

THE CANADIAN FRONT.

Of all the blunders and mis-managed expeditions of modern times there is probably none to compare with the recent Fenian raid into Canada.

It is almost next to impossible for anything like a successful revolution to occur. Little spasmodic outbreaks here and there, by hot headed and ambitious young men continue from time to time to distract the Government and to bring trouble upon themselves and friends.

As an exchange, in commenting upon the anti-masonic order recently started in Chicago, very pertinently says: "The history of Don Quixote and his fight with the windmill, foreshadows the end of this Puritan effort."

Masonry works in secret. So does nature. So does he who rules all. We see grass grow—flowers bloom—seasons come and grow—the young grow old, and the old die. We cannot tell why this is so, and yet we can.

Discovery of the original documents for the books of Genesis.—This is startling news, says Mr. Chas. Welford (in his last letter from London to the Book Buyer of this city.)

SEVERAL OF ALCOHN'S INAUGURAL.—Gen. D. H. Hill, of the Southern Home, has not a very high opinion of the Governor's Inaugural Message. Hear him:

DEVER was built on the banks of an extinct creek. The creek has now become a constant stream, needing to be crossed by bridges.

Vermont, went into a house, and into a room in which was a United States Marshal, by him was seized, placed in a carriage and driven ignominiously away to jail where he now lies.

E. HILL, the newly appointed Chancellor for this district, will be remembered by many of our citizens as one of the "bully boys with a glass eye," who officiated at the Castle Hill pow wow in this city in November last.

There is a picture for you—a fr illustration of the situation in the United States to-day. A United States Senator, in receipt of an annual salary of five thousand dollars, and "perquisites," mileage, and profits from lectures to a very large amount, visits his pauper sister, and gives her fifty cents!

THE REVELS FAMILY, and we state nothing that we did not get from her own lips. Especially shall we be particular not to exaggerate the neglect on the part of her relatives, the truth being sufficiently strong.

THE BROTHER IN THE SENATE AND THE SISTER IN THE POOR-HOUSE—BEING LIONEL'S ABOUT THE COUNTRY, WHILE SHE IS DYING IN A PAUPER HOSPITAL—ASSISTANCE NEEDED.

We have previously, in showing up the character of the negro Senator Revels, who is traveling about the country delivering lectures and receiving the homage of the Radical party, demonstrated and proven that the honorable gentleman is a thief.

A VISIT TO THE SISTER in question. A hour's ride from the Democrat office took us to Third avenue and Sixty-fifth street, from which point a short walk brought us to the Colored Home.

THE COLORED HOME, and there encountered a sable sentinel of uncertain age, but certain color. We held a parley with this picket, secured admittance, and stated the object of our visit to the matron of the Home, a tall, spare white woman, of about fifty years of age.

THE BROTHERS REFUSED ASSISTANCE.

THE BROTHERS REFUSED ASSISTANCE, although she says that Hiram, especially, was in condition to do so, as he was at that time preaching in Baltimore for a good salary.

GAVE HER FIFTY CENTS. There is a picture for you—a fr illustration of the situation in the United States to-day. THE POWER OF MUSIC.

A correspondent of the Utica Herald writes to that paper as follows: "We do not remember to have heard of a more interesting episode in the life of any artist since the days of the great Jenny Lind, than that of Miss Kellogg, at the State Lunatic Asylum, a few days since."
