to which the ruling family belongs.

CITY CASES IN CIRCUIT COURT

The city cases are having an ending in the circuit court today, and a number of cases are being settled. Those that will have to go to trial have been set for a later time in the term. Considering the number of cases that are tried in the police court, the number that is appealed is remarkably small.
