EMPLOYMENT FOR WOMEN.—Working women, fitted for light and fancy work, such as sewing, knitting, crocheting and similar employment, have been invited by Mrs. L. S. Slaide to meet at her residence, No. 49 West Thirty-second street, next Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of forming a Ladies' Combination Depository. It is thought that this movement will aid a large number of women formerly possessed of means, but now in reduced circumstances, and who are not fitted for any laborious occupation. It will give all who are willing to help themselves a chance to do so. It is proposed to establish a bazaar or exchange for fancy work to facilitate the disposal of this class of goods and thereby help all engaged in its manufacture. The depository is intended to be self-sustaining, and to this end Mrs. Slaide will thankfully receive any remnants or unused pieces of goods which can be used in the work.—[N. Y. Herald, 12th.

A DOZEN papers have shown the advantages that State banks would bring to the South. It is wholly superfluous to go over these again, because they have never been doubted or denied. To Louisiana and New Orleans, however, this system would bring greater benefits than to any other portion of the Union. It is a system that prevailed here in more prosperous and happier days—one under which our city flourished; that was found eminently suited to our manner of doing business; that would never have been changed or destroyed by anything less demoralizing and overwhelming than war.—[N. O. Democrat.

MRS. ADMIRAL DAHLGREN opposes female suffrage, though she was too modest to appear before the Senate Committee and spout. She says that if any woman in the country has a grievance because she is not permitted to vote, she is that woman, as, having neither father, husband, nor brother, she has several young children to educate and protect, and important property interests to guard; nevertheless she prefers to trust to the moral influence over men which intelligence never fails to exercise, and which is really more potent in the management of business affairs than the direct vote.

Canadian Bigotry—O'Donovan Rossa not to be allowed to Lecture.

NEW YORK, March 16.—O'Donovan Rossa, who had been engaged to lecture on "Irish Liberty and English Life," at Toronto, was notified that he would be mobbed. The owner of the Opera House there refused to allow him to lecture in the building. Rossa says he will deliver his lecture, and if mobbed, or arrested on the charge of violating his English sentence of 20 years exile, will claim American protection, but he doesn't believe the American Government spirited enough to interfere.

THE first clause in the will of the late LARZ ANDERSON, of Cincinnati, is this: "First desiring to express, however inadequately, my gratitude to Him to whom I owe a long and prosperous life, and to testify my undoubting faith in the Christian religion, and to commend its consolation to all who know me, and whom my example or authority can in any way influence." Mr. Anderson leaves to his wife, Mrs. Catherine Longworth Anderson, his entire estate, "to be disposed of at her sole will and pleasure."

JUDGE PITMAN, the prohibition candidate for Governor of Massachusetts last autumn, in his charge to a jury at Cambridge, last Friday, expressed strong disapprobation of the practice of hiring men to go about and purchase liquor for the purpose of becoming informers and witnesses. He thought conviction was too dearly purchased by such means, and that it was causing witnesses to become participants in the crimes and exposing them to the danger of becoming hard drinkers, as well as presenting temptation to the seller.

SENATOR LAMAR is said to have received a letter from Mississippi, signed by a majority of the members of the State Senate, approving his course on the Silver Bill. The report is entirely probable. Even the Mississippi journals, which did not agree with him, commended his manliness in following his convictions. Mr. Hill, on the contrary, gets praise from nobody, and considerable abuse from everybody.—[N. Y. Tribune.

ONE of the meanest misers on record lives in Buckland, Mass. Although he is supposed to be the wealthiest man in town he has sent his boy to school this winter so poorly clad that the teacher has been obliged to keep a needle and thread and take him out of the schoolroom and sew his rags together in order to cover his nakedness.

THE Dutch, if a pauper who is able refuses to work, put him into a deep cistern and let in a sluice of water. It comes in just so fast that by briskly plying a pump with which the cistern is furnished, he keeps himself from drowning.

OF course the ancients knew nothing of the use of steam. But, then, how bout that classic expression, "When Greek meets Greek then comes the tug of war?"

THERE is one good plank in the platform of the Labor party—the reduction of some of the extravgant salaries of our officials.—[New York paper.
