KEPT FUNDS FOR WOODSMEN.

Conductor as a Walking Bank for Reckless Workers.

"For more than thirty years the most popular woodsman's bank in Maine was a bank on two legs," says Maj. Holmes Day, author of "King Spruce." "Until he was over seventy years old Uncle Nate Swan was conductor on the Bangor & Piscataquis railroad, running between the city and Moosehead lake. With him rode the woods and driving crews. When they forgot themselves and made a racket on his train he used to cuff them into submission and no man ever raised his hand against Uncle Nate. When the men came out of the woods with their pay most of them realized from bitter experience that the city folks would get all their money away from them in a few days. As soon as they would get aboard the train they would begin to strip ten-dollar bills off their rolls and hand the money to Uncle Nate to 'sink' for them—banking it on call. They never forgot, nor did he; and in all the years there was never a dispute between Conductor Swan and any of his depositors. When they came back on his train they were sure of enough money for their fare and their tobacco at the lake outfitting store. They wouldn't have known very well what to do with more."

It is a Wonder.

Chamberlain's Liniment is one of the most remarkable preparations yet produced for the relief of rheumatic pains, and for lame back, sprains and bruises. The quick relief from pain which it affords in case of rheumatism is alone worth many times its cost. Price 25 cents; large size 50 cents. For sale by Hays & Field, and Yellow Pine Pharmacy.

No. 12

Is the lucky number for the Webster's International Dictionary and Stand, given as a prize to our Christmas Book patrons. According to terms this number must be presented before January 1st, and if this number has been lost or fails to be presented the prize will go to the nearest one presented. So if you haven't the exact number save the ones near it, as one of them may yet be the winner.

Thanking our friends very heartily for their liberal patronage during the holiday season and the past year, we wish you all a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

HE TOOK NO CHANCES ON EGGS.

Man with "Hen Fruit" Refused Admittance to Theater.

A theatrical company that played in repertoire in country villages barred a citizen of a town, not long ago, when he entered the theater with a basket, after having purchased a ticket. Just as he was going in, the cover of the basket unaccountably slipped off, revealing two dozen eggs.

"Hi!" said the ticket taker. "This isn't Easter! Where are you going with them eggs?"

"None o' your business! Here's my ticket, all paid for an' reg'lar!" declared the citizen.

"Well, you don't take any eggs inside while I'm here," said the ticket taker; and then the other saw the reason his burden was suspected and roared with laughter.

He left the eggs in charge of the man at the box office and entered; and he enjoyed every moment of the show. When it was over, the manager returned the eggs to him, and said:

"I was afraid you might put your foot into the basket while you were applauding."—Modern Society.

Figaro Figs.
Steam pulled figs until soft, cool and make an incision in each lengthwise. Fill each with half a marshmallow and a half of English walnut meat. Press the cut edges together, roll in sugar or not as preferred.

Pepper Catsup.
Take four dozen red peppers, and cut into small pieces. Grate two roots of horseradish and six good sized onions; add two tablespoonfuls of celery seed, two of mustard seed and one of salt. Put all the ingredients into a granite kettle, add vinegar and water. Let boil for ten minutes, then stir in one pound of brown sugar and let boil for one hour. Thin with a pint of vinegar before removing from the fire. An asbestos mat should be placed under the kettle. Otherwise the catsup requires frequent stirring. Always use a granite or wooden spoon. Let cool before bottling.

During the holidays, beginning Thursday evening at 6 o'clock one half of all receipts at the Box Ball Alley, 128 Pine street, will be given to the local camp, U. C. V.
