PUBLIC SALE

Coplon's Dry Goods Store

Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Never Before
Has Hattiesburg
Known Such
A SALE
As This One
Will Be.

There is no help for it! There can be not one day's delay. Everything must go, and it must go at once. The price you pay is the price we will get, not a cent more. Fast and furious must the selling be, for everything must be done and all over within just 10 days. We are going to discontinue the clothing portion of our business altogether and will use the space it now occupies for other lines. Many other changes will be made--and in 10 days.

$40,000 Worth of Goods To Be Turned Over to the Public at Its Own Prices

Carpenters are pounding and sawing away at their best. Right and left there are vast changes and alterations being made. Many departments will be wiped right out. No price will be too small because every vestige of goods must positively go. Come and get your share. Don't miss it on any account. Let nothing keep you from coming. Come a few days anyway. Everything will be sold strictly as advertised and all will be marked in plain figures. The building was closed all day today, November 17th, to mark down and arrange the stock. It will pay all who live within a distance of fifty miles to come. The time is set. There will positively be no delay on any account whatsoever, so, regardless of all weather conditions this sale positively
