

Edwards News

Mrs. O. L. Jasper, Reporter The Friendship M. B. Church held its regular Sunday School and monthly meeting Sunday, October 6. With such a nice cool day the spirit of worship was very high, both day and night. Rev. C. L. West, pastor, Mr. A. N. Willis, clerk; Mrs. Edna Hutton, pianist.

The Edwards Jr. High Teachers and students are really making progress by presenting such timely and educational programs, each Wednesday for the Chapel assembly. Mr. Walter Washington, president of Utica Junior College was guest speaker for the Chapel Assembly, Sept. 2. He took the faculty, students, Mrs. Green, the Music Supervisor and Miss Fitzgerald, our music teacher on an "Imaginary" trip, mostly around the world. We first traveled by Jet, T. W. A. and Delta Airline. It is hoped that President Washington will return soon in order that the trip will be completed before Christmas arrives.

A Surprise Birthday party was given for Mrs. Amanda Robinson in her home, September 30, by her husband, Mr. Earl Robinson, sister, Mrs. Bertha Bowman and friend, Mrs. Mary Harris. Those sharing the gala affair with refreshments and fun were: Mesdames Mamie Dangerfield, Willette Jordan, Inez Laws, Mary Blue, Lucille Perry, Joe H. Mason, Kathye McCurtis, Vertesine Butler, Mayonie Reed, Lillie Butler, Grace Brown, Carrie Jordan, Lula Lynch, Robie Allen, Esequena Grant, Willie M. Taylor, Odie Burns, Annie Jackson, Sallie Thomas, Ethel West, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. John Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Marshall, Jr. & Mrs. James Clinton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dozier, Rev. and Mrs. Jenkins and family, Mr. Algie Stevens, Miss Bernice Thomas, Misses Lottie and Thelma Bozeman, nieces of the honoree.

Fannin News

Mrs. Ezlee Grant, Reporter

Services at Wesley Chapel C. M. E. Church were very interesting and informative this past Sunday. The members were very pleased to have Rev. Moore back as pastor for the next conference year. He delivered a timely sermon on Sunday. That night, the Mission sisters rendered a special program. Money raised for day and night services, $24.00. Rev. Leon Moore, Pastor, Sister Georgia Taylor, Little Diane Bradley is up and much better after being ill with pneumonia. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Ruby Ervin.

Regular Worship Services will be held at the Fannin M. B. Church, Sunday, October 13. The pastor will preach, beginning at 12: noon. The general public is invited to come and worship together. Mrs. Alphonie Hill, Sec., Rev. W. H. Hines of Jackson, pastor.

Rev. Eddie Gipson will preach at the Truelight M. B. Church on Sunday, October 13 at 3: P. M. The public is invited. Sis. Mamie Taylor, Sec., Rev. J. T. Truevillion, pastor.
