NOEL AND STAFF TO PARTICIPATE

Jackson, Dec. 28.—Governor Noel and several members of his military staff left this morning for Vicksburg to take part in the dedication of the Indiana memorial in the National Military Park, erected in memory of the troops from the Hoosier State who fell during the memorable siege.

The dedication ceremony will take place at 11 a. m., and the governor and his party will probably return to the capital this evening. The three military companies in Vicksburg have been given formal sanction from the adjutant general's office to take part in the ceremony.

It is not yet known whether Governor Henley and the members of his party from Indiana will visit Jackson on their return trip, Governor Noel will tender them an invitation to do so, but if a trip is made to Jackson it will probably be very brief.

DEENEN ON THE PROGRAM

Illinois Governor Will Talk to State Teachers in Annual Convention

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 29.—With a salutation from Governor Deenen and an address by President James, of the University of Illinois, the Illinois Teachers' Association will open its annual convention here this evening.

In view of the work of the commission appointed by Governor Deenen to revise the school laws of the state, this meeting will be an important one. It was owing to the agitation of the subject that the legislature authorized the appointing of the commission and an immense interest in the work of the commission is taken by the rank and file of the teachers. Much of the time of the convention will be devoted to this subject. Various phases of the subject will be discussed and the proposed changes in the law will be explained and discussed.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by Hays & Field and Yellow Pine Pharmacy.

GOSSIP OF PRIZE RING

Hart and Schreck to Meet in Mortal Combat at Lexington, Ky., at Early Date.

Hearst News Service.

New York, Dec. 29.—The fight fans of the Blue Grass region must be easy marks if they fall for the frame-up that has been fixed for Thursday evening at Lexington, Ky. Marvin Hart and Mike Schreck, those old heavy-weight war horses, will furnish the amusement. There is to be twenty rounds of it, and it ought to be a screech.

Hart and Schreck once fought in the concert hall of Madison Square Garden, and pulled off about the biggest farce ever seen in the metropolis. Neither man displayed as much science or cleverness as would be expected of a brawling washerwoman. Hart and Schreck are about the biggest jokes in the pugilistic world. It is likely that Bill Squires, the Australian "wonder," could lick both of them.

These are bad days for some of the former stars of pugdom. Joe Gans is being sued for $5,000 damages because he allowed his automobile to run over a woman in Baltimore. Aurelio Herrera, the Mexican scrapper who once cut some ice in the light-weight division, was recently accused by his wife of having an "affinity," and Mrs. Herrera was granted a divorce in consequence. Aurelio now lives in California. Some of the burning epistles from his affinity were read in court, and rendered the atmosphere so torrid that the windows had to be opened.

The letters of the affinity were written from Boston. "Kid, I love you so, kid," she wrote. "You was so good to me and I just happen to be dead stuck on you."

Ten million kisses were conveyed to the pugilist, and his sighing correspondent told him she had said to her friends, "There wasn't any girl who would not love her kid."

Herrera now keeps a saloon in Bakersfield. His wife testified he had not contributed to her support for more than a year. She was granted a divorce.

Recent discussions as to the receipt of various big fights has resulted in the discovery that the largest gate record in American was that at Goldfield when Gans defeated Battling Nelson on a foul after forty-odd rounds, the amount reaching $69,715, of which the fighters received $33,500.

However, Nelson and Gans hold the record only by a narrow margin, for the memorable fight between Jeff and Tom Sharkey at Coney Island, which the boilermaker won on a decision by the late George Siler at the end of twenty-five hard rounds, drew a gate of $66,200, of which the men got $36,465 and Jefferies $21,870.

TRAVELERS ELECT OFFICERS.

St. Louis, Dec. 29.—T. D. Wilcox was elected president of the Western Commercial Travelers' Association at its annual meeting in the Jefferson Hotel today. Eight directors were also elected.
